STARTLING IF TRUE!

Alleged Attempt of the Czar to Commit Suicide—Saved by His Mother.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PARIS, March 30.—[By Atlantic Cable.] An unconfirmed report from St. Petersburg is published here this morning to the effect that Emperor Nicholas made an attempt to commit suicide and wounded himself in the hand. The rumor says further that the Emperor's design was frustrated by the intervention of his mother, the Empress Dowager.

THE GREAT WAR.

PEACE DOVE TAKES ROUNDABOUT COURSE.

Russia Loath to Admit She Desires to Call Off the Dogs of War.

Continues Preparations to Make Further Resistance, but Gives Out Negative Hints of Terms on Which She Would Treat—Japan Advised to Insist on Negotiations Between St. Petersburg and Tokio Direct.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, March 29.—[By Atlantic Cable.] An official news agency says:

"In spite of the general inclination in favor of the conclusion of the war, Russia has not proposed any peace conditions nor prepared any such conditions."

FIRST STEP ACTUALLY TAKEN.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, March 29.—The Associated Press is in a position to announce that a step in the direction of peace actually has been taken. Russia has indirectly made known to Japan the negative conditions upon which peace may be concluded, namely, no concession of territory and no indemnity, leaving Japan to determine whether negotiations can be begun on that basis. No reply from Japan has yet reached the Russian government.

NO FORMAL OVERTURES YET.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Neither Russia nor Japan has asked President Roosevelt to assist them in ending the war. So far as this government is aware, Emperor Nicholas has not yet weakened in his decision to "prosecute the war to the bitter end."

BEAR CAN'T LET GO.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, March 29.—Russia's attitude was described today by a prominent diplomat as follows: "The government is now for peace, but continues to prepare for war."

JAPAN'S FRIENDLY WARNING.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, March 29.—It is stated here that Japan has received an urgent warning from a neutral power to beware of all offers of mediation from any government, and to insist upon direct negotiations with St. Petersburg.

DENYING PROPOSALS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, March 30, 1 a. m.—[By Atlantic Cable.] Officially the authorities continue to deny stoutly that Russia has made known proposals to Japan. This is literally true, as Russia has only made known the negative conditions, leaving the intermediary to convey the conditions Japan on its own responsibility.

Diplomats in St. Petersburg are convinced that something is in progress, but none of those in a position to know will acknowledge that they are aware of what actually has been or is being done.

The Novoe Vremya yesterday for the first time admitted the possibility of negotiations for peace. Commenting on the efforts o fthe British and French press to prove that peace is advisable, both for Russia and Japan, the Novoe Vremya declared that the payment of indemnity by Russia is utterly out of the question, as it would be a contribution tending to build up the strength of Japan, and that Japan is not in a position to claim indemnity.

The paper asks whether diplomats "who did nothing to prevent war," now will turn their attention to bringing it to a close on terms advantageous to both combatants.

INDIRECT OVERTURES.

Through what channel or channels Russia has indirectly communicated with Japan the Associated Press is not in a position to state definitely, although there is reason to believe that it is through the United States. It is practically certain that France, and possibly Great Britain, as the two allies of the belligerents, and the United States, as the country acting for Japan, have been apprised of Russia's position.

Last night's rumors that President Roosevelt had tendered his good offices to both parties are incorrect. The President's friendly disposition and perfect willingness to undertake to open negotiations, however, are well understood here, and without asking directly that they be communicated to Japan, Russia could make known to President Roosevelt through Ambassador Cassini the conditions to which she could not agree. While thus giving Japan an opportunity of knowing officially what the basis of peace negotiations must be, Russia avoids the attitude of suing for peace or actually submitting proposals, and besides places the United States and Great Britain and the powers generally in a position where they could offer Japan advice as to the reasonableness of the proposed basis.

Having been apprised of Russia's position, Japan has two alternatives—either to decline absolutely to open negotiations on such a basis, or indicate her own attitude. If the negotiations are opened, Russia probably will be prepared to make broad concessions on collateral issues, as stated by the Associated Press.

RUSSIAN WAR COUNCIL.

The whole situation with reference to the prosecution of the war is being carefully considered from every viewpoint by a commission sitting under the presidency of Grand Duke Nicholas Nicholaievitch, inspector-general of the navy, and consisting of Minister of War Sakharoff, Vice-Admiral Avelan, head of the Russian Admiralty; Minister of Finance Kokovsoff; Minister of Railroads Khilkoff; Foreign Minister Lamsdorff; Gens. Grodekoff and Kamaroff, and several others. Every phase of the situation, military, naval, financial, transportation, Siberian and diplomatic, is being covered. The commission's report, which is expected to be completed in ten days, will be prepared by Grand Duke Nicholas Nicholaievitch and Gens. Grodekoff and Kamaroff for submission to the Emperor.

PARIS PEACE VIEW.

DECIDEDLY OPTIMISTIC.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PARIS, March 29.—[By Atlantic Cable.] All the official information relative to peace is of a negative nature. At the same time the official view is now strongly optimistic that peace is not far distant. This view is not due to exact information, but is the result of a settled conviction that peace is the only logical outcome of Russia's present predicament. However, the Foreign Office refuses to credit the various reports that France is taking a hand in the negotiations or preliminaries, and specifically denies the report from a northern capital that Russia has asked Foreign Minister Delcasse to act as intermediary.

Another report prominently displayed in the Echo de Paris today says the United States "is about to make a coup de theater by initiating peace."

This likewise is not credited in high quarters, as letters just received from Ambassador McCormick say Russia has not made any advances through him. Moreover, Mr. McCormick's departure from St. Petersburg tonight is regarded in diplomatic quarters here as indicating that there is no imminence of the United States playing a decisive role. On the contrary, the general view is that Japanese official opinion is pessimistic concerning peace being realized. This indicates that the preliminaries have not made appreciable progress, or else that Japan does not intend to interrupt her successful campaign. It is even intimated in a high quarter that it makes no difference what St. Petersburg decides relative to asking for peace, as it will remain for Tokio to accept or reject it. Therefore, it is maintained, the peace situation has shifted from St. Petersburg to Tokio, which now holds the key to the peace situation.

Although official information is lacking, it is asserted in well-informed quarters that Japan has permitted Russia to learn that the peace conditions will be severely rigorous and will not be responsive to the recent sentimental plea to Japan's magnanimity. In particular it is said that Japan's indemnity figure is $800,000,000, and that this stupendous sum has proved so staggering to Russian diplomacy that it is the chief cause why the peace preliminaries do not advance to a decisive stage.

NEW PLAN OF CAMPAIGN.

War Feeling Very Strong in St. Petersburg—Will Fight to the Death.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

MADGEBURG, March 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Gazette publishes a St. Petersburg dispatch which says that the feeling in leading Russian circles is very warlike. The war council, under the presidency of Grand Duke Nicholas, has evolved a new plan of campaign, which includes bringing the army in Manchuria up to the strength of 600,000 men.

WAR TO THE DEATH.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PARIS, March 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The correspondent of the Matin had an interview today with Gen. Batlanoff, whose appointment to the command of the Third Manchurian army was announced in St. Petersburg yesterday, and asked him whether the war would be fought "to the death." The general replied emphatically: "Certainly, it surely will."

BEAR'S WORST FEARS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BERLIN, March 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] No confirmation of rumored negotiations to end the war in the Far East can be obtained here. It is admitted, however, that the Russian government has asked various military experts whether there is any chance of beating Japan. Russia now fears that if she continues the war she will lose Sakhalien and Vladivostok.

There is also danger that Gen. Linevitch's army will be cut off and captured.

AWAKENING OF THE DRAGON.

CHINA PREPARING TO DEFEND HER INTEGRITY.

Steps Being Taken to Meet Grave Crisis Resulting from the Russo-Japanese War—Immense Army Being Raised and Equipped With Modern Implements of War.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

VICTORIA, (B. C.) March 29.—Mail advices received from Peking by the Empress of Japan are to the effect that high officials of China recognize that China will have to pass through a grave crisis threatening the very foundations of her independence and integrity at the close of the war, and that to avert anarchy and chaos the empire must be well armed and ready. The Manchu civil and military authorities are accordingly rearming the various banner organizations, Manchu, Mongol and Chinese.

To the end of February, twenty-eight battalions over and above the seven thousand Manchus equipped with good arms in 1902, had been provided with either Mannlicher or Mauser magazine rifles. Factories are working to provide thirty thousand more for the Chinese forces at Peking. These forces will form the nucleus of a modern Chinese army, to be organized without delay. An army of half a million men is expected to be ready, well-armed, for the defense of Peking, before June.

TACOMA'S CREW RELEASED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

YOKOHAMA, March 29.—The crew of the steamer Tacoma, owned by the Northwestern Commercial Steamship Company of Seattle, which was captured by the Japanese March 14 north of the Island of Hokkaido, arrived here today and were released. They tell a graphic story of their adventures in the ice floes from February 4 to March 14.

The Tacoma left Seattle at midnight January 5, and on January 14 reached Dutch Harbor, where she coaled. On February 4 the vessel became hopelessly icebound north of Hokkaido island and was seriously beaten by the heavy ice packs which crashed and pounded against her sides with a report that could be heard for miles. The decks and rigging were covered with hundreds of tons of ice. The crew expected that the vessel would be crushed momentarily. The supply of coal ran short and the fires were put out, which resulted in many of the crew nearly freezing to death. Provisions also ran short and the cargo of beef had to be broached.

On March 11 the Tacoma drifted in the midst of an ice floe only half a mile from the dangerous rock near which the British steamer Mars stranded a few days ago.

On March 14 the Tacoma encountered a Japanese warship by which she was seized.

The courtesy of the Japanese is appreciated by the crew of the Tacoma, who say they expect to return to the United States on the steamer Minnesota.

The Tacoma was loaded with supplies, including salt beef, and was reported to be bound for Vladivostok, though clearing for Shanghai. The owners of the vessel have asked the State Department to intervene and prevent, if possible, condemnation by the prize court, on the ground that the Tacoma was not carrying contraband goods; that she was bound direct for Shanghai and that her entire cargo was consigned to a Shanghai merchant. The vessel is now at Nagasaki awaiting trial.

GERMANS KILLED IN AFRICA.

BERLIN, March 25.—An official dispatch from Windhoek, German Southwest Africa, today announced that eleven men of Kerchner's detachment were killed and twenty-two were wounded in a fight with insurgents March 170 and 11 at Koets and Gei-

SANTO DOMINGO.

SITUATION CLEARING.

Control of Finances Brings Stability.

Prof. Hollander Will Make a Study of the Conditions for Uncle Sam.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SANTO DOMINGO, March 29.—[By West India Cable.] The news of the acceptance by the government at Washington of the proposition of the Domican government that the government of the United States assume control of the finances of this republic with the view of setting aside a portion of the revenues of the island for the payment of its debts, pending definite action on the part of the American Senate, has had a most favorable effect here. The opinion is expressed that the action taken by the authorities at Washington will change the situation completely.

COLLECTOR SELECTED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, March 29.—The President has decided to recommend the selection of William E. Gould of Baltimore as one of the collectors of customs at Santo Domingo. It has not yet been determined whether he shall have general charge of the collections at all ports, or whether other persons will be appointed. The details are still under consideration.

FINANCIAL EDITORIAL WRITER.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

BALTIMORE, March 29.—William E. Gould is a New Yorker, though he has resided here for some time past. He is a graduate of Johns Hopkins and has made a special study of the Romanic languages. At present he is doing financial editorial work on the staff of the Evening Herald of this city.

AMERICAN MAN-OF-WAR.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, March 29.—An American man-of-war will be sent to Port Au Prince to protect American interests. This determination was arrived at today, when the State Department received a cablegram from Minister Powell, saying that serious trouble is impending in Hayti, and it is doubtful whether the authorities can maintain peace and order March 31 as April 1. The State Department immediately requested the Navy Department to dispatch vessel to Port Au Prince.

BELGIUM'S PROTEST.

IS EXPLAINED BY RENOS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

HAVANA, March 29.—[By West India Cable.] Charles Renos, the Belgian Chargé d'Affaires at Santo Domingo, arrived here today. He informed the Associated Press that all was apparently tranquil when he left Santo Domingo. He said his protest to President Morales regarding the Franco-Belgian claims was not a protest against anything which had been done or was being done by the United States, but was a reiteration of the Franco-Belgian claims for payment of the interest on the Santo Dominican government bonds, and an inquiry as to when the payment would be forthcoming. Nothing was written or said about the collection of any portion of the revenues under the supervision of Belgium.

The American Minister, Mr. Dawson, consulted with the diplomatic representatives at Santo Domingo about the arrangement accepted yesterday by the President, but only as individuals, they in no sense committing the governments to the arrangement. They considered it a fair arrangement. The details as to where the 55 per cent of the customs revenues was to be deposited and how drawn upon were not completed when Renos left Santo Domingo, but he was confident that action at Washington would prevent the payment of the Franco-Belgian claims for interest amounting to $2,000,000, the United States guardianship, he pointed out, making the matter reassuring.

MONTE CHRISTI REVOLUTION.

NO DECLARATION BY TAFT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Secretary Taft made no declaration today about the alleged revolutionary movement at Monte Cristi, Santo Domingo, but said that an American agent was at that port collecting the revenues and intimated that it was not like that this government would allow any disturbance to interfere with his duty. This refers to Commander Leper of the Detroit.

It is said at the department that the next step in the execution of the department's plans relating to Santo Domingo cannot be taken until President Morales has formally concluded arrangements with the foreign creditors of the powers, two of which, up to yesterday, had not acted. When the President has secured the necessary signatures to their agreement and has so informed Washington, the Secretary of War will at once nominate to President Morales the person who is to act as chief collector and perhaps the subcollectors at the minor ports, although it is possible the designation of these will be left to the chief collector.

PROF. HOLLANDER.

WILL STUDY THE CONDITIONS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

BALTIMORE, (Md.) March 29.—Prof. Jacob H. Hollander of the Johns Hopkins University, who has been appointed special commissioner to Santo Domingo by the President, will leave Baltimore next Friday afternoon for New York. He will sail from New York Saturday morning on the Caracas for San Juan. He will return to Baltimore about the middle of May.

Prof. Hollander said this morning that his mission is purely for the purpose of studying the conditions in Santo Domingo, so as to be able upon his return to make a verbal report to the President, who is anxious to know just what the financial and industrial status of the people is. He said that his is a more personal mission for the President than anything else, and that it is in no way associated with the collection of customs, nor with any permanent board that may subsequently be appointed, except that the result of Prof. Hollander's mission may decide whether a commission will be appointed or not.

RETURN OF THE CALABRIA.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, March 29.—In connection with the return of the Italian cruiser Calabria from Kingston, Jamaica, the Herald's correspondent at Santo Domingo says: Signor Bancalari, a leading Italian, has sailed for Samana after a serious dispute with Minister of Finance Velasquez. Bancalari took a leading part in urging the general adoption of the modus vivendi, but was indignant when he learned that Velasquez had recently paid $10,000 on the claim of a French creditor, while Bancalari's government note was returned dishonored for the same sum.

Bancalari said he was willing to wait with the others, but would not tolerate discrimination. His claim is secured by a lien of 5 per cent, on all the revenues of the ports of Samana and Sanchez.

Several hot interviews passed, and the Italian threatened to call on the Calabria to return from Jamaica. The cruiser arrived at 6 o'clock Tuesday evening.

Lieut. Logan of the Castine has boarded the Calabria, whose commander says his orders are to remain here until relieved by the Dogali, now at Trinidad.

Mr. Dawson, the American minister, and Capt. Dorn have both cabled to the authorities at Washington.

CRUISER NEWARK.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, March 29.—The Navy Department, it is said, probably will send the cruiser Newark, Admiral Higbee's flagship now at Guantanamo, to Port au Prince. The distance is but 180 miles, and the latter port can be quickly reached. The Brooklyn is expected to arrive at Guantanamo tonight or tomorrow.

PITTSBURGH'S HOT SPELL.

Two Mill Workers Dead and Several in Serious Condition on Account of Excessive Heat.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PITTSBURGH, (Pa.) March 29.—Two millworkers have died, several are in serious condition and many have been compelled to quit their duties in the mills in this city and vicinity owing to the excessive heat yesterday and today. The temperature registered 87 degrees and it was the first time within recollection that so much suffering has existed among mill employes on account of warm weather in March.

TWINE TRUST DIVIDENDS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, March 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The directors of the American Grass Twine Company, including Henry E. Howland and D. Ogden Mills, it was learned today, paid back to the company's treasury last December $642,766, being the amount of four quarterly dividends which had been paid out of the capital, instead of the profits of the company. This was disclosed in an argument today on the Supreme Court opinion on the application made by the lawyers for Joseph Watkins, stockholder of the twine trust, who, following the decision of Justice John Proctor, holding the directors personally liable for illegally-paid dividends, served notice on the directors of the twine trust that he purposed taking similar action.

Following Watkins's claim that the dividends had been illegally declared, he instituted nine separate actions against the various directors. The directors thereupon got together and raised the amount that had been paid illegally, together with interest from the date of payment, amounting to $81,933.

ROCKEFELLER'S GIFT NOT TO BE SPURNED.

Prudential Committee Unanimously Recommends Its Acceptance—Final Action on the Matter Postponed for Two Weeks.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

BOSTON, March 29.—The American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions announced today that its Prudential Committee had accepted a report of the sub-committee, recommending the acceptance of the gift of $100,000 by John D. Rockefeller, but that final action on the matter had been postponed for two weeks. The report of the sub-committee, in the language of a statement issued by the board today, "was received and accepted as expressing the unanimous judgment of the Prudential Committee and the executive officers," and was to the effect that the committee could not accede to the protest of those who objected to the acceptance of the gift.

DR. GLADDEN'S OPPOSITION.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

COLUMBUS, (O.) March 29.—"There should be an organized movement of the churches," said Rev. Washington Gladden, Moderator of the Congregational Church, today, "against the acceptance of the gift of John D. Rockefeller to the American Board of Foreign Missions.

"Something should be done at once. I shall consult the authorities of the church and ascertain their attitude in the matter. The gift should not be accepted."

NOT SETTLED YET.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

BOSTON, March 29.—Rev. Mr. Evans, chairman of the committee protesting against acceptance of Mr. Rockefeller's gift to the missionary fund, said today:

"A meeting of the committee has been called for tomorrow to discuss the report and decide upon the next step. This committee has been increased in membership to fifteen, in order that all sections of New England may be represented. The protestants are growing in number throughout the country, both within and without the Congregational church. More and more representative men are coming over to our side. The matter is not settled by any means."

SUB-COMMITTEE'S REPORT.

An abstract of the report of the sub-committee of the American Board of Commissioners for foreign missions, reads as follows:

"For almost a century the board has received gifts from every quarter in America. In receiving gifts from these varied sources the board has in no degree and in no way passed judgment on the religion, character or life of the donors. In this policy we have followed the universal custom of the past, for the church in all ages has received upon its altars the gifts of all who were moved to lay them thereon. The same principle has been followed, not only by philanthropic and educational institutions, but other missionary bodies.

"The principle on which this policy rests is the belief that our responsibility begins with the receipt of a gift; it then becomes our trust for which we are to be held responsible. We are asked now to make an exception and to single out this recent voluntary gift for refusal. It should be stated that this gift of $100,000 was offered to the board and only accepted by the Prudential committee on February 14. It is a building and equipment fund and is available only for the purpose named. Of this $91,000 has been already appropriated and $41,500 has already been forwarded.

"Your committee sees no reason why we should have departed from the custom of the board and made our committee practically a tribunal to decide whether gifts are to be received. It would be manifestly unjust and unthinkable to reject gifts without thorough scrutiny, and it is equally clear that no committee could possibly undertake the task of such a scrutiny.

"It seems to us that it would have been an assumption and usurpation if we had tried to stop any man who wished to give for missionary work. The reason assigned for rejecting the recent gift is, that gifts constitute a relation of honor between the recipient and the donor. This gift was made without conditions. This means that it involves the American Board in no obligation whatever, material or moral, to the donor. The church must not make such an assumption about its gifts or receive none at all. Gifts made to the church can be accepted only on the assumption that they are debts paid to God and humanity and involve nothing whatever in the way of favors. To assume that obligation is designed or contemplated, is to accuse the giver of seeking to further his own interests and the church of being a respecter of persons. The committee feel that such an assumption concerning either the giver or the recipient is unwarrantable and that they have no right to prevent this money from doing the work for which it has been designated.

"The argument which has been presented in various ways and by different protestants in the last few days is summed up practically in this: That there is a great evil in our country; that the donor of this gift is believed by them to be identified in a conspicuous way with this evil, and therefore the American board should refuse this gift in this conspicuous way and thus strike a blow to this evil. We feel that the protestants have other ways of making their views known and that the blow should not be struck at the expense of the people in the non-Christian world. We do not deem that any gift is made to the committee, but simply through the committee to objects for which the committee is a trustee. For this reason also the acceptance of gifts involves no expression of opinion on the part of the committee as to the character of the givers and to intercept a gift made to others in order to express an opinion for ourselves seems unwarrantable. In common with the protestants we are not blind to the moral issue they have raised. But the committee does not feel warranted by a refusal of gifts to pass final judgment on the questions which have never been settled before the courts or at the bar of public opinion.

"While, therefore, we do respect most sincerely the conscientious convictions of the petitioners, we on our part must ask that our conscience also be respected, believing as we do that under our solemn obligation to care for our trust, we had no right to decline this gift. It is obvious, therefore, that we can take no action in order to grant the request of the petitioners."

STANDARD OIL HAS TROUBLES OF ITS OWN.

Grand Jury Investigation By the Federal Government Ordered at Topeka—Attorney-General of Missouri Applies to Oust the Trust.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

KANSAS CITY, March 29.—The Journal today says:

"The Standard Oil Company is to undergo a grand jury investigation by the Federal government, such as the beef trust is now burdened with in Chicago. Oil trust investigation is to take place in Topeka, according to a government official here, and is to begin in a couple of weeks. Incidentally, the railroads are to be dragged in.

"A grand jury was drawn at Topeka, a few days ago, ostensibly to look after the regular criminal business of the Kansas Federal court. It will attend to that business, but its really big task is to investigate Standard Oil methods. Great secrecy is maintained in regard to the matter. The names of the jurors will not be given out. It has been the custom in the past to publish the list of grand jurors along with the petit jurors. But a new rule has been laid down, not to divulge the names of members of the jury.

"From the same source it is learned that Commissioner Garfield will aid in the grand jury investigation in Kansas."

NO CONCESSIONS IN PRICE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

TOPEKA, (Kan.) March 29.—The Standard Oil Company has discontinued giving jobbers and wholesalers in Kansas concessions in the price of refined oil and gasoline. The effect of this order will be, it is said, to take the business of handling of kerosene away from the wholesalers who will now have to pay the retail price for these commodities.

TROUBLE IN MISSOURI.

FRANCHISES TO BE OUSTED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

JEFFERSON CITY (Mo.) March 29.—Atty.-Gen. Hadley today filed in the Supreme Court an application for a writ of quo warranto for the purpose of ousting the Standard Oil Company, the Republic Oil Company and the Waters-Pierce Oil Company of their franchises for doing business in Missouri. The Supreme Court issued the writ, and made it returnable to the court en banc April 11. The application charges the company with being in a combination to control prices and the supply of oil in the State.

TAMMANY RAISES HOWL.

Braves Do Not Like the Bill to Extend Supervision to Election of Delegates to Political Conventions.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ALBANY (N. Y.) March 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] An important and far-reaching extension of the powers of Superintendent Morgan's metropolitan election bureau is provided in the bill introduced today by Senator Saxe and Assemblyman Stanley. The measure was offered as a Republican organization proposition and extends the supervision of the election bureau to the election of delegates to all political conventions in the counties of Greater New York.

Tammany men raised a great howl when they saw the bill. The Tammanyites declared it was an attempt of the Republican State chairmen virtually to take charge of their organization and greatly interfere with their party machinery. Chairman Odell's enemies assert that it was a bold move in the direction of further strengthening the ex-Governor's grip on the New York Republican County Committee.

The bill is an amendment to the metropolitan election law, as follows: "Any election of delegates to county committees within the metropolitan election district shall be deemed to be an election for State officers, within the meaning of this act."

It means that Superintendent Morgan's bureau may exercise its powers and authority over the election of the members of the party organizations, as well as over the election of public officers.

CHARGES AGAINST SCHIFF.

Director of the Equitable Life Assurance Society Says Transactions are Legitimate.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, March 29.—Jacob H. Schiff of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., made a statement today with reference to the charges made yesterday in a petition presented to the State Attorney-General at Albany by State Senator Brackett. These charges alleged that Schiff, who is a director of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, had received commissions on bonds worth $5,000,000, sold to the society by his own banking firm, Kuhn, Loeb & Co., and that therefore he had violated the law forbidding participation in such transactions by a director of an insurance company.

Schiff, having been asked to make a statement in connection with the allegations, said to a representative of the Associated Press: "It must not be expected that I shall dignify by any defense of my firm's position the wild allegations made and which have no basis in fact. Suffice it to say that my firm has recently submitted to different eminent counsel the transactions it has made heretofore in the Equitable, and has been advised by all of them that in their opinion no reason exists why these dealings should be discontinued, and similar transactions as heretofore not be made in the future by the firm of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., with the Equitable Life Assurance Society."

FIRE AND EXPLOSIONS IN NEW YORK SUBWAY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, March 29.—A severe explosion followed by an outbreak of fire, which up to a late hour tonight had defied all efforts of the firemen to extinguish it completely occurred today in an unfinished section of the subway at Broadway and One Hundred and Sixty-seventh street. The road at that point is 125 feet below the surface. The explosion followed a collision between an empty train which had been run too far beyond the terminal switch and a flat car on which were several Italian laborers.

General Manager Hedley stated that the explosion was caused by a short circuit on the third rail and the feed cable, resulting from the collision which set fire to some of the timbers used by the contractor in shoring up the tunnel. No person was injured.

HOW IT HAPPENED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, March 29.—An uptown subway train which had been emptied of passengers at One Hundred and Fifty-seventh street to be switched across to the downtown tracks, got beyond the control of the motorman today and ran into a pile of construction material in the One Hundred and Sixty-eighth-street station. The cars jumped the track and caught fire. For some time it was not known whether or not the train crew had escaped. An attempt was made to operate an elevator running from the tunnel to the street, but it could not be moved. Some of the employes in the tunnel ran through the tube to the One Hundred and Eighty-first-street station and reached the surface at that point.

The firemen passed hose down into the tunnel and fought the blaze of the burning cars.

The firemen made desperate efforts to get at the burning cars, but were unable to do so as the tunnel was full of smoke on both sides of the station where the accident occurred, and all they could do was to pour water indiscriminately into the tunnel in the hope of flooding the fire.

It was ascertained that the train had run against a heavy bulkhead of pine, which had been built across the tunnel, and that the wood was set on fire after the collision. There were two explosions, said to have been of dynamite cartridges used in blasting.

WASHINGTON.

WANTS MORE OF CONGRESS.

Railroad Rates Still Interest the Chief Executive.

Brewing Association and the Tax Upon Coffee.

Mrs. Maybrick's Testimony Concerns Valuable Lands.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, March 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Representative Patterson of Pennsylvania has let it out that the President told him his present intention is to call Congress to meet in extra session October 16. It also probably is true that the specific reason for calling the extra session will be railroad rate and rebate legislation, and that tariff matters will not come up so prominently as some tariff revisionists have thought. But if tariff revision does come up in Congress at the extra session or the regular session next winter, it may be that some people will discover, to their astonishment, that tariffs can be revised upward, as well as downward.

In many quarters, the suspicion exists that the United States Brewing Association is giving support to a movement to impose a duty on coffee, and several members of Congress stand ready to insist if such duty is to be enacted, that it shall be accompanied by an increase in the internal revenue tax on beer. They point out that the profit on beer is so great that when an additional one dollar per barrel tax was imposed during the Spanish war the price of beer to the retailer was scarcely affected, while the next summer it remained the same. In other words, they claim that when the tax was repealed, it merely transferred $30,000,000 annually from the treasury into the pockets of the brewers.

The time has now come, they say, to reduce certain customs duty and have a general readjustment of the tariff and internal revenue laws, and in the shakeup to increase the tax on beer at least 50 cents a barrel, which will add $15,000,000 annually to the government revenues. There is more or less talk of increasing the tax on alcohol, but it is discouraged as the various commissioners of internal revenue have stated that to increase this tax would decrease the consumption and incidentally the revenue. Besides, it would be resented by all manufacturers who use alcohol, who are trying to get tax reduced from $1.10 to 90 cents per gallon. On the other hand, when it comes to the question of taxation, beer has no friends except the brewers, and many are inclined to believe an increase in the tax on it will meet with general approval.

MRS. MAYBRICK'S TESTIMONY.

CONCERNS VALUABLE LANDS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, March 29.—The testimony of Mrs. Florence Maybrick in the taking of depositions in the case of her mother, Baroness von Roques, against David W. Armstrong and others, involving valuable tracts of land in Virginia, West Virginia and Kentucky, was concluded today.

Mrs. Maybrick displayed marked capacity for avoiding direct answers to the rigid questioning to which she was subjected. She declared with respect to the signing of certain papers in the prison, which were brought to her by Consul Potter, that she was so imperfectly informed as to the communications that passed between Mr. Armstrong and her mother that she simply signed the documents without any clear knowledge of the transaction. Upon being pressed for a more direct answer, Mrs. Maybrick insisted that when she signed the papers, she did not know the nature of their contents.

The defendant produced a number of letters purporting to have been written by her mother, Mr. Potter and others before and during her imprisonment, but she expressed her inability to identify the handwriting of any one of sixteen years ago.

Counsel for plaintiff objected to a question as to whether Mrs. Maybrick had received a pardon from the British government, but the witness nevertheless cautiously replied that she had papers in her possession given her by the British government. Asked if she were willing to produce them, Mrs. Maybrick replied with equal caution that they were not permitted to be produced, except at the request of the American government.

On re-direct examination, which was confined to one question, Mrs. Maybrick detailed the circumstances under which she acquired an interest in the property in dispute, saying that at her marriage her mother gave her as a deeded gift one-third of her property interest in Kentucky, Virginia and West Virginia, and later assigned the same in writing. The deed and assignment, said Mrs. Maybrick, had been confirmed repeatedly by her mother up to the present day by word of mouth. "That," she said, "is the agreement that now exists between us," and she smilingly left the stand.

CANAL COMMISSION QUITS.

REQUESTED BY PRESIDENT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Under direction from the President, Secretary Taft today sent a note to Admiral Walker, chairman of the Panama Canal Commission, requesting the members of this commission to tender their resignations. Following is the text of the Secretary's letter:

"The President directs me to ask the members of the commission to hand in their resignations, in order that he may have a free hand in reorganizing the commission. Please wire Gen. Davis requesting that his resignation be forwarded."

The resignations have been sent to the President.

COMMISSION RESIGNS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Secretary Taft was informed today that the members of the Isthmian Canal Commission had resigned.

That the President has contemplated reorganization has been known for some time, and he has been in consultation with Secretary Taft as to his future policy in choosing its personnel and directing its work. It was believed originally that better results might be accomplished by the appointment of a smaller commission than that now existing, but a recent opinion of Atty.-Gen. Moody held that, under the law, the President was required to name seven members in all. The appointments probably will be announced during the progress of his southern trip.

PHILADELPHIA RECEPTION.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PHILADELPHIA, March 29.—To Vice-President Fairbanks tonight was tendered a reception by the Union League. He was greeted by nearly 2000 members of that organization. Previous to the reception, Mr. Fairbanks was the guest of honor at a banquet given at the clubhouse.

VICE-PRESIDENT FAIRBANKS.

GOING TO INDIANAPOLIS.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Vice-President Fairbanks called at the White House today to bid the President good-by. He will leave for Philadelphia tomorrow, and thence go to Indianapolis. He says he has made no plans for the summer.

ANOTHER DUEL IMMINENT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, March 30.—2:30 a.m.—Another duel between the opposing armies in Manchuria may be on the programme for the coming week. The Russians according to the Associated Press Harbin correspondent, are now strongly fortifying their positions at Sipinghai, against which the Japanese are reported to be gathering in force. The reported Russian retirement from Sipinghai to Chaoumiaodzi was incorrect, due to a telegraphic error in the confusion of similar Chinese names, Chaoumiaodzi with Shuamuyaotzi, south of Sipinghai, whence the Russian advance force retired to the fortified line at Sipinghai. The Japanese followed to some extent, but a border of twenty miles of debatable ground still remains between the two armies over which the Japanese will probably not advance until they are ready to attack.

Equally important news is that a column of Japanese is moving against Kirin, perhaps with the intention of turning the position eastward and striking at the Vladivostok line of communication with the double purpose of isolating the fortress and separating Gen. Linevitch's army from a valuable base of supplies, the Ussuri district.

OLD CRY FROM MACEDONIA.

THAT HISTORIC COUNTRY STILL IN NEED OF HELP.

Austro-Russian Reform Programme at a Standstill—Little Hope of Carrying Out Lord Lansdowne's Suggestions—Germany Will Use Her Influence With Porte Adversely.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

VIENNA, March 29.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The statement made by the British Foreign Secretary, Lord Lansdowne, in the House of Lords yesterday on the subject of Macedonia, was read here with great interest today in official circles, where the opinion was reiterated to the Associated Press that the Austro-Russian reform programme has now come to an absolute standstill, and is inoperative. Lord Lansdowne's suggestion of the necessity of the project of further reforms, including the financing of Macedonia, was well received in official circles, but little hope is entertained of successfully carrying it out, primarily, because the opinion prevails that if this is attempted Germany will withdraw from the existing union of the reform powers and use her influence, because of her various interests in Turkey, to counteract with the Porte any further reform measures proposed by Great Britain.

Macedonian conditions have lately been attracting more attention here because of Great Britain's attitude, and also in view of the fact that with the spring comes a recurrence of the rumors, mostly emanating from Turkish sources, of active preparations on the part of the Bulgarian bands for crossing into Turkey.

The general situation in Macedonia, while believed here to be serious enough, is considered nevertheless to be more hopeful and more promising than it was a year ago. The Bulgarian diplomatic agent this morning informed the Associated Press that Bulgaria was doing all possible to stop the formation of Bulgarian bands and their operations against Turkey. Among other things to this end the orders which were promulgated last year regarding the maintenance of a zone twenty miles wide in Bulgaria along the Turkish frontier under strict military rule, instead of civil administration, have again been promulgated lately with renewed emphasis. The purpose is to render more effective the efforts of Bulgaria to stop the formation and the movements of bands operating against Turkey.

Regarding the depredations and the onslaughts of Grecian bands upon Bulgarians, the latter naturally will protect themselves and retaliate energetically.

A report from Constantinople to the effect that the Turks have found with dead bodies of former members of Bulgarian bands Mannlicher rifles bearing a stamp showing that the rifles belonged to the Bulgarian army, if true, is considered here as being important and as possibly showing that the Bulgarians are in secret connivance with the bands. But in fairness, it must be remembered that these rifles may have been obtained originally two years ago when Bulgaria's attitude towards the bands was different from what it is declared to be today.

HAY FEELS BETTER.

Secretary of State Arrives at Gibraltar. His Health is Improving Daily.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

GIBRALTAR, March 29.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The White Star Line steamer Cretic, from New York March 18 for Naples, with Secretary of State Hay on board, arrived here this morning. In an interview Mr. Hay said he felt much better than when he left New York. He thoroughly enjoyed his trip. Although Secretary Hay has improved, he has by no means recovered his health. The Cretic will sail from here at noon for Algiers.

SPIRITED SCRAMBLE FOR JAPANESE BONDS.

Regular Bargain-Counter Rush to Subscribe to New War Loan—The Amount to be Issued Subscribed for Many Times Over.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, March 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Formal offering of the American half of Japan's new $15,000,000 war loan brought the most picturesque assemblage to financial district this morning that Wall Street has seen in many a day. Old men and women of varying degrees of infirmity, some of decidedly rural appearance, were early in line to put in their bids. Soon after Kuhn, Loeb & Co. opened their doors, the line extended through William street and up Pine. All sorts of specimens of humanity were soon represented and as the morning wore on it looked as if an old-fashioned auction was being held. The bankers in charge estimated that the issue had been four or five times oversubscribed. On this basis, very small allotments will be made, perhaps 10 per cent. for the larger bidders, and investors of moderate means will be given preference.

The syndicate managers announced that the books will close at 3 p. m. tomorrow.

CHICAGO'S SUBSCRIPTION.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CHICAGO, March 29.—Chicago in a few hours today subscribed for $15,000,000 of the new Japanese war loan.

SAN FRANCISCO'S PORTION.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, March 29.—Subscriptions for the new Japanese loan of $150,000,000 were opened in this city at 10 o'clock today by the Anglo-California Bank and the Nevada National Bank. Within half an hour the subscriptions amounted to nearly $3,000,000, with no abatement of the demand. The amount to be allotted to this city is not yet known, but it is believed that it will be less than the amount already taken, as the total subscriptions in the United States have been limited to $75,000,000.

GREEDY EUROPEANS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

LONDON, March 29.—The portion of the Japanese loan of $150,000,000 allotted to London was well oversubscribed within an hour of the time of the opening of the banks today. Subscriptions closed at 2:30 p.m., when the amount had been many times oversubscribed. An interesting feature was the fact that considerable applications were received from the continent, indicating a change of views regarding Japan's financial stability. It is said the last subscriptions came from Germany.

The issuing banks estimate that the loan has been oversubscribed at least ten times. They think the foreign applications alone fully cover the whole amount. Switzerland applied for $10,000,000 of the loan.

RUSSIA'S WANING CREDIT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, March 29.—Russian fours took a further sharp decline today to 83¼, closing 2¼ points below yesterday's low mark. Other government securities and industrials suffered in sympathy and there was much excitement on the bourse, though traders retained their heads in the face of the fall.

VIENNA'S PORTION.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

VIENNA, March 29.—Subscriptions to the amount of $4,121,500 have been made to the new Japanese loan through the Anglo-Austrian Bank at Vienna.

STEAMING EASTWARD.

ROJESTVENSKY'S SQUADRON.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

DURBAN, (Natal,) March 29.—[By African Cable.] The British steamer Dart, which arrived here today from Rangoon, February 28, reports having passed on March 19 thirty warships and fourteen colliers steaming eastward, 250 miles northeast of the Island of Madagascar.

It is apparently confirmed that the Russian Second Pacific Squadron, commanded by Vice Admiral Rojestvensky, left Nossibe Island, off the northwest coast of Madagascar, about March 16, and if the warships steamed very slowly they probably formed the squadron sighted by the steamer Dart, now at Durban, Natal.

PORT ARTHUR INQUIRY.

COMMISSION ANNOUNCED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, March 30.—1 a.m.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The membership of the commission to investigate the circumstances of the surrender of Port Arthur, under the presidency of Gen. Roop, has been announced. It consists of Gen. Reuberg of the engineers; Giebeneckoff and Kargaroff of the infantry; Denionenkoff, Krijanorsky and Bogaviesky of the artillery, and Admirals Dikoff and Doubasoff. The sitting will begin in the middle of May. The commission's report will determine whether anyone shall be tried by military tribunal.

BILDERLING'S BLUNDER.

RETREAT FROM MUKDEN.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, March 30, 2:50 a.m.—[By Atlantic Cable.] An interesting fact throwing light on the supersession of Gen. Bilderling from the command of the third Manchurian army has been brought out by a Russian dispatch from Gunshu Pass describing the retreat from Mukden. According to the plan of retreating as outlined, each division of the third army was to retire by the Mandarin road and roads to the eastward of that highway. Instead it moved for some reason along roads to the west of the Mandarin road, leaving a breach between the first and third armies of which the Japanese took advantage.

The correspondent says the wagon trains were ordered north three days before the evacuation, but their departure was delayed, causing confusion in withdrawal.

Discussing the battle of Sandepu the correspondent says he personally saw a map made from observation by a balloon January 20, showing the redoubt at Sandepu on which the attack was shattered, but of the existence of which the attacking force first learned during the attack, "an unimportant detail, but one which cost us 10,000 men and the success of the operation."

UNCLE SAM'S ADVICE TO THE BELLIGERENTS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, March 29.—A genuine wish of this government for peace in the Far East is not based upon selfish interests. American financiers have not overloaded themselves with bonds of either of the belligerent nations. Washington believes that it is to the advantage of both belligerents that the Far East war comes to a speedy end and anything that this government can do to bring that about will be done gladly. From the outset of the war the President has taken the position, as has been repeatedly announced by Secretary Hay, that he will do anything in his power to assist Russia and Japan to a peace basis when his services shall be acceptable to the belligerents. But it is authoritatively stated that no official of the Washington government is ambitious to pose as the meditator.

It is the feeling here that Russia and Japan should negotiate directly and avoid an international conference. This opinion also prevails in Berlin. Indeed, Japan has recently received an urgent warning against indirect negotiations lest they lead to an international conference, the results of which might prove disastrous to the interests of both belligerents.

There is authority for the statement that France is diligently striving to end the war, and for six weeks past negotiations of the most confidential character have been in progress between Paris and St. Petersburg. Even diplomats of the highest rank have failed to obtain from M. Delcassé, the French Foreign minister, the results of the negotiations, but it is announced on the same authority that Count Lamsdorff, the Russian Minister for Foreign Affairs, has within a week admitted that he had in a general way outlined to M. Delcassé the general terms along which Russia might consent to consider peace.

Advices from Europe tell of the fear prevalent there in certain quarters that the activities of Lamsdorff and Delcassé are directed toward an international conference to be held in some neutral European capital, such as Stockholm, where peace negotiations might be conducted. It is said that this move has been in a measure blocked by the refusal of Japan to give any indications as to the peace terms she would accept until positively assured in the name of the Czar himself that Russia is prepared to negotiate in good faith for peace. Not only does Japan insist upon this assurance, but she prefers to negotiate directly with St. Petersburg.

With the United States, Germany and Japan opposed to an international conference to end the war, the belief is strong in Washington that successful peace negotiations will date from the day St. Petersburg communicates with Tokio direct. The Washington government is already watching for the opportunity to assist Russia and Japan in getting into diplomatic communication. Thus would an international conference be avoided and the United States would be in a better position to insist upon the maintenance of the integrity and administrative entity of China. No negotiations involving an attack upon this principle can be acquiesced in by the United States.

MAROONED ON A ROCK.

Chicago Banker and His Band of Religious Cranks Quarantined for Smallpox.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHICAGO, March 29.—Duke M. Farson, a Chicago banker and religious enthusiast, and forty members of his Metropolitan Holiness Church, are prisoners on a big rock in the middle of the Illinois River Valley, with no means of communicating with the rest of the world except by telephone. The usual residence of Farson and his followers is "Holiness Home," Franklin boulevard, this city. In the "Home" at present are ten smallpox suspect cases, closely watched and guarded by the police. The church does not believe in medical aid and when the authorities of Ottawa, Ill., were notified that Farson and forty of his adherents were on the way to Buffalo Rock Farm, near Ottawa, prompt action was taken to head off the band. The pilgrims avoided a conflict with the Ottawa authorities by stopping the train a mile from town and walking across the country. Two of the disciples were sick and went in wagons. Quarantine has been established about the farm

SENSATIONAL SUIT OVER A RAILWAY.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHEYENNE (Wyo.) March 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A sensational suit, filed in the District Court today, marks the beginning of a struggle between the Belgo-American oil interests, backed by the Rothschilds, and the Chicago and Northwestern Railway, backed by the Standard Oil.

Joseph H. Lobell, representing Belgo-American interests, which own the oil wells at Lander, the Casper refineries and the Salt Creek oil wells, is the plaintiff, and General Manager George F. Bidwell, Chief Attorney White and local Attorney Clark of the Northwestern, Secretary of State Fenimore Chatterton, H. B. Coolidge, Chief Justice Jesse Knight and T. J. Milner of the Wyoming State Railway are defendants.

Lobell seeks a receiver for the Wyoming State Railway and an injunction restraining it from proceeding further with the surveys and building of the Belgo-American Railroad from Orin Junction to Lander. Lobell alleges that he paid T. J. Milner the sum of $5000 to make the surveys; that other defendants and Milner organized the Wyoming State Railway Company to wreck the Belgo-American Company; that they finally sold out to the Chicago and Northwestern Company; that Coolidge, Knight and Milner resigned from the Wyoming State Railway Company, and Bidwell, White and Clark were elected, and that stock, involving the right-of-way and other privileges, paid for by Lobell, was transferred to the three latter, they practically absorbing the road. He demands the surveys and right-of-way privileges.

DAVE MOFFATT'S ROAD.

ITS INDEPENDENCE ASSURRED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

DENVER, March 29.—W. F. Jones, Auditor of the Denver, Northwestern and Pacific Railroad, has just returned from a trip East that he took in company with David H. Moffat in the interest of the company. Mr. Jones brings the information that Mr. Moffat has secured the money necessary to extend his line to Salt Lake and that work is to be started in the near future. He said:

"I am in a position to say that Mr. Moffat has secured all the money required for the work to Salt Lake. This has been done through his business associations in the East and in Europe. He has been able to do this and yet retain control of the corporation.

"It will remain absolutely an independent line and he proposes to keep it free from entanglements in every way, that it may be operated in the interest of Denver and Colorado."

UNION PACIFIC EPOCH.

TRADING WITHOUT PRECEDENT.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, March 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Union Pacific has created an epoch in Wall street. For years to come, Stock Exchange traders, when indulging in comparisons, will refer to the speculative activities in the spring of 1905 as the Union Pacific market. The extent and activity of the trading in Union Pacific stock is without precedent. Within the last two months $120,000,000 of the common stock of this company has been bought and sold in the market twenty times over. More than a week ago veteran operators in the street sagely remarked that the Union Pacific had been "traded out." In the first hour today nearly 100,000 shares of this stock were sold and Union Pacific was the leader of a somewhat erratic market throughout the day.

RAILROAD TO FRANCE.

TUNNELING BERING STRAITS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, March 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] M. Delobel, the famous French engineer, arrived today, and is en route to Washington as commissioner from the Russian government to arrange for an all-rail route from here to France.

"In Russia and France, the road is all but established," said Delobel.

"The plans have been approved by the French government and the Russian Technical Railways Commission and involved the use, almost exclusively of French capital.

"The road cannot be built without our tunneling under Bering Strait. I am here as commissioner of Russia to negotiate for the neutralization of Bering Strait. I have the authority of the Russian government and letters from the most prominent people in France.

"The road will make perfectly feasible an all-rail route from Paris to New York. We figure that it will take $150,000,000 to build and make the connecting links, but the money is ready the moment your government is ready to do its part."

WATER TREATMENT.

Unique System of Baths Substituted for Mechanical Restraint of Delirious Lunatics.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, March 29.—By the systematic use of various forms of hot and cold baths and douches, vapor and hot air baths, the Manhattan State Hospital on Ward's Island has done away entirely with sedatives or mechanical restraint for the patients, even when violently demented or in strong deliriums.

This hospital, the first public institution in the country to adopt the use of water as a recognized part of its course of treatment, has been experimenting and tabulating the results for some time.

Forms of "water treatment," are in use there which are said not to have been tried elsewhere, notably the "continuous bath" for patients in violent delirium. The patient, placed in a bath tub of water at exactly blood heat, is kept there under observation by experienced nurses and the physicians for hours, for days if necessary, until the delirium has abated. In one case it was found necessary to keep the patient immersed in the water fourteen days. She came out of the delirium, and under other branches of treatment recovered from her dementia. The death rate in such cases was formerly sixty per cent, but the physicians having charge of the experiments believe their treatment will save the life of every patient under delirium, unless some other form of insanity or physical disease sets in.

Under the new scheme patients no longer subject to constraint are kept outdoors in tents and pavilions. They are first examined carefully by a physician and the nurses, who then from the data map out a treatment. In some cases a bath of carbol dioxide, has been tried. An elaborate arrangement of bath appliances has been established in the hospital for the full development of the system.

GERMANY IN MOROCCO.

Her Interests the Same as Other Trading Countries—Door to be Kept Open.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

BERLIN, March 29.—[By Atlantic Cable.] Chancelor von Buelow, speaking on Morocco in the Reichstag today, said that Germany would in the first instance place herself in communication with the Sultan of Morocco. Germany had such interests in Morocco as other trading countries, such interests as she had in China and other parts of the world. These interests were real and would be protected in Morocco according to the open-door principle.

NO SELFISH AIMS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

BERLIN, March 29.—Herr Bebel, the Socialist leader, raised the Moroccan question in the Reichstag by criticising the government for taking diplomatic action to safeguard German opportunities in Morocco long after the French-British agreement, when it should have acted a year ago.

Chancellor von Buelow said that, although the moment was not especially opportune to discuss Germany's relations with Morocco, he would say that Emperor William had declared more than a year ago to the King of Spain that Germany had no selfish aims toward the territorial integrity or independence of Morocco. The Emperor's visit to Morocco had no aggressive purpose, but apart from the independence of Morocco and apart from the Emperor's visit, German economic interests remained to be protected and they would be. These interests were considerable.

Baron von Kardorff, Conservative, speaking before Chancellor von Buelow on Morocco, and coupling the names of France and Great Britain together, said Germany was not accustomed to underestimate her opponents. Her military power was equal to that of any enemy.

THE REVOLT IN RUSSIA.

CAUCASUS IN OPEN REVOLT.

Russian Authorities Unable to Maintain Order.

Nicholas Promulgates Belated Reforms for Poland.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ST. PETERSBURG, March 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] All efforts to check the spread of the disorders in the Caucasus have failed and the entire region is now in a state of open revolt against the government.

Trustworthy reports from those provinces, lying between the Caspian and Black Seas, say that there are thousands of insurrectionists in the mountainous districts, and that troops sent against them from Kars and Batoum have mutinied and refused to fight. Many soldiers have deserted to the warring peasants and the gravest consequences are feared in official circles here.

For two months the government has tried to suppress all news of disaffection in the Caucusus, but the situation has become so critical that it is impossible longer to conceal the truth. In almost every center of population the Caucasus authorities have been deposed and a provisional government has been proclaimed. Just what semblance of authority this provisional government maintains has not been revealed, but it is said that so far it has not succeeded in making its way supreme.

At Batoum, Erivan and Kars anarchy prevails and business is at a standstill. Marine business in the Black Sea has been practicaly suspended.

INSURRECTION GROWING.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, March 29.—Trustworthy reports from Georgia, Russian Trans-Caucasia, say that the insurrectionary movement is growing in the mountainous districts. It is added that the authorities have been deposed, that a provisional government has been proclaimed, and that the troops decline to carry out the orders given them.

REFORMS FOR POLAND.

CZAR PROMULGATES THEM.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, March 29.—[By Atlantic Cable.] Emperor Nicholas has instructed M. Maximovitch, Governor-General of Warsaw, to elaborate the reforms necessary for the prosperity of Poland. In a rescript to the Governor-General the Emperor says:

"Since the radical revival of civil life in the Vistula territory, during the past forty years, a series of needs has developed on which the government is now bestowing especial solicitude. Enemies of the existing order are seeking to provoke disturbances, thus hindering the calm discussion of the reforms for which the country is ripe, and at the same time some sections of the Polish population are putting forth exorbitant claims concerning limits in the employment of the state language, to which there must remain assured throughout the empire the high importance due it, but without any superfluous or unjust exclusion of local languages."

The Emperor accordingly directs the Governor-General, while lawfully and firmly suppressing artificially supported disturbances, to "proceed to the elaboration of the reforms found to be necessary for the prosperity of the territory inseparably connected with the other parts of the Russian state."

JEWS WANT A SHOW.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, March 29.—Interior Minister Bouligan today received a Jewish deputation which urged that the Jews be represented in the projected assembly and expressed the fear that such would not be the case unless special action is taken, as the Jewish element is almost unrepresented in the Zemstvos, and nobles' and peasants' organizations.

WIND AND RAIN STORM.

Sacramento Valley Gets a Good Soaking—Rapid Rise of River is Expected—Snowing Hard in the Mountains.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, March 29.—A wind storm, accompanied in some places by rain and snow, swept over this State and Nevada last night, and has not yet fully abated. Weather Forecaster McAdie said today that it was snowing hard in the mountains, with southerly winds blowing at the rate of fourteen to thirty-nine miles an hour. A good rain has fellen in the Sacramento Valley, but none had been reported from the San Joaquin section. Clearing weather is expected in Northern California, and with the probable abatement of the wind there may be frost in the valleys.

A rapid rise of the Sacramento River north of Colusa is predicted. Snow is either falling, or is threatened from Carson, Nev., to Ogden, Utah. In Southern California light rains fell today. Along the coast there has been a succession of squalls, the highest velocity of the wind being thirty-five miles an hour in this city and fifty-five miles an hour at Point Reyes. Storm warnings were sent out last night, and no serious damage from the storm has been reported.

The little schooner-yacht Josie broke from her moorings off the foot of Mason street, and went upon the beach near Black Point. Two masts of the vessel were snapped off and the port side of the craft smashed in by striking on the rocks. Half a dozen other small craft that were moored near the Josie were also carried ashore by the sea, but they are light pleasure vessels, and they were fortunate enough to land on a sandy beach. They can be floated with little damage. Several vessels dragged their anchors, and others were badly chafed.

UNPRECEDENTED SNOWFALL.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

REDDING, March 29.—There was an unprecedented snowfall in the mountains and low foothills last night. The snow extends as far down as Kennett. There is heavy snow in Trinity county and the western, northern and eastern parts of Shasta county. Two and a quarter inches of rain fell at Redding last night. Today is clear and cold. A warm rain now would make high water.

FRUIT GROWERS APPREHENSIVE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

GRASS VALLEY, March 29.—Fruit growers are very apprehensive over the outcome of the present storm, fearing that if it continues the loss will be very heavy. After a long period of warm weather, fruit has advanced a month ahead of the usual time. The rain has turned to snow, which began early this morning, being the heaviest of the entire winter. The indications are good for more cold weather, which may ruin the most promising fruit crop in years.

ANOTHER HEAVY RAIN.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SACRAMENTO, March 29.—Sacramento was visited by another heavy rain at an early hour this morning. The weather is clear and sunny today, with the wind blowing from the south. Crops have never looked so promising in many years, and farmers and fruit growers are hopeful of great results. The fear of frosts has about passed. It has been announced that cherries will be shipped from the Vacaville district within two weeks. There was a light fall of snow in the mountains along the Central Pacific yesterday.

STOCKTON WEATHER BAD.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

STOCKTON, March 29.—Stockton weather is anything but agreeable today. A cold wind has been blowing since last night, varying from different points of the compass, though it is from the south today. During the night there was a heavy rainfall, so far no damage to grain is reported, as in most sections it is not yet up high enough to suffer.

SNOW ON MT. HAMILTON.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN JOSE, March 29.—During the night .63 of an inch of rain fell here. The summit of Mt. Hamilton is covered with snow, and there is also some snow on Loma Prieta, the highest point in the Santa Cruz Range.

JAPANESE GATHERING FOR NEXT ATTACK.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, March 30.—1 a.m.—[By Atlantic Cable.] There has been no fighting of consequence lately. Reconnoissances establish the fact that the Japanese are gathering in strong force 20 miles south of Sipinghai, evidently intending to attack the Russian position at Sipinghai. The Russians are strongly fortifying there and apparently expect to make a stand. The country is comparatively clear of Japanese.

The number of Chinese bandits is constantly augmenting.

Chinese continues to report that Field Marshal Oyama has issued proclamations fixing the date of the occupation of Harbin as April 16, but this prediction, if actual, is apparently improbable of fulfillment.

JAPS ADVANCING.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, March 29.—A telegram from Gunshu Pass, dated March 28, says the Russians have evacuated the railroad station at Chaountaodzi, forty miles below Gunshu Pass, and the the Japanese are advancing.

NO CHANGE IN POSITIONS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, March 29.—Chief of Staff Karkevitch telegraphs from the front today that no change has taken place in the positions of the armies. Russian sharpshooters March 26 were in conflict with a force of Japanese infantry and cavalry at Khounanchiline. The commander-in-chief, Gen. Linevitch, has inspected the Second Army and found the troops to be in excellent spirits.

BANDITS CUT RAILWAY.

PARIS, March 30.—The Shanghai correspondent of the Petit Journal says that Chinese bandits have cut the Chinese Eastern Railway at several places, preventing the arrival of Russian reinforcements.

THE OIL INDUSTRY.

WAR AMONG THE BIG ONES.

Fight Seems On Between the Standard and Union.

Said to Have Come About from Effort to Buy.

Strong Competition Between Giants in This City.

War to the knife and the knife to the hilt is what has been proclaimed between the Standard and the Union oil companies according to reports from reliable sources, confirmed by an array of evidence that is fast accumulating. For fifteen years competitors for the oil business of the Pacific Coast, but always apparently on speaking terms, and sometimes seeming to be so friendly that many outsiders have imagined the Union to be a branch of the Rockefeller monopoly, chiefly because the latter is generally credited with owning pretty nearly everything in the oil business that is worth owning, the two great corporations have at last locked horns for a fierce struggle that may lead to almost anything.

It all came about, so saith good authority, from overtures made by the Standard to purchase the Union's property—a pretty big offer, it will be readily seen by all who are familiar with the California oil industry. The company has paid over $1,500,000 in dividends, owns perhaps 25 per cent. of the oil area in California and as yet has developed only to the extent of about 10 per cent. of the production. It has two good-sized refineries, one at Kern River, and one at San Francisco, pipe lines, large tankage—and several ships by which its product is transported independent of the railroads, besides some interests independent of oil. It is today paying 50 cents per month a share in dividends, which President Stewart estimated in his last annual report, will absorb only about one-third of the company's revenue. In the circumstances the managers no doubt feel themselves equal to a contest.

UNION NOT FOR SALE.

The offer of the Standard was refused, so says one report. Another says that the price was not considered high enough, but however this may be no sale was made and President Stewart in his annual report emphasized the fact that the Union continues to adhere strictly to its independent policy.

Since then the Standard has been preparing to fight. Of course it is not so stated officially, but men high in the service of the Standard have admitted in private that it is true and have declared "that the Union will find that it will have no path of roses to tread."

STANDARD AT SANTA MARIA.

The fight has been opened at Santa Maria where the Union has some of its largest and best holdings and the point which it has chosen as its center of operations. Two months ago its big pipe-line to Port Harford was opened and scarcely was this done when the Standard invaded the district in force. Lands were purchased for vast tankage, rights of way obtained for a competing line and contracts for 2,000,000 barrels of oil, signed with the Western Union and the Pinal.

In this city the two big corporations are in strong competition. The Standard is enlarging its operations daily. In the refining products it has been engaged in a contest with the Puente as a result of the failure of negotiations to renew the contract that was in effect for five years previous. This battle is still on, much to the disadvantage and injury of the smaller operators but with neither party showing any signs of yielding. The Union has hitherto handled a large crude business here. The Standard does little of this in proportion to the other lines—almost none in fact as yet, but then the Standard does not always transact business in its own name. Frequently others—small fry and large alike—act for Mr. Rockefeller, and, so avers Dame Rumor, they are doing in this case. The alliance—generally believed to exist with the Associated combine, sphinx-like and mysterious as John D. himself—if it exists, is no doubt cutting a figure in the fight which has not yet developed to such a point as to make fully clear just what tack it is likely to take.

UNION REACHES OUT.

On the other hand the Union is said to be reaching out for business. While the Associated has been grabbing Arizona through its alliance with the Southern Pacific the Union, with its ships, is reaching out for the growing trade of Washington and Oregon, shipping its product north on the freest territory known—the ocean. At Seattle it is reported to be putting in more tankage and facilities. Unlike the Associated the Union does not confine itself to one line of the oil business, but handles fuel and light, crude and refined and the various by-products alike.

Inquiry at the offices of the Union yesterday elicited a positive statement that the company's property and business is not for sale and that it is and has always been an active competitor of the Standard.

Among the producers who are watching the outcome with interest there is nothing but friendship for the Union which, they say, has invariably been the fairest in its dealings with the smaller operators, and has never employed the grasping methods of the Standard.

OIL FOR ASSOCIATED.

From Bakersfield again comes the report that the Associated is taking oil from the Standard at the rate of 8000 barrels a day which is going direct to the cars for shipment. This is the product of the Peerless, Monte Cristo, Four and Apollo under contract to the Standard for some years. It is said that none of this is being stored.

On the other hand it is learned that the Associated is no longer taking all the output of the Independents but is storing part of it in its big reservoir, so long empty, where it will be held at the expense of the Independents' Agency until sold, subject to the combine's option which holds good for a year under the contract. In view of this fact it is plain that if the report be true that Standard oil is going to the Associated, and it is apparently well verified, it is plain that an alliance and complete understanding must exist and one by which in all probability the Standard will have the assistance of the Associated in its fight with the Union.

OBITUARY.

Edmond Booth.

ANAMOSA (Iowa) March 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The oldest editor in America, Edmond Booth, died today at the age of 96. Born in Springfield, Mass., and deaf since 4 years of age, he was graduated at the Institute for Deaf and Dumb in Hartford, Ct., in 1830, and remained a teacher seven years. He was the originator of much of the work in teaching the deaf. He moved to Iowa in 1840, and went overland to California in 1849 and founded Anamosa and Eureka in 1854.

WE FILL MAIL ORDERS

The difference between a man and a boy is that each thinks the other is having all the fun in life. I heard the old man get off a new one the other day. He said, "children are the coupons clipped from the bonds of matrimony!" Did you ever stop to think that the merchants, the statesmen and the Failures of the future are to be found among the office boys and school boys of today. A poor kid who has to work daytimes and go to night school has just as good a chance to be "President" as the fellow who's dad buys automobiles and yachts and things for him. I have no ambition to be President. I'd rather be like the old man, have a lot of stores, or else be the manager of a Silverwood store. The trouble with starting a store yourself, it takes years and years to build up a big business, and then you have to be so careful to buy only the most reliable goods. I wish all the merchants would get together and agree to sell only Silverwood guaranteed goods. Everybody knows they're the best. Then, whatever store you happened into, you'd be sure to get a square deal.

WATCHING THE WITNESSES.

Secret Service Men Following up Almost Everyone of Consequence in Beef Trust Inquiry.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CHICAGO, March 29.—Several witnesses employed by the Chicago packers were herd at today's session of the special grand jury, which is investigating the business transactions of the so-called beef trust. All of these were subjected to a rigid examination as to whether they had been approached by outsiders since being called as witnesses, the inquisitorial body evidently being more anxious, for the present at least, to secure further evidence of alleged tampering with witnesses by interested persons than to secure real facts concerning the beef combination. From a Federal official, it was learned that several witnesses had been approached. As soon as the proof is in the hands of District Attorney Morrison, it is said more indictments will be returned.

John Shields, government witness in the case against John Connors, Armour's general superintendent, indicted on a charge of trying to influence a witness, was put under $1000 bonds today to appear at the July term of the United States District Court when the Connors case is set for hearing. Shields signed his own bond and left for New York tonight. Secret service men have increased in numbers so rapidly that now almost every witness of consequence is being shadowed.

Many other persons not directly interested in the daily proceedings of the jury are also being shadowed, and every endeavor is being made to prevent anyone approaching a proposed witness.

TENDER FOR SAMOAN CLAIMS.

BERLIN, March 29.—The United States and Great Britain have offered $40,000 to Germany as settlement in full of the Samoan claims of $112,000.

DRAFTING OF PLAYERS.

National Baseball Commission Finds Chase and Others Properly Diverted.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.]

CINCINNATI, March 29.—The National Baseball Commission decided that Players Newton and Chase of the Los Angeles Club, Buchanan of the Oakland Club and Frisk and Blankenship of the Seattle Club were properly drafted from the Pacific Coast League by the major league clubs.

It seems that the Pacific Coast League and the major league did not have a harmonious understanding of the drafting time, which the Pacific Coast League thought was after November. The major league clubs, according to previous agreement, began to draft players from September 1 to October 15. The National Commission recommends that al parties to the National Commission agreement meet and amend the drafting section to embody the views of the Pacific Coast League.

AFTER JAP BONDS.

Scramble Here to Get in on the New War Loan, but Some May Fail.

If the new Japanese loan had been three times as large as it is, and if the same assignments for subscriptions had been made, the loan would have been oversubscribed. Southern California banks, corporations and capitalists scrambled yesterday for some of it. Up to 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon $85,000 had been asked for. That means that $250,000 or more in the coin of the United States is ready to be transferred from Los Angeles to the coffers of the Japanese nation, and as much more would be ready for that purpose were it possible to place it at the same rate of interest.

Cashier Seyler of the Farmers and Merchants National Bank received a telegram from San Francisco last night in which it was stated that the Japanese loan is a tremendous success there and in New York. He was instructed to close the lists not later than 3 p.m. today, and after that hour accept no more applications.

It is not certain that all the applications made from this city will be accepted. On the former loan, there was such a general response that the Los Angeles applications were reduced from £16,000 to £8500.

OTED WOMAN PASSES OVER.

ame Interwoven in History of the Southland.

oftly the candles glow at the fun- al bier; solemnly stands the cruci- before the silent form; and near at nd is the ewer of holy water and well-worn rosary, as, resting mid California flowers that she loved intensely, a noble native California oman lies in her last sleep. Señora abel Varelo del Valle is dead.

To the newcomer unacquainted with rich lore of this land of the setting n, this statement means little; to old-timers and to those who have rned to love the incidents and tradi- ns of the romantic past, this on- uncement of Señora Del Valle's ssing indicates the severing of an- er of the few remaining cords which nd the active present to the pic- uesque past.

At Camulos rancho, probably more an at any other place, in California, s been maintained the habits and stoms of the early days. Señora Del alle wished it so, and she ruled with law of love that made the desire as dinance as a command. Nowhere else re the traditions of the early Span- -American life so faithfully kept; d probably at no other spot could ntiment find such a setting as at this ce made famous by the pen of ison Hunt Jackson as the home of amona.

Señora Del Valle was a true daugh- r of the Catholic Church. Her devo- n to it was supreme. When she t Los Angeles to go as the wife of on Ygnacio del Valle and make her rmanent home at the Rancho Camu- s, it was she who established the stom of having mass said at regular tervals for all the people on the great ncho. The brown-habited Franciscans om the Mission Santa Barbara first inistered to these people, and later e parish priests of El Rio and San onaventura raised their voices in e little chapel and gave the minis- ations of the church to the señora d her family.

HER ACTIVE LIFE.

Bells from the old Mission San Fer- ando had been swung from a frame ear the wide veranda, and these aithfully called the community on e ranch to daily worship. After the ath of her husband Señora Del alle herself led these devotions in the esence of the priest.

But a cardinal doctrine in her piety nd a practical charity which reached t to such an extent that those most timately connected with the life of e señora did not even realize its ngths. No distance was too great, and night too stormy nor road too ough to detain Señora Del Valle when ere was distress to be alleviated or e hungry to be fed. It is a fact that ften she would call upon one of her ons to set out with her in the middle f the night on journeys of long dis- ance to assist in some home of dis- ess where the dying were in need of ntle ministrations, or where a new fe was just beginning the conflict. lways she was ready for these calls pon her large sympathies, although er own family was large and her uties were many.

It is said that homeless and friend- ss children in three generations found elter and comfort beneath her roof- ee, and were provided for and in- tructed by teachers employed by her or this purpose. Ever was the haci- nda of Señora Del Valle a welcome eeting place for the traveler and the tranger. Her hospitality extended to ll, and many notable gatherings have nd as their setting the Camulos anch.

Don Cervol Varelo and Doña Ascen- ion Avila were the parents of Doña sabel Varelo del Valle. Don Antonio gnacio Avila, who was her grand- ather, was one of the largest land wners in Southern California, and ith his brothers and other relatives eld the major part of the land on. which the city of Los Angeles now tands. His estate stretched to the ea, and many miles along its shores.

It was the grandfather of Señora Del alle who gave the bells, vestments nd vessels to the Church of Our Lady f Angels when it was completed in 822.

THE FAMILY.

Señora Ysabel Varelo was but little ast fourteen years of age when she ecame the second wife of Don Ygnacio el Valle, whose first wife was the iece of the late ex-Governor Pio Pico. his wedding was solemnized in the hurch of Our Lady of Angels, this ity, and there were great festivities in eeping with the old Spanish customs. t was a time of general jubilation among the people. At that time the ome of Don Ygnacio was a large dobe standing southeast of the old Plaza, on what is now Los Angeles treet. At that period it was the finest esidence section of the city.

Señora Del Valle's husband was a an of affairs, and he was the grantee f the San Francisquito, Temescal and Camulos ranchos, extending from the San Fernando Mountains half-way down the valley. The family was moved to the Camulos Rancho in 1861, after the ranch house had been en- larged and the chapel had been erected. There it was that the greater part of Señora Del Valle's life was spent.

Her children are Mrs. John del V. le Forster of No. 2106 South Grand avenue; Mrs. C. H. Cram of Lancas- ter; Ygnacio R. del Valle and Hon. R. F. del Valle.

More than a year ago it became nec- essary for Señora Del Valle to leave Camulos and come to Los Angeles, where she would be within easy reach of medical attendance, and since that time she has made her home at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Forster. It was there that her death oc- curred at about 8:30 o'clock on Tuesday evening. Her passing was one of peace, and it was scarcely known when the end came.

The funeral will take place tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock at the Church of St. Vincent de Paul, Grand avenue and Washington street. The services will be in charge of Very Rev. J. S. Glass, C. M., D.D., president of St. Vincent's College, and the requiem high mass will be celebrated by Bishop Conaty. Ten priests will assist in the services, among them being Rev. Father O'Keefe, O.F.M., of Santa Barbara, and Father John Pujol, O.F.M., of Oxnard. The body will be laid to rest in New Calvary Cemetery.

The Rock River rose two feet at Janesville, Wis., Tuesday night and is now at the danger line. Several fac- tories have closed down. Much damage has been done.

SPEEDY MR. KIRK.

Was on His Way Out of the State Within an Hour After Leaving the Police Court.

In the Police Court on Tuesday mil- lionaire H. B. Kirk of New York, as- sented when Justice Chambers asked him if he were ready for sentence on the charge of having committed a bat- tery on the person of Bessie Camp, his nurse. He said he was and added:

"I want to get away from here as quick as possible."

After paying his fine, as told yester- day, he hastened back to his hotel, di- vided his belongings from those of the nurse, under the eyes of a detective, and an hour after was sailing off to- ward the desert on a Southern Pacific train, which was probably all too slow to suit his burning desire to get out of the reach of that nurse.

Miss Camp, though very angry at finding herself thrown aside so sud- denly, did not fully awaken to the alacrity with which her aged patient had struck out for home until yester- day morning. She then went to con- sult an attorney with reference to bringing a suit against Kirk for def- amation of character, but he was then well out of the State and she was too late.

Miss Camp declared that she would bring suit as soon as she got back to New York, but it is apparent that wit- nesses will be scarce. She also said that she had no money and doesn't know just how she will get back home but that was probably a bluff. She was still at the Melrose yesterday.

HOOK'S SECRET IS NOW OUT.

BABLER GIRLS WITH HIM ON THAT AUTO RIDE.

One of Them Seriously Injured in the Accident That Killed Miss Birtwistle—Coroner to Hold a Searching Inquest Today—Young Ladies to be Summoned as Witnesses.

The names of the two young ladies who were the companions of Barbee Hook and Thomas A. Rife on the aw- ful automobile ride Sunday afternoon when Miss Margaret Birtwistle re- ceived injuries which later resulted in her death, were ascertained last evening by a Times reporter.

Esther and Clara Babler are the two young women and they reside at No. 723 Ruth avenue.

Esther, the older girl, was quite se- riously injured in the accident and she is in one of the local hospitals.

Mr. Hook is known to have visited Clara yesterday afternoon at her home.

Every possible effort has been made to keep the names of the girls out of the papers, and the strictest secrecy has been maintained at the Babler home.

The younger sister, Clara, works in the pattern department of a downtown store. It was impossible for her to keep her secret, and she told a com- panion yesterday the story of her ter- rible experience on Sunday afternoon.

Both of the girls are pretty, with just enough of the Castilian blood to give them the dashing appearance of the handsome señoritas. They have been in the habit of taking Sunday afternoon excursions with the young society men of this city, and they are both favorites.

The Coroner will hold an inquest to- day and make a searching investiga- tion. Both young ladies will be sum- moned as witnesses.

LOCAL CHAMBER WINS PLAUDITS.

SALT LAKE MEN PAY RESPECTS TO COMMERCIAL BODY.

Called Thoroughly Efficient Business Organization and a Credit to the Community—How the City's Visit- ors "Size up" Loyalty of Its Resi- dents.

The local Chamber of Commerce made quite a hit with the representa- tives of the Salt Lake organization when those gentlemen were in this city as the guests of the Salt Lake road on the completion of that railway con- necting the two cities.

In their report to the home commer- cial body, Messrs. L. H. Farnsworth and Fisher Harris of Salt Lake City pay the Los Angeles chamber the fol- lowing tribute:

"We cannot say too much for the efficiency of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce as a business organiza- tion. It is continually alive to the needs of the community, and acts on all public questions actively, intelli- gently and effectively. Its membership of 1750 comprehends 1 per cent. of the population of Los Angeles, and its in- fluence is as wide as the State. We in- vestigated its method of work, and were impressed by the fact that all im- portant matters of public interest were handled by special committees, and general meetings of the membership were discouraged as being unwise and prolific of hasty and ill-considered ac- tion. The membership entrance fees and dues are used for current expenses of maintenance and when money is needed for special purposes, subscrip- tions are solicited from the business men of the community. These solici- tations are generally, but not always, satisfactorily responded to. The cham- ber maintains in the Chamber of Com- merce building an elaborate display of the products of the field, farm and wa- ters of Southern California, and issues from the office of its secretary each year great quantities of literature. The expense of this method of advertising, however, is borne, not by the chamber, but by the interests benefited. The city of Los Angeles is justly proud of its Chamber of Commerce, and the or- ganization is justly proud of the sec- tion whose commercial guardian it is. Indeed, your representatives were most favorably impressed by the unswerv- ing loyalty of the people to the com- munity. Any suggestion however re- mote, intimating that Los Angeles is not the business, health and social cen- ter of the United States, and the com- ing metropolis of the Pacific Slope, is received as pure heresy and treated ac- cordingly."

NEW ITALIAN CABINET.

TWO HUNDRED ENDANGERED.

Dastardly Attempt to Wreck Santa Fe Overland.

Brake-rod Pin at Switch Near Pasadena.

Locomotive Wheels Leave the Rails, Plunge Averted.

A deliberate attempt was made last night to wreck the Santa Fe overland train which left Los Angeles at 8 o'clock carrying upwards of 200 pas- sengers. Only the fact that the ob- struction placed upon the track was knocked off by the locomotive pre- vented the train from being ditched.

In a frog near South Pasadena, at a switch alongside of which the track crosses a fill, and on one side of which is a deep gully, a brake-rod pin was placed in such a position that had it been securely fastened, it would have caused the train to plunge into the ditch.

When the forward trucks of the lo- comotive struck the obstruction the wheels on one side left the rails and ran a short distance along the ties, but striking a guide rail a little be- yond, the wheels again found the rails and the train was stopped before any damage resulted.

Members of the train crew went back to the frog and made an inves- tigation. They found a pin wedged in between the ends of the frog in such position that had the train been run- ning at a high rate of speed it would have been derailed and seriously wrecked, with perhaps appalling loss of life.

The train proceeded to Pasadena and there the attempted crime was re- ported. When the train reached San Bernardino the accident was reported to the division superintendent, who immediately telegraphed to Los An- geles, instructing the local officials of the railroad company to notify the police department and the Sheriff's office and to ask them to investigate.

It was after midnight when the po- lice were notified, and about the same time notice was given Sheriff White's force. The Pasadena police were also notified, and officers were sent to the place. They found the iron rod along- side the track, but there was nothing upon which they could work which might lead to discovery of the identity of the persons who had placed it in the frog.

The directors of the Pennsylvania Railroad company have ordered an is- sue of $100,000,000 convertible bonds at $75 a share bearing 3½ per cent. in- terest. Half of the issue was author- ized two years ago, but has never been issued.

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS

When you remember the fact that THE BITTERS has been curing sickly people for OVER 50 YEARS, you ought not hesitate any longer in giv- ing it a fair trial. For curing SPRING FEVER, GENERAL DEBILITY, IMPURE BLOOD, HEADACHE, IN- DIGESTION, DYSPEPSIA, COSTIVENESS, COLDS OR LA GRIPPE it is unequaled.

Daily Talks on Tailoring.

And Now About Variety

We aim to make our tailoring establishment as near perfec- tion as it is possible to ap- proach.

Besides the many advantages we have already told you about, there is another one— the variety of suitings.

Unquestioningly we show more materials than any other two tailoring houses in the city.

SUNNYSIDE PARK.
EARLY ANNOUNCEMENT.
I wish to inform my friends who were not able to secure lots in Sunnyside Park, owing to the enormous demand, that I have, in course of preparation and will shortly offer for sale, 10 choice 5-acre and one-quarter-acre lots, adjoining Sunnyside Park on the north. These lots front on Figueroa, Hoover sts. at Vermont ave. The land is a rich garden soil, and has good drainage, which was well demonstrated during the recent rains.

Water will be supplied with pure artesian water, under pressure, through 4 and 6-inch mains, in sufficient quantities for all uses and will be improved with wide cement walks and curbs.

The avenues will be graded and oiled and lined with palms and trees.

The San Pedro electric line passes by the property, also the Redondo electric line (Garvanza branch), furnishing excellent and quick transportation.

The lots will be one-half and one-quarter acre in size, and the prices will range from $200 up.

Including all improvements.

RESERVATIONS MAY BE MADE NOW. I would advise an early selection, as the lots will be sold before the improvements are completed.

"WE SELL THE HILLS."
No oil floods in the scenic northwest out near the crossing of Sunset Blvd. and Alvarado st. Perfect drainage out there, water runs right off, and all nature smiles just as soon as the rain is over. Finest climate on earth. Best place in the city to live and people are finding it out. The water and oil and small wood street pavements, also overflowed sidewalks and lawns in the flat south and southeast portions of the city during the recent storms, didn't worry us a little bit. We have a few nice 5-acre tracts left in the Bellevue-avenue Tract, as close to the Courthouse as Westlake Park; convenient to 3 electric car lines, that we are still selling at from $200 to $250 each; $10 cash and $10 a month. Have done very little advertising yet the lots are going like "hot cakes." "Hot cakes" just SELLING THEMSELVES. Will soon be all sold and then prices will double; better get to the front within the next few days. Call at 127 N. Main st. or take Hollywood cars to branch office, corner Sunset Blvd. and Alvarado. FOR SALE—
38.13 ACRES.
AGENTS AND INVESTORS.
Do you wish to make some money? Such a bargain as the following acreage should not pass unnoticed! Read the April McClure's on growth of the famous "Astor" fortunes! There will be a Greater Los Angeles pasted on the map where today are grain fields and orchards.

A 38-acre tract, less the streets, (38.13 acres) is what we are offering in the great southwest, within the city limits, on through north and south street. There is absolutely no reason for hesitation at purchase of this beautiful property.

It is a great big corner, nearly square in shape and at our price of $1000 per acre offers one of the best opportunities for investment to be found in the city today. Conservative judges pronounce the purchase safe. Will be pleased to confer with prospective buyers or agents. Remember, this is only about six blocks from the famous Chas. Victor Hall tract.

FOR SALE—
WILL YOU PLEASE GO OUT ON PICO ST. and look at the traffic there—any time? It isn't THREE TIMES as great as on any crosstown street south of Seventh, come down to my office and I'll be glad to refund the expenses of your trip. And then remember that Pico is soon to be paved from Hoover to nearly a mile beyond the city limits—making it by several miles the longest paved street in Los Angeles.

Do you think there is inherent greatness in this street, or do you think I'm talking pappy-cock and wasting my time over nothing? Well, you can think as you like, but for those who can see the future of this peerless BUSINESS thoroughfare I have some attractive offerings.

FOR INSTANCE:
A new building, near Valencia—paying 9½ per cent. net—stores leased for 4 years—$10,000, one-half cash.

ANOTHER FINE INVESTMENT:
Two new, absolutely modern apartment buildings, rented for $175 a month, on a corner, overlooking Westmoreland Place, and NETTING 8 per cent. Location insures against vacancies. Just $10,000 cash required, balance 1 and 2 years, 6 per cent. This is a splendid permanent investment, which will increase in value right along.

WORTH LOOKING INTO:
A corner, 82x125, on Pico near Maple—two 6 and 5-room houses—at the rate of $90 a foot for land—and it's worth over $100. Only $4200 cash needed.

MAKE OFFER ON THIS:
A lot on E. Pico, near San Pedro. Owner MUST sell. Any reasonable cash offer takes it. This means just what it says. Look into it promptly.

ANOTHER HOT ONE:
A lot on W. Pico near Hobart Blvd. Unrestricted. Coming business property. $2200 cash buys it. Now under market.

And other good things on Pico, the GREATEST THROUGH CROSSTOWN STREET OF LOS ANGELES.

A BISHOP'S PLAIN WORDS.

"Rule Yourself and Pass the Word Along."

New Church to be Dedicated on Pico Heights.

Two Days of Talking from Missionaries.

Bishop Johnson preached in St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral last night at the mid-Lent service, upon the mission of the church. A large congregation gathered to hear him and listened with reverent appreciation to his plain exposition of the founding of the Kingdom of Christ, and what it means to man. He chose for his text, Ephesians iv, 4 and 5: "There is one body and one spirit; one Lord, one faith, one baptism."

"Its success," said the bishop of the Kingdom of Christ, "was to depend upon the eagerness, the sincerity and faith of those who composed it.

"Whatever theory we may have about the church that Christ established, it must conform to the principles he laid down; our theory must be brought into harmony with His.

"What He did was to take a sincere body of followers and found them into an organization to take care of the gospel.

"There is no better way to do this than to put men to work; in the presence of a task men grow alert and interested. The church is the field in which the best in man may be developed.

"We have come face to face with great things; every important element depends upon the identification of the new birth with the new life."

Referring to the demonstrations of power which Christ gave by the laying on of hands or through the touching of His garment, the speaker incidentally mentioned some of the old-time superstitions, as for instance, the belief that disease might be healed by the shadow of St. Peter falling upon the afflicted one.

"The mediums used by Christ were not necessary to healing," said Bishop Johnson, "but to those who were weak and whose faith needed training they were necessary. If it suited His purpose Christ at once transcended His usual method, and healed persons at great distances."

The bishop declared that the acts of Christ and the establishing of His church were simply doing the natural thing, and the church should have no ideals lower than God Himself. He appealed to men to learn to rule themselves and pass the word along to their fellows that they in turn might do the same.

CROOKED BOY CAUGHT NORTH.

WANTED HERE, PASADENA, AND OTHER PLACES.

Ed McKim, Only Nineteen, Confesses to Crimes and Beseeches the Officers That He be Sent to the Penitentiary Where He Can Commit No More.

Ed McKim, a boy of 19, wanted in five different counties for nine different felonies, beseeching the officers of the law that he be sent to the penitentiary that he may commit no more crimes, was arrested late Tuesday afternoon near Madera by Deputy Constable F. R. Fanning of Fresno as he was making away with a horse and buggy stolen there from Cobb Brothers. This is the report that comes from Fresno by Associated Press:

McKim is an exceptional criminal. He has no bad habits and is of a gentle, disposition, yet, by what he declares is an uncontrollable species of insanity, he is led to commit crime. Since his arrest word has been received in Fresno from the Sheriff at Sacramento, where he is wanted for two forgeries and a grand larceny, Hanford, where he forged a check, Los Angeles, where two charges of grand larceny are filed against him, Santa Ana and Pasadena, in which places he stole livery rigs. To these charges he has confessed.

McKim will be brought from the north to Pasadena this evening, as the authorities there are said to have the strongest case against him. He stole a horse and buggy from A. Boyd of that city, drove to Bakersfield, and there disposed of both horse and rig.

TAKEN OFF STEAMER.

Thief Wanted Here Captured at Port Los Angeles by Officers from Santa Monica.

C. C. Curtis was arrested yesterday afternoon at Port Los Angeles just as he was boarding the steamer Queen for San Francisco and last night he was sent to Los Angeles to answer to a charge of petty larceny. Curtis roomed with L. J. Bergman at No. 127 North Main street and during Bergman's absence he entered the room and opening Bergman's trunk, emptied its contents upon the floor. He stole a revolver and several other articles of value and then disappeared. The detectives looked for him for two days and then learned that he was about to sail for the North on a steamer and the various wharfs have been watched. Yesterday afternoon Curtis started up the gang plank of the steamer Queen, but an officer stopped him. The stolen revolver was found in his pocket. He was brought back to Los Angeles last night and placed in jail. He has confessed his guilt.

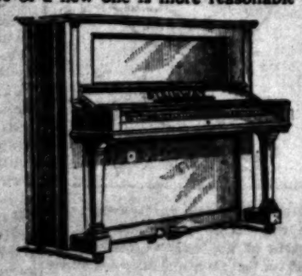
How Old Is Your

Steinway Piano

We wish to impress upon everybody who owns a Steinway Upright or Grand, from ten to forty years old, that we are ready to purchase it at any time at a fair price.

We have more calls for second-hand Steinways than we can fill. Many musical people who are limited in the amount they can expend prefer a second-hand Steinway to a new instrument of any other make.

A Steinway is always of value, no matter how long you have used it; and the price of a new one is more reasonable than that of any other piano, if quality counts in the reckoning.



For illustration of this, we invite you to examine our new model, the

550 Vertegrand

We feel sure that you will be convinced from every point of view, that it pays to buy the Steinway.

HAYS SMILES IN TORTURE.

A common criminal dreads jail merely as a dog dreads being tied up; and he "cusses" the court which ties him.

To a man of the Tom Hays stamp the bitterness of it lies in the thought that the trial is a test to ascertain if his presence is such as to pollute society; to see if, for society's good, he should be shut in by himself, his fellow-men protected from his contact.

Hays bore himself well, with dignity; the room was filled with men who knew him once; he did not notice them. His demeanor was that of a man among strangers, and minding his own affairs.

He had a hard day taken up with the selection of six out of a dozen jurors.

The government was represented by United States District Attorney Valentine, and by Deputy United States District Attorney McKeeby.

Hays had three attorneys: J. S. Chapman, the dean of the Los Angeles bar, who sat nearly the whole day in silence; Earl Rogers, quick and aggressive, fighting and having a dandy time; E. A. Meserve, corporation lawyer, cheerful, rather amused, with the mien of a man with a good card up his sleeve. They are a somewhat remarkable trio of men.

STOP ON A QUESTION.

Judge Wellborn stopped the District Attorney when he asked one of the time-worn questions put to jurors.

"Would the fact that Mr. Hays is a man of family influence your opinion or verdict in the case?" was the question.

"That system of questioning does not appeal to my judgment," said the court.

After 5 o'clock Judge Wellborn asked the attorneys to stay, and asked them frankly, their judgment as to the propriety of such questions.

It was discussed informally. Mr. Valentine stating that he deemed it important to get a man's ideas with a view of exercising peremptory challenges; the court stated that he would give a definite decision this morning in the matter.

One man was asked if he knew any of the attorneys in the case. He said he knew Rogers.

Mr. Valentine, to ascertain if his acquaintance was such as would render him ineligible to sit in the case, asked: "What did your acquaintance consist of?"

"I heard him make political speeches."

"Well, that's ground for challenge on our own side," put in Meserve, laughingly.

EDWARDS AND HOOK.

All went smoothly until they got to the state of mind of David K. Edwards. Mr. Edwards said he had an impression about the case, but no opinion. He couldn't exactly explain the difference.

Mr. Valentine took a whack at it; Rogers struggled with it; Mr. Meserve found something the United States Supreme Court had to say about it; the Court gave it up and finally Mr. Edwards was excused in dispair.

Thomas J. Hook of the old Traction Company was one of the jurors summoned.

He was asked by the District Attorney if he had ever employed any of the attorneys for the defense; he replied in the negative.

"Well," said Rogers when it came his turn, "You have had most of them against you I guess."

This was admitted.

"Wasn't Mr. Gibbon an attorney for the Traction?"

Mr. Hook said that it was so.

"Would any interest that Mr. Gibbon might have in this case influence your decision?"

"Not in the least."

"If it should appear that J. Ross Clark had interests in this case adverse to Mr. Hays, would that influence you?"

He didn't think it would, but he was excused from serving, nevertheless.

SIX SELECTED.

The jurors finally selected at 5 o'clock are: Simon Chaffin, J. L. Virick, C. W. Mills, Albert L. Ryman, Martin C. Neuner, George A Tolbot.

Against Hays are two indictments and seven counts. The first charge is that while acting as agent of the bank he embezzled $5000 Aug. 4, 1903, and, to conceal it, made two false entries in the bank's books the same day. The entries, it is alleged, appear in Hays's handwriting. Hays is charged with embezzling $1000 Sept. 16, 1903, and with covering it with a false entry in the "Hutchinson & Brown" account in the individual ledger.

In the second indictment Hays' report to the Comptroller of the Currency is made the ground of complaint, it being charged that he reported the individual deposits to have aggregated $412,712.40 Sept. 9, 1903, when the actual sum was $501,443.40. It is alleged that Hays made a false entry in the general journal Aug. 4, 1903, on the debit side, showing the money drawn from the bank to be $5000 less than it actually was.

GORDON SCANDAL TURNS AGAIN.

JUDGE CONREY DENIES MOTION FOR ALIMONY.

Court Refuses to Grant Large Sum Asked by Attorneys and Discharges Restraining Order on Col. Gordon and His Banker—The Property at Issue.

Another page was turned in the sensational Gordon divorce proceedings yesterday morning in Department Five of the Superior Court, when Judge Conrey, before whom the application of the defendant, Nellie K. Gordon, was heard, on a review of the evidence submitted on both sides by affidavits involving the merits of the case, first refused to allow her attorneys, Messrs. Gage & Foley, the $10,000 prayed for as attorneys' fees, or any other sum for the defense of the case; second, refused to allow her $2000, or any other sum to enable her to prepare her defense and procure evidence; third, refused to allow her $600 per month alimony asked, or any sum for her own maintenance during the pendency of the action; fourth, refused to appoint a receiver of Col. Gordon's estate; and fifth, discharged the restraining order on Col. Gordon and the Merchants' National Bank of this city, where he keeps his deposits.

Whereupon Col. Gordon said that there was no community property whatever, but suggested that the court make an order restraining him from disposing of the Gordon Block on South Broadway during the pendency of the action without permission of the court, and until the question of community property was determined, which order was, by consent, entered.

It will be recalled that the defendant, Mrs. Nellie K. Gordon, in her answer to Col. Gordon's complaint filed in court, confessed adultery with A. J. Montreuil, and sought to avoid the charge on two grounds; first, that the plaintiff had condoned the offense the same night as she made the confession to him by forgiving her and sleeping with her; secondly, by charging Col. Gordon with having committed the same offense repeatedly for several years last past with her sisters, Virginia and Mollie Kennedy, who were then and still are inmates of her residence, admitting in another part of her answer that she knew several years ago of the alleged fact that Col. Gordon was intimate with her said sisters, and also claiming that all the property owned by Col. Gordon was community property earned by the joint efforts of herself and Col. Gordon since their marriage July 12, 1892, and asked that a receiver be appointed for the property; also that he be enjoined from disposing of any of the said property or handling the same.

WHOSE ARMY FALKENBERG'S?

And What is That Soldier the General of?

The Honorable Mr. Kang Doesn't Recognize Him.

Chinese Potentate Says That Homer Lea's the Man.

The efforts of Col. A. R. Hotchkiss of this city to elevate "Gen." A. R. Falkenberg to the command of the "Chinese Imperial Reform Army" have not been entirely successful.

The eclat with which he presented "Gen." Falkenberg in his full regimentals at the Hotchkiss dinner Tuesday night was all that could be desired; but he neglected, it seems, to take a few facts into consideration.

There isn't any "Chinese Imperial Reform Army."

Also, Hon. Kang Yu Wei, who does the appointing for the Chinese reform movement, has other ideas regarding the status of "Gen." Falkenberg.

Yesterday, although it gave him pain, His Excellency, Mr. Kang, gracefully repudiated the distinguished hero hatched out by Col. Hotchkiss.

Gen. Homer Lea of this city, Mr. Kang indorsed as the actual commander.

It appears that Col. Hotchkiss was no more successful as a Chinese interpreter at his famous dinner than he was as an impresario for the mythical "Imperial" army.

Col. Hotchkiss gave out to the society reporters a graceful resumé of the remarks of His Excellency upon that auspicious occasion, being in general a magnificent tribute to "Gen." Falkenberg.

"I feel assured," so Col. Hotchkiss caught the speech of His Excellency, "that China with Gen. Falkenberg's help, will be one of the foremost nations within a much shorter time than Japan succeeded in forging to the front rank."

When that famous after-dinner speech was read to Hon. Kang Yu Wei yesterday morning and he saw the Hotchkiss version of it, the chivalrous and stately ex-Premier got a boiling case of plain American "mad." Early yesterday morning his secretary called on Gen. Falkenberg—and left him nervous.

When a Times reporter called at his house on Seventh street yesterday, Kang Yu Wei was raging. His secretaries were dancing around like hens in coop. One of them explained ingenuously that "the master" was preparing something for the newspapers.

Were he to be judged by American standards, what was preparing for the newspapers must have been a crack behind the ear.

MR. KANG INTERVIEWED.

His angry voice was heard on the stairway; he partially appeared, looked over the banisters in evident agitation; then went back.

His young secretary, Chew Hok Hean, came down and made excuses for Kang Yu Wei, who sent his respects and said he was sick, but would hear any questions carried to him by his secretary. Thus he was interviewed.

The reporter sent up these questions:

"As one of those two generals is a fake, which one is it?

"Is there any Chinese Imperial Army?"

The secretary hurriedly ran upstairs and hurriedly ran down again.

A look of genuine distress was in his face.

"His Excellency requests that you will not make it too harsh," he said, with a scared look, "but Gen. Falkenberg—he—he doesn't know about."

"But at the dinner," objected the reporter, "he recognized Falkenberg as the whole thing."

Across the face of the honorable Chew Kok Hean came a look of startled perplexity.

"Said he was the commander-in-chief," explained the reporter.

"Little slip of tongue," faltered the secretary. "Maybe misunderstood what he said."

"Then Kang Yu Wei did not make a speech recognizing 'Gen.' Falkenberg as was given out?"

Chew Kok Hean shook his head in embarrassment, but asked quickly: "Did they send that to the newspapers?"

"Which part was right?" asked the reporter, producing the paper.

"Here," said the secretary, feebly pointing to the words: "After many years' travel in foreign lands, His Excellency has decided to uphold the appointments of his colleague, On Won Chew, who visited Los Angeles ——"

"Then does he confirm the appointment of Gen. Falkenberg?"

Chew Kok Hean looked unhappy and said: "If On Won Chew appointed him—why—why—maybe something over there," pointing toward China.

Chinese diplomacy was getting too thick.

The reporter firmly laid a finger on Chew Kok Hean's illustrious knee and said, "Now look here: there are too many commanders in chief round here to fill the jobs; either Homer Lea or Gen. Falkenberg is a false alarm; which is it?"

"Gen Lea is commander of all the military schools in America—of all the cadets; they are to respect his authority; he is their commander-in-chief."

"What authority has Gen. Falkenberg over them?"

"None."

"Gen. Lea is supreme?"

"Gen. Lea is supreme."

"Then what is Gen. Falkenberg's position?"

"Perhaps in the Imperial army——" began Chew Kok.

"What is the Chinese Imperial Reform Army?"

Chew Kok Hean giggled and said very low; "There isn't any."

"Then these schools scattered over the country are all there is to the Chinese Imperial Reform Army?"

"Yes."

"And Gen. Lea is in supreme command of those?"

"Yes."

Chew Kok Hean laughed.

Another cultured Chinaman, with the same lithe sensitive hands and the same refined face came up to the table.

"I will explain to you," he said politely, "I am the secretary of Mr. On Won Chew who came from China to organise these military schools under orders from His Excellency, Kang Yu Wei. I traveled all over the United States with him. We organized companies in San Francisco, Los Angeles, Chicago, Pittsburg, Philadelphia, New York, Baltimore and elsewhere.

"Falkenberg was made commander of the San Francisco military school: that is all the authority he has. Gen. Homer Lea was made commander of all the military schools in the United States Mr. On Won Chew ordered all to report to Gen. Lea."

The Times reporter then called on Gen. Falkenberg in his headquarters in the Hotchkiss mansion on Grand avenue and Fourth streets. A girl said the general was too busy to be disturbed.

She took back a message that brought out the general, however.

He was languid but friendly.

"Why," he said "This boy Homer Lea—oh I have no wish to be harsh with him. In fact His Excellency sent his secretary to me this morning with such a suggestion.

"The fact is he is the head of these military schools. I have nothing to do with them. Oh they are just boys' schools; have nothing particular to do with the army."

Asked if Gen. Lea was entitled to military rank, he said, "Why I don't know; I suppose he might be called a captain or major or even a colonel; seven or eight companies, you know these military schools are equivalent to.

"I—Oh—I am supreme in my authority over all the troops of the Chinese Imperial Reform Army. I am the only one who has a commission over them all." He said that he held a commission from On Won Chew.

FALKENBERG'S STATEMENT.

Later in the evening he sent out the following statement:

The American public seems to labor under the misapprehension that the Commander-in-Chief of the Chinese Imperial Reform Army attempted to claim credit for having organized the Chinese Military Cadet companies in the United States and to have assumed command over these cadets. Such however, is not the case and we desire to give herewith full credit to Homer Lea as the founder of these various companies and accordingly recognize him as the commander of these Chinese cadet companies which, however, have nothing whatever to do with the Chinese Imperial Reform Army in China.

We may possibly in the future, in case of an emergency, accept them individually or as a body for our Chinese Imperial Army depending upon circumstances.

Signed: R. A. FALKENBERG,
General Commanding C. I. R. A.
F. PARMENTIER,
Lieut. General and Chief of Staff.

Lieut. Gen. Parmentier is a young architect of Los Angeles.

RATHER DIFFERENT.

Chew Kok Hean paid a warm tribue to Homer Lea last night in proclaiming him to be the only name-blown-in-the-bottle commander. "Gen. Lea is not a military man himself," he said, "but is a profound student of military science. He is a brilliant man, a deep thinker and a reader of philosophy. He is warmly admired by Kang Yu Wei, whose appointment he holds."

GUN ROBBER A GAMBLER?

Man Said to Have Held up Poker Joint Caught.

Captured in Bed by Police of Bakersfield.

Possibly Other Local Jobs Wanted in Arizona.

When several weeks ago a poker joint on the road east of Evergreen Cemetery, along the line of the East First-street road, was held up and seven players were compelled to put their hands in the air and submit to being searched by two masked highwaymen, one of the robbers was recognized. The detectives have been looking for him ever since. They had been informed that to capture one of the robbers would require a gun play, and they went prepared for quick action with their revolvers. The whole town was searched, but no trace of the man was found. It was left for the Bakersfield officers to make the catch, and yesterday afternoon a telegram was received from there stating that the man was in jail. Last night Detective Hawley left for Bakersfield to get the prisoner.

He is Joe Burns, alias Patterson. The Bakersfield officers found him in bed, got the drop on him and compelled him to put up his hands. Under his pillow was found a big revolver, and had he been given a chance he would have used the weapon.

Burns had been a player in the gambling joint east of the city which was held up. Who his companion was is not known, but the detectives hope, when they get him here, to make him tell. Burns was an Arizona cowboy who made money in mines, and when he came here he had several thousand dollars. He lost it in the game which he is alleged to have held up. After the hold-up he went into hiding.

The detectives believe Burns is one of the men who participated in the robbery at the Beaumont Café several months ago, but until he is returned it cannot be known whether he will be identified.

During the time that the detectives looked for Burns they have investigated his record. They find that he is wanted in Arizona for a similar crime, and if he is not convicted here he may be sent to the Territory for trial.

When arrested in Bakersfield the prisoner gave the name of Patterson, and stated that he had never been in Los Angeles, but the man who pointed him out to the Bakersfield officers is positive that he is the robber who held the gun while his companion relieved the seven men in the gambling joint east of the city.

PEASE FUNERAL.

Victim of Sunday's Automobile Accident Will be Laid to Rest Today.

The funeral of Mrs. Nellie Smith Pease, wife of Sherman Pease and daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Niles Pease, who lost her life near Hollywood last Sunday afternoon through the running down of her husband's automobile by a Laurel Cañon electric car, will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the mortuary chapel of Bresee Bros. The services will be private to the family and intimate friends. Mrs. Pease was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira B. Smith of No. 245 South Grand avenue, and sister to Miss Belle Smith, Mrs. E. D. Boone and Clyde Smith.

The condition of those who were injured in the accident, Sherman Pease and Mrs. D. E. Wellcome, continued yesterday to improve. They are still being cared for at the Hollywood Hotel. Mr. Pease is still kept in ignorance of the death of his wife, nor has that intelligence been imparted to Mrs. Wellcome.

WILL BISHOP TURN EAST?

Rumor That Head of Los Angeles Diocese May Go to Boston.

Is there a prospect of the early removal of Bishop Thomas J. Conaty from the diocese of Monterey and Los Angeles to become coadjutor bishop of Boston?

This is the interesting question discussed among prominent Catholics, who are alarmed lest the popular prelate who has shown such energy and executive ability since coming to preside over this see may be taken away by the higher powers.

Bishop Conaty's name is among those mentioned in the East for the new coadjutorship. Archbishop Williams is in his eighty-fourth year, and is just recovering from a severe surgical operation. His health is such that it is imperative he be relieved of much of the labor of his office.

It is said that the province of Boston is the most important, numerically, in America, and the appointment as coadjutor bishop would carry with it the right of succession upon the death of the incumbent of the archbishopric.

Bishop Conaty has often expressed his preference for the Pacific Coast, and both priests and people have become attached to him during the time he has administered the affairs of this diocese. While all realize that his appointment as coadjutor to Archbishop Williams would be a decided advance, it is the hope of local Catholics that Bishop Conaty will remain at the head of the Los Angeles diocese.

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

City Assessor Lewis yesterday issued a warning to householders to bring their property statements to the City Hall, under penalty of an arbitrary assessment.

Records in the City Assessor's office show that Los Angeles property has advanced in value about 125 per cent. during the last four years and 2200 per cent. in twenty-five years.

A contest was filed yesterday of the will of Lutellis Doolittle, an old soldier, who died recently leaving quite a valuable estate. The document bears date after the testator's death.

The old suit of Harriet Strong against Baldwin and others, which was decided by Judge Shaw and then reversed by the Supreme Court, came to trial again yesterday before Judge Conrey.

AT THE CITY HALL.

"RECORD YEAR," SAYS ASSESSOR.

VALUATION INCREASE OF THIRTY MILLION DOLLARS.

Householders Warned to Bring Property Statements to City Hall, Under Penalty of Arbitrary Assessment—Over One Hundred Per Cent. Gain in Four Years.

City Assessor Lewis yesterday issued an official notice of warning to householders in the residence districts that unless they call at the Assessor's office in the City Hall and make a property statement, they are likely to be confronted when they go to pay their taxes this fall with an arbitrary assessment, maybe ten times as high as that of last year.

"The work of my office is one-third greater than it was a year ago," said Mr. Lewis yesterday afternoon. "The field men are instructed to make one call at each house in their districts. If the householder is not in a notice is left asking that he, or she, call at the Assessor's office and render a property statement. If they fail to do so I am empowered by the State law to fix an arbitrary assessment equal to ten times the actual value of the property assessed."

Records for the new assessment already compiled in the Assessor's office show that the increase in the valuation of Los Angeles property will be equal to that of any other year in the city's history.

Advanced estimates place the increase at $30,000,000. If the tax rate is the same as that of last year this will mean an increase of over $400,000 in the city's revenue.

A great portion of this increase is due to the subdivision of tracts of land into city lots. Over 20,000 new names have been added to the assessment roll of realty property owners within the last year.

This alone is an increase of almost one-half. There are now over 63,000 names on the assessment roll.

It is now estimated that the total assessed property valuation, real and personal, will this year reach the magnificent total of $156,000,000. This means an increase of almost 125 per cent. in four years. In 1901 the assessed property valuation was $70,502,307. The tax revenue that year for current expenses, excluding interest and sinking fund on bonds, was less than $700,000. This year the revenue for current expenses, based on last year's tax rate, will be over $1,500,000. All of which goes to show that the expense of government is running the increased property valuations a neck-and-neck race.

Twenty-five years ago the assessed property valuation of Los Angeles was $7,259,583. Based on the present estimate of $156,000,000, the value of Los Angeles property has advanced in the last quarter of a century over 2200 per cent.

MAY RECALL ORDINANCE.

DID HANLEY REDUCE FORCE?

Deputies in the Street Superintendent's office have already appealed to the Civil Service Commission to protect them from what they assert is an evasion of civil-service rules.

Monday the Council passed a salary ordinance affecting the street department. Superintendent Hanley then explained that he was seeking to reduce his force in order that he might get more laborers for the streets.

It is now claimed that Mr. Hanley, instead of reducing the expense of his office force, has increased it $95 a month over the expense under the Werdin administration.

Councilmen have commenced a quiet investigation, and it is possible that they may ask the Mayor next Monday to return the ordinance without his approval.

Civil Service Commissioners are interesting themselves in the method used in the street department to secure the dismissal of the chief deputy without reducing the office force. Some of the commissioners have already expressed the opinion that Roy McKeon, the chief deputy whom the ordinance dismisses by abolishing the office, is entitled to remain in the department in the position of secretary to the Street Superintendent. The commission has repeatedly ruled that a civil-service employé cannot be dismissed by abolishing the office which he fills and creating another under a different name in the same department.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

HIS TESTAMENT AFTER DEATH.

THE LAST WILL OF L. DOOLITTLE BRINGS PROMPT CONTEST.

Hieroglyphic Document Purports to Have Been Made a Day After the Old Veteran Died at the Soldiers' Home. Drafter of the Will Made Executor and Chief Legatee.

A very ragged and obscure-looking document has been filed as the last will and testament of the late Lutellis Doolittle, and in one respect it is the most extraordinary ever filed. It purports to have been made and signed the day after the testator died.

Doolittle was a United States veteran, and died in the hospital at the Soldiers' Home about 11 o'clock in the morning of February 26, and his will was made and signed the following day—the 27th. Inasmuch as the estate is valued at any sum between $5000 and $10,000, the peculiarity of a dead man signing his will is giving rise to investigation.

When the will was offered for probate by L. D. Davenport it appeared as if th edeceased had no relatives who could or would make protest. But yesterday Camp & Lissner, representing Wilson S. Doolittle, a brother living in Helena, Mont., and Alvira Marling, a sister living in Cowley county, Kansas, filed a contest. In addition to raising the usual technical objections, facts are alleged by the contestants making it appear that the signing of the will was fraudulent.

Davenport used to keep a little store at Sawtelle, and it was here that Doolittle passed a great deal of his time, returning to the Home to eat and sleep. When the veteran took sick with pneumonia he had a hard fight. About an hour before Doolittle died Davenport appeared at the hospital and is said to have written the will on a large sheet of foolscap paper. It is wretchedly written, and in places is scarcely decipherable. Most of the property is left to Davenport.

The old soldier could not sign his name, so made his mark, and half an hour later died. Just how the document came to bear a date other than that of the day upon which he died nobody knows. It is supposed that Davenport was rattled at losing his friend, and getting a small competence both on the same day. To make the latter feel better, he was appointed executor. Dr. T. V. Parker and one Jerry Griffith were witnesses to the document, but there were several legal omissions in its preparation that will be fought over in due time.

When the effects of Doolittle were overhauled at the Home it was found that there was $10.65 in cash, a bank book showing a credit of $90, a due bill for $60, and a balance owing on an account of $9. All of this was good money, and, so the picturesque will with its spider leg writing, looking somewhat like cuneiform inscriptions on Assyrian bricks, was filed for probate.

But while the above was the amount of realizable assets close at hand Doolittle left a ranch in Montana all fitted and stocked with cattle. This is valued at about $7500. There is another small ranch in San Diego county of an uncertain value. The San Diego property is left to Davenport and a curious provision is made regarding the Montana ranch that may invalidate that part of the will in any event. It is provided that this Montana ranch be held by Davenport for five years to use as he may please, and at the end of that time it is to be sold by Davenport, and the proceeds distributed to the brother and sister of the deceased. It is claimed that the courts have already ruled against trusts of that peculiar character.

To sum the matter up, the contesting brother and sister are contending that Davenport took advantage of his friendship with the deceased, and got him to sign and acquiesce to the terms of a document when the testator was on the very brink of death; that he did so with fraudulent intent, and that he himself is the most important legatee under the will.

BROKE HIS TEETH.

BUT UTTER STILL DRANK.

Mrs. Lela Utter was yesterday granted a divorce from Charles R. Utter by Judge Trask, on the ground of failure to provide. The suit was transferred from Riverside, the husband desiring to get some kind of a run for his money, inasmuch as he was not intending to put in an appearance.

The parties were married at Riverside in 1895 and a pair of twin boys came to gladden the home. But their advent had no effect in causing the husband and father to restrain himself from indulging in a riotous time. For some years he kept within limits though the limits were quite broad. More recently restraint was thrown to the wind and Utter devoted all the time he could, away from business, to filling up on whisky. One night he took his boys out and kept them with him while he imbibed, and when returning with them home about midnight he fell and broke his front teeth.

Eighteen months ago husband and wife parted and the wife returned to Riverside to begin her suit for divorce. She stated that, for a long time, her husband had not contributed to her support or that of his family. She asked nothing in the way of alimony but only that she get her freedom.

The court granted the decree but made an order that the husband pay $20 a month for the support of the twins, the court in this way retaining jurisdiction.

COPYISTS HAPPY AGAIN.

CODE DOESN'T REQUIRE TYPE.

The copyists in the office of the County Recorder are happy once more, and that after a number were almost afflicted with heart failure at the thought that they had to lose their positions because they could not play on a typewriter.

When what are known as the "code slips," which are used by attorneys to paste into their law books and thus bring the statutes up to date, arrived in the city in was discovered that the law bearing upon the copying of records in the county recorder's offices throughout the State had been changed. The new law read that all records must be copied in "a fair hand of typewriting," and that dictum carried desolation to the hearts of some of the copyists whose fingers are all thumbs, and who believed that they never could learn to run a machine so as to make living wages.

It turns out now to have been a false alarm. The "code-slips" were wrong, and were not taken as they are supposed to be taken from the engrossed bills. The engrossed bill, in this particular case, reads: "He must, upon payment of his fees for the same, record separately, (in a fair hand or typewriting,) in large and well bound separate books, etc."

This wording makes the use of the tpyewriter for copying purposes optional, and the women copyists believe that reduced to a working proposition it means that the pen will continue to have right of way in order that sixty positions be kept open. On the other hand there has for a long time been a general demand that the county records be kept in a manner more economical, both in actual cost and in the use of books by the condensation of matter, and in such shape that the work of reference may no longer be a toil.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

TOO MANY LOVERS. Mary E. Burge was sent to Patton yesterday. She imagines that people are talking about her, and what is causing them to talk is that so many men are falling in love with her. She sits and laughs and cries alternately over the fact that it is so attractive. Then, too, she hears spirit voices talking to her.

TEMPORARY ESCAPE. A young fellow named Holt was arrested a day or two ago on the insanity charge, and was taken to the county hospital. Deputy Sheriff Hubbard, who is stationed at the hospital and looks out for the patients awaiting examination, has been ill with tonsilitis and while off duty his place has been filled by an elderly man of the hospital staff. Yesterday morning Holt watched his chance and escaped. He made straight for his mother's home on Mateo street, but had not been home very long when a deputy sheriff came after him. Under Sheriff Yonkin had been informed by telephone of the escape and surmising that Holt would go home dispatched Joe Sepulveda to escort the escape back to the hospital. The crazy man wouldn't submit and showed fight. He caught the deputy one on the left cheek, and then Sepulveda closed in and after a stiff wrestling bout managed to throw his man. He sat on him while putting on the handcuffs, and after that all was easy.

THE INFERIOR COURTS.

STEALS LIVERY OF HEAVEN.

VAGRANT IS DOOMED TO THE CHAIN GANG.

Joined Two Churches and Might Have Made Better Record if Police Had Not Nabbed Him—Worked Members and Charity Funds for Cash—Melolings Again.

John Ball, who first buncoed good Deacon Pense out of his cash by telling a lying hard-luck story, in which he used the name of the Nazarene Church, was convicted of vagrancy yesterday in the Police Court.

Developments at the trial seem to indicate that Ball has been hanging around Los Angeles a good deal longer than is generally supposed, inasmuch as he was so conversant with the official station of the people he victimized in the various churches.

It was shown at the trial yesterday that he not only went forward publicly and joined the Central Methodist Church, some time in February, but that he afterward joined the First Presbyterian Church, of which Rev. Frank DeWitt Talmage is the pastor.

After joining the Methodist Church he "worked" the officials for a draft on the charity fund and also got small sums from various individuals, usually on the strength of a remittance he was "expecting" from his mother in Kansas City.

In joining the First Presbyterian Church he had to put on a still bolder front than at the Methodist Church. He passed muster before the session and was duly received on March 5. Elder Hoffman in telling the court about it said:

"We are very careful whom we take in and when Mr. Ball presented himself he was required to come before the session. There were nine of us there and he told such a straightforward story that we took him in and he took communion with us on the next Sunday."

Ball had previously got his work in on Mr. Hoffman and had been accorded the honor of eating at the benevolent gentleman's table as well as getting a little cash. Later he secured a contribution from the charity fund of that church, through its treasurer, the daughter of W. T. Goodhue, another of the elders.

Meantime Ball continued to keep his Methodist friends in mind, but he was getting too many irons in the fire and it began to be noised about that his professions were all a sham, and the people of the two churches got together on the fact that he had joined both.

On the day of his arrest, on a warrant sworn out by W. T. Goodhue charging him with vagrancy, Dr. Burton and another officer of the Methodist Church went to Ball's lodgings and found him in bed drunk. After rousing him up he made the plea of illness and made an appointment for 2 o'clock that afternoon to talk the matter over. His visitors left but stopped on the sidewalk. A few minutes later Ball came hastily from the house and was about to walk away when he was nabbed by Detectives Hawley and Murphy.

He was represented at his trial by Attorney Crawford, but no evidence was introduced in his defense, not so much as a statement from the prisoner himself, and he was pronounced guilty by Justice Chambers. He will be sentenced this morning.

GO UP HIGHER.

MELOLINGS PROMOTED.

Albert W. Melolingand Aimee Melolingand, who were some days ago held for trial on a charge of burglary, with bail fixed at $1500 each, were before Justice Austin again yesterday on a similar charge, in which the special piece of property mentioned was a diamond ring valued at $150, which had been stolen by them among other articles, from the apartments of Dr. George Robinson in the Ormond lodging house.

The immaculate raiment of the pair attracted attention and remark. They put in no defense and were held in $1000 each. They have been confined in the City Jail ever since their arrest and were transferred to the County Jail soon after the proceedings took place in the Justice's Court. They clambered into the patrol wagon as if a sniff of the open air tasted good even under such circumstances.

A young woman named Polly Locke, a member of a well known family of San Mateo county, was shot and killed Tuesday night in Mike Brown's saloon at San Mateo. Jefferson Stuart, a watchman on the Crocker place, who was with the woman, is in jail at Redwood City. Stuart says the woman committed suicide.

Face Lotion for Votes.

The women of Bluffton, O., who are working to drive out the saloons at a coming local-option election, are canvassing the town with a face lotion, presenting a supply of the mixture to every woman who will promise to try to induce her husband to vote "dry." —[Pittsburgh Dispatch.

FARMERS GLAD NO DIVISION.

County Taxes Lower on the Los Angeles Side.

Pomona Scheme Would Have Raised the Rates.

Double Valuations on Other Side of Border.

Now that the Governor has vetoed the County Division Bill, the property owners of this county have done considerable studying on their own account. If they had taken the same interest in the matter months ago, it is doubtful if the people of this State would ever have heard anything of this secession bill.

A number of taxpayers have been investigating the conditions in the adjoining counties of San Bernardino and Riverside with results that they most strongly denounce any attempt at secession.

The State rate is 53½ cents; Los Angeles county rate is 59 cents; Los Angeles road rate is 60 cents, making a total for State and county rate of $1.72½. Compare this with Riverside; the State and county rate of that county is $2.20; while in San Bernardino county the State and county rate is $2.40.

Nor are these figures the only evidence to be produced in favor of Los Angeles county; it has been found by further investigation that the land of Los Angeles county is assessed much lower than that of San Bernardino county.

Take, for instance, all that land between Claremont and San Antonio Cañon, the boundary line between the two counties of Los Angeles and San Bernardino, and cut these sections in two. The whole country is covered with cacti, sage brush and rocks; a jack rabbit would starve to death, and a few bee men manage to eke out a living. The land in Los Angeles county is assessed on a valuation of $1 per acre, and in some cases less than that, while the same kind of land, in the same section, but in San Bernardino county, is assessed on a valuation of $5 and in some cases $6 per acre.

If a rancher has 100 acres of such land in Los Angeles county his total assessed valuation would be $100, State and county tax rate $1.72½. Special school rate for Claremont school district 25 cents, making his total taxes $1.97½. His neighbor over the line in San Bernardino county has 100 acres assessed on a valuation of $500, State and county rate $2.40, special school rate 25 cents, making his total taxes $13.25.

Would any sane man want to make another county so that the people could be taxed higher?

Much more could be said in favor of the orange growers of Los Angeles county, whose land is assessed much less than the land in San Bernardino county.

The following figures speak for themselves. They are the total rates, State, county and school, in the different school districts of the two counties.

San Bernardino county.	Total rate.	Los Angeles county.	Total rate.
Arrowhead	2.20	Azusa city	1.61½
Chino	2.20	Azusa	2.41½
City San Bernardino	2.40	Charter Oak	1.76½
Colton	2.40	Claremont	1.97½
Colton, outside city	2.50	Covina city	2.16½
Crafton	2.70	Glendora	2.75½
Crafton, outside city	2.10	Puente	1.85½
Lugonia	2.00	Lordsburg	2.41½
Lugonia, outside city	2.10	Pomona city	1.25½
Ontario	2.40
Ontario, outside city	2.50
Redlands	2.10
Redlands, outside city	2.20

These are the school districts mentioned as going into a new county with Pomona.

BY BOWDITCH.

Charles P. Bowditch of Boston, vice-president of the Archaeological Institute of America, lectured before the members and guests of the Southwest Society a branch of the Institute, at Unity Church yesterday evening.

Charles F. Lummis, who presided, spoke briefly of the work done by the society, which has a membership of almost 200, and told of a plan which is being formulated for the erection of a great public museum in this city. The chairman introduced the speaker of the evening as the grandson of the famous Nathaniel Bowditch of "Navigator" fame.

The lecture dealt with the manners and customs and especially with the language and writing of the early people of Yucatan.

Mr. Bowditch proved to be an interesting speaker and his lecture was illustrated with stereopticon views obtained in South and Central America by an immense amount of labor.

The lecturer drew a contrast between the advance made by the people of the northern and southern hemispheres and that of tribes near the Equator, and the advantage was seen to be with the people of the torrid zone, who had established a form of Heirogiyphics far in advance of the picture writing of the Esquimaux. The phonetic spelling used by the Aztecs was shown by an illustration from the word catastrophe which was spelt with the sign of a cat, an ass, and a coat of arms or trophy. In this way the people of Central America, who thousands of years ago built those wonderful temples, were able to speak to an audience in this city through the interpretation of the man who has spent many years in this instructive research.

The manners and customs of the original Central Americans were dwelt upon and the speaker believed the civilization reached by the people of Yucatan was far in advance of any other of the American nations.

The people of Yucatan were said to have had an almost perfect calendar with days and months and years. They were shown to have had a system whereby they had established a first day, a starting point as distinct to their civilization as the birth of Christ. This starting point dated back four thousand years before the Central Americans had reached their highest civilization.

The awful cruelties of the Spaniards upon the Aztecs was brought dramatically before the listeners, and the speaker told of places he had visited which had been desolated by the Spanish invaders who had often destroyed the most valuable archives of the nation flourishing in great splendor while Christianity was in its swaddling clothes.

Photographs of wonderful temples built on massive mounds of hewn stones piled with the labor of years, were thrown on the screen, and the monuments of the greatness of people who have passed entirely out of history were shown to be covered with sculpture and to possess the finest forms of architecture. The speaker thought the high state of civilization reached by the people of Yucatan its origin in India and the Far East. As a proof of this the carving of an elephant putting out from the cade of an ancient temple was shown.

Mr. Bowditch believed that something should be done by the United States government to preserve the interesting inscriptions which are going to ruin every day. These inscriptions, some of which are of invaluable because of their bearing upon a civilization that existed thousands of years ago, are worthless because of exposure to the weather or are carried off by careless visitors with little thought of their value.

Not Ready Made But "Ready Tailored"

Every day material inroads are made on our present stock by people who know that buying high-class furniture from our stock at the enormous reductions we are making will be an every-day occurrence only while this sale lasts.

To have a parlor suit made up for you exactly as you want it at 30 to 40 per cent less than the regular value is one thing that merits your consideration today.

There is no department that does not contribute from 15 to 40 per cent on the value of goods to the purchaser at the present time, for we are determined that not a piece of goods in our store and warehouse today shall enter the new store.

These concessions to the public are made in the spirit to impel the trade, because to carry out our plan of selling out the entire stock quickly we realize that reduced prices is a great factor; then you should remember that there is only the very best in our stock.

LEAVES IT TO THE PUBLIC.

Jeff Willing to Meet Hart if Game Shapes up.

Otherwise He Will Retire at End of Year.

Britt and White are Matched. Corrigan's Plans.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, March 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The fighting game in the heavyweight class received a boom last night, when Martin Hart secured a decision over Johnson in San Francisco. When Champion Jeffries heard that the decision was awarded to Hart, he repeated his statement that he would be willing to meet the Kentuckian. Jeff said:

"I am glad Hart won; not that it necessarily means we will get into the ring in a fight for the championship, but also because it puts the negro out of the running. I do not want the public to think that I am looking for easy game, and if the press and public decide that Hart is a suitable opponent for me, I will gladly meet him this fall.

"If Hart is considered out of my class, I will retire from the ring this year forever."

HART AND JOHNSON BARRED.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, March 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] After seeing the fight last night, all experts are agreed that neither Hart nor Johnson would have any show with Jeffries. Hart is clumsy, and Jeff could reach him easily with a solar-plexus blow. Johnson, even if Jeffries would meet him, could offer no resistance, as Hart often reached his body. In fact, Jeff could whip them both in ten rounds.

BENNINGTON'S CHARITY.

CLOTHES FOR THE POOR.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, March 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Newton Bennington, the well-known turfman, called today at the city lodging-house, seeking a man whom he had helped to "bread line" during the cold weather. He had been impressed with his story of hard times he had had in "the big town" and sought to assist him.

Superintendent William York of the lodging-house told him the man he sought, named Lehman, had not been there of late. He explained to Bennington the crying need there was and had been for clothes for unfortunates. The millionaire turfman said he would send fifty suits of clothes to the house to be disposed of at the discretion of the superintendent.

CHICAGO TO HAVE RACING.

PEACE IS THE WATCHWORD.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, March 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Despite all threats and counter-threats that have kept local turf circles in a constant state of uncertainty ever since Corrigan's rival turf association was formed, it now seems certain that there will be racing in Chicago this year. All things now point to an amicable settlement of local differences.

Straws showing that neither side wants a struggle in Chicago are to be seen on all sides. Both factions are quietly preparing for the season, and since the outside reform associations have threatened to step in and put a quietus on the sport for all time, there is a notable absence of talk among turfmen themselves. In short, both sides are beginning to realize that war, such as has raged in the South, will mean no racing in Chicago.

Already racing stables are beginning to arrive at Worth, the first to come being Mont Tenne's string, which has been racing in California all winter. Corrigan is also sending some of his horses from the south to Hawthorne. Repairs are being made at all of the tracks.

PRAISE FOR CHASE.

JACKSON, MISS., ENTHUSES.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

JACKSON (Miss.) March 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Hal Chase, the California first baseman, will make good. He is the biggest "find" of the season, according to opinions here. Chase made his debut as a "Yankee" today, and his record was as follows: One run, one base hit, one sacrifice hit, one stolen base and eleven put-outs. He was only three times at bat, but this nearly perfect record does not begin to tell the easy, graceful, forceful, and confident way in which he performed.

BRITT AND WHITE.

MATCHED FOR TWENTY ROUNDS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, March 29.—James Britt of this city and Jabez White of England have been matched to fight twenty rounds before the Yosemite Athletic Club April 25. They are to box under Marquis of Queensberry rules, and must weigh in at 133 pounds at 2 o'clock the day of the contest. They will receive 50 per cent. of the gross receipts of the house; 60 per cent. to go to the winner and 40 per cent. to the loser. They agree to post $1000 each as a guarantee of weight and appearance. The referee is to be mutually agreed upon at least twelve days before the contest.

Britt has gone to Harbin Springs and White will train at Larkspur.

Keeping Memorial Day Sacred.

Winner h., c., 5, Joe Ripley-Salonica. Trained by R. Flaherty.
Ripper showed most speed throughout; was taken shortest route, winning with plenty to spare. Lowaway easily wore down Lowery final eighth, finishing fast on own courage. Lowery tired badly last sixteenth. Canejo hampered by incompetent ride. Dotiful refused to extend; further entry refused.

FIGHT DECISION A QUEER ONE.

LOCAL SPORTS SHOCKED BY THE RULING.

Greggains's Love for Hart Given as Reason for Referee's Act—Bulletin Account Received Here Told of Black's Easy Lead—Johnson Coin Hard to Place.

The sporting public received a hard jolt Tuesday night in the defeat of Jack Johnson in San Francisco by Marvin Hart, and aside from having their confidence in human nature rudely shaken, a number of the wise ones dropped a little money in remembrance of what referee Alex. Greggains can do when he is in the mood.

Johnson was thought such a sure winner in this part of the State that the odds were 10 to 4 in his favor, and money actually went begging on Johnson at those prices. It is doubtful if there is a Johnson man in twon who would have discounted his 10 to 4 bet in the eighteenth round, for the black had apparently all the best of it, and the announcement that Hart had been given the decison was a crusher. It is such decisions as there that have given the sport a black eye in San Francisco.

The result of the fight has raised the suspicion in the minds of some of the sports that Johnson didn't try to win, on the assumption that he could make more money by losing at the odds on him, but this is hardly likely in view of the fact that the black had all the best of the fight in the reports sent here. The general opinion here is that Greggains gave the fight to Hart to boost him for a chance at Jeffries, but no club in the country except Greggains's own would think of giving even a purse of $1800 for a Jeffries-Hart fight.

OVERLOOKED BOMBARDIER.

HE SURPRISES THE TALENT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, March 29.—The talent overlooked Bombardier in the handicap at Oakland today. He won from wire to wire. His price lengthened to 20 to 1 at post time, and he was never bothered. The favorite, Dr. Leggo, could not get up and had to be content with second money from Nigrette. The latter had all kinds of bad racing luck, and could never get to the front. Celeres flattered his backers to the stretch, and then blew up. The weather was clear and track good. Summary:

Four furlongs: Anchelita, 107 (Tooman,) 9 to 10, won; Southern Lady, 107 (Knapp,) 9 to 5, second; April's Pride, 107 (Jones,) 12 to 1, third; time 0:50½. Dangerous Girl, Avonella, Jake Moose, Santee and Yearning also ran.

Six furlongs: Baker, 109 (Knapp,) 8 to 1, won; Sincerity Belle, 99 (McBride,) even, second; Calculate, 104 (Fountain,) 20 to 1, third; time 1:18¾. Royal Red, Princess Zuln, Golden Buck, Glenstman, Grenore, Saccharate and Giacoma also ran.

Futurity course: Huiford, 106 (Bell,) even, won; Albemarle, 110 (Clark,) 25 to 1, second; Yellowstone, 112 (Otis,) 15 to 1, third; time 1:14. Trapsetter, Revolt and Silicate also ran.

Mile and an eighth: Bombardier, 100 (Clark,) 20 to 1, won; Dr. Leggo, 109 (Tooman,) 8 to 5, second; Nigrette, 105 (Knapp,) 16 to 5, third; time 1:54¾. Soufriere, Mindanao, Hans Wagner and Celeres also ran.

One mile: Andrew Mack, 105 (Travers,) even, won; Stillicho, 101 (Fountain,) 10 to 1, second; Hainault, 96 (Wright,) 11 to 5, third; time 1:43. Major Tenny, Handy Bill and Scherzo also ran.

Mile: Delagoa, 106 (Tooman,) 2 to 1, won; Magrane, 107 (Jones,) 5 to 1, second; Gateway, 107 (Belle,) 11 to 5, third; time 1:42. Judge also ran.

Bennings Results.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Six furlongs: Cantaloupe won, Raibert second, Port Arthur third; time 1:17 3-5.

Four furlongs: Tinkle won, Moonshine second, Cologne third; time 0:51.

Five and a half furlongs: Monte Carlo won, Gold Dome second, Yorkshire Lad third; time 1:09 1-5.

Five and a half furlongs: Ninus squaw won, Stepaway second, Roy Window third; time 1:10 2-5.

Seven furlongs: Lord Aintree won, Miss Modesty second, Only One third; time 1:32.

City Park Fatalities.

NEW ORLEANS, March 29.—The rain which fell last night made the City Park track heavy and holding. Yesterday Corrigan's 3-year-old colt Keno broke his leg and was destroyed. Today, C. T. Henshall's 5-year-old brown gelding Fossil died of congestion. Results:

Five and a half furlongs: Sid Silver won, Willies second, The Don third; time 1:10 1-5.

Six furlongs: Nerwood Ohio won, Recreo second, Mrs. Bob third; time 1:19.

Six furlongs: Prestige won, Darius second, Kilts third; time 1:18 2-5.

Nine furlongs: Attilia won, Doeskin second, Ada M. third; time 2:00.

SEASON OPENS.

BIG DOINGS TO COME.

The Coast League baseball season opens today at Chutes Park with the Portland Whitesox playing the locals the first of a series of four games.

The usual automobile parade will form at the City Hall and proceed to the ball park via the principal thoroughfares, all participants being admitted free. Mayor McAleer will pitch the first ball, a job for which he should be well qualified, as the game runs in that family—witness the Mayor's brother, Jimmy McAleer, manager of the St. Louis Browns, and one of the greatest fielders ever produced.

The teams will probably bat about as follows:

BUSINESS.

The speculative demand at New York was restrained by the immediate outlook in the money market, which was such as to threaten inconvenience to borrowers dependent on all loans. The immediate influence on the call money market was the placing of subscriptions for the $75,000,000 installment of the Japanese loan.

Interest of Chicago traders yesterday centered in the corn pit, and one prominent long is said to have handled three million bushels. May wheat closed at 1.12⅜ and July at .89½@.89⅝.

A DIPLOMATIC STROKE.

Once more President Roosevelt has grasped the nettle of diplomatic difficulty with fearless hand. The Senate had deferred action on the Santo Domingo protocol submitted for its consideration with the pointed hint that an immediate decision was necessary, thus deliberately hanging the matter up until Congress reassembles in the fall. Meanwhile affairs in the troubled republic have reached an acute crisis, revolution threatening within, the warships of interested European powers hovering in the offing. Under this double pressure of foreign creditors and domestic peril, the Dominican government pleads that the proctol be put in provisional force during the period of interregnum caused by the delay of the United States Senate, and this arrangement President Roosevelt accepts in his usual abrupt and unfaltering manner. American citizens of trusted integrity and proved capacity will be placed in charge of the Dominican customhouses, the dues will be collected just as if the proctocol had the force of a treaty, and the money will be apportioned in accordance with its terms, 45 per cent. to the Dominican government and 55 per cent. to be held in trust for the republic's creditors by a New York bank.

The end to be gained is that until the Senate acts, no further complications shall arise. But there is no attempt in the President's procedure to force the Senate's hand. If the decision of the Senate is adverse, the money held in trust will be turned over to the Dominican government; if it is in favor of the treaty, so much cash will be immediately available for distribution among the creditors. Meanwhile, also—a very important consideration—time is afforded for a close and critical examination of all creditors' claims, their amount and the circumstances in which the indebtedness was incurred.

This provisional arrangement will terminate, as the President's closing words of instruction to the Department of State bluntly puts it, just "as soon as the Senate has acted one way or the other." It is a dramatic solution of the difficulty, a masterly way out of what seemed to be a hopeless impasse, which the country will cordially approve, as it cordially approved the equally prompt and fearless recognition of Panama's independence.

MEMORIAL DAY OBSERVANCES.

A bill has passed both houses of the Nebraska Legislature prohibiting sports on Memorial Day. It is stated that the Governor will sign the bill, making it a law.

There should be no necessity, in any State of this Union, for the enactment of a law to enforce the respectful observance of Memorial Day. The citizens of all the States should be both willing and glad to make of this day an occasion of sacred remembrance and of simple ceremonial in honor of the patriotic men who, nearly half a century ago, gave up their lives on many a bloody battlefield, in order that the great nation which we so love and cherish might live.

It is needless to discuss, at this time, what might have happened if the Union cause had failed. The results would have been destructive of national greatness, no less than of national unity, and the United States would have been barred from the position of world-wide influence and respect which it now enjoys among the great nations of the world.

How can any American worthy of the name do otherwise than to honor the names and the memories of those noble and self-sacrificing men who went forth to do battle for the life of the nation? The memory of their heroic deeds should be held as a sacred legacy to all the generations that shall follow, while this great republic which they saved endures upon the earth.

For some years past there has been a deplorable tendency among the younger men and boys of the present generation to make of Memorial Day a day of recreation and unseemly mirth. This tendency is wholly at variance with the spirit which should animate the occasion, and at variance with the purpose which led to the establishing of the day as a holiday (or holy day) throughout the land. When the day is made an occasion of boisterous rejoicing and of unrestrained recreation, with no token or respect or remembrance for the honored dead, it becomes a demonstration of disrespect for those to whose memory we owe all honor, all gratitude, all reverence.

The Nebraska statute, prohibiting all sports upon Memorial Day, is an embodied protest of a patriotic commonwealth against the practice of desecrating a day which ought to be sacredly and reverently observed. How much better it would be if baseball clubs, football teams, and all other sporting organizations, instead of playing games on Memorial Day, would tender their services to committees on arrangements, to aid in distributing flowers upon the graves of our fallen heroes, and upon the graves of all who sleep in our quiet cemeteries. Memorial Day, in its wider significance and its more general distribution of flowers, has become in a broader sense a day of remembrance and of loving tribute for all who, in their final sleep, are not forgotten by loved ones left behind.

As to the newly-enacted law in Nebraska, some doubt may reasonably be expressed as to whether its enforcement will be found altogether practicable. Unless there is a strong public sentiment in favor of its enforcement it will soon become practically a dead letter. But with the right public sentiment to support them, law officers can enforce such a law without difficulty. The upbuilding of a right public sentiment is one effective way to prevent the desecration of Memorial Day. Where such public sentiment exists, there is no need for laws to enforce a respectful observance of the day.

MR. BALFOUR SITS TIGHT.

In ordinary circumstances the defeat of a British ministry by the overwhelming vote of 254 against 2 would mean immediate resignation, the dissolution of Parliament, and a general election, and would also foreshadow a complete rout at the polls. But the vote of censure passed on Premier Balfour as announced by yesterday's cablegram will involve no such political cataclysm. It was but a barren victory for the Opposition, although the motion carried purports to record the formal condemnation of the Prime Minister's policy of fiscal retaliation.

The government simply ignored the attack, and refused to join in the discussion or to take any part in the voteing. This most unusual procedure was justified on three different grounds. In the first place Mr. Balfour has assumed, and maintained the attitude that the present Parliament has nothing whatever to do with the fiscal question. It was elected on other issues, and for other work. Only when the people have been called to vote on the subject of tariff reform, and have sent to Westminster men who represent the views of the constituencies on that particular issue, will Parliament be qualified to take up the task of tariff legislation. So all the barking of an Opposition eager to oust their rivals at the earliest possible moment falls on deaf ears.

In the second place the resolution condemning fiscal retaliation came from a private member. Had the responsible Opposition brought it forward, the challenge would have been met, and the attack repelled by speech and vote. But Mr. Balfour declined to treat guerrilla fighting as worthy of recognition. Thirdly, a vote practically on the identical issue, had been taken three weeks before, when Mr. Winston Churchill, who has crossed over from the Conservative to the Liberal side of the house, moved a resolution opposing preferential tariffs. On that occasion the full strength of the opposition was polled in a vote of 260, while the government mustered 302. So a further test was quite unnecessary, and the ministry, by leaving the renewed debate severely alone, were really protesting against the wanton waste of valuable parliamentary time.

The rainy season which will soon come to a close has not been materially different from other rainy reasons in California. The annual maximums of rainfall have run all the way from about three inches to about three feet, in different years, and they will probably continue to show like variations in future years. If anybody supposes that a person named Hatfield has had anything to do with this year's maximum, he certainly has a right to that opinion, although there is no evidence to sustain it.

One of the good features of the home-seekers' rush to California is the fact that a large proportion of the newcomers are farmers. While it is true that farming in California is somewhat different from farming in the East and Middle West, there is plenty of room here for the farmers who are coming, and it will not take long for them to "catch on."

Gov. Folk of Missouri threatens to call an extra session of the Legislature of that State to remedy a defect in the law against pool selling and race-track gambling. The most glaring defect in the California Anti-gambling Bill was the fact that the Legislature did not pass it. How would it do for Gov. Pardee to call an extra session of the California Legislature to remedy this defect?

The gossip about Bishop Conaty going to Boston to be coadjutor to Archbishop Williams makes Los Angeles Catholics uneasy. No such appointment has been made and the rumor evidently is without authority, but the fact that such a change is among the possibilities is enough to disturb the Bishop's thousands of admirers in this city, who would be pained if Boston should carry him off.

The fact that Cassie Chadwick's forthcoming autobiography is to be printed exactly as she writes it, without addition, subtraction or expurgation, is expected to add somewhat to the gayety of nations, and incidentally to bring Cassie a little pin money, which she may need before the expiration of her ten years' sentence.

Our esteemed friend, the Hon. Mr. Kang, apparently is suffering from a surfeit of brass buttons. What to do with so many generals of an imaginary army—that is what's now keeping Mr. Kang awake o' nights. Capt. O'Bannon to the rescue! One of the most interesting figures among the few survivors of the most interesting days of Southern California is removed by the death of Mrs. Ysabel del Valle. What a fragrant memory of sweet personality she leaves behind, as well as rich treasures of historic association!

And now they are dying of sunstroke in Pittsburgh. Some of the good people of that burg have not yet recovered from the effects of recent blizzards. Extremes often meet, but it is a bit uncomfortable when they meet in such a way.

Los Angeles is thirty millions richer than one year ago, says the City Assessor. Keep the news away from the Council! Taxes have a way of beating valuation in the race.

It will be eminently proper for the Coroner to make a most searching investigation into the death of Miss Birtwhistle from reckless automobile driving.

It is easy enough to get out of serving on the jury in the Tom Hays case. With a police court jury, though, anything goes.

BITS OF VERSE.

Why Women Never Age.

The women, God bless them!
They're never at rest;
Ah! resting brings rust
To corrode and molest.
They're always caressing, or pressing, or dressing
Pursuing their sewing or doing
Their best.
The women, good cheer to
Their restless delight!
They shop all the day
And they dance all the night.
They are always tripping, or snipping, or clipping,
Pursuing their fadding and gadding,
But bright.
The women, God keep them!
They're truer than gold;
They're warm in the winter,
In summer they're cold.
And that is the reason, and it isn't treason,
To say why they never, ah! never Grow old.

By a Sufferer.

The marble-browed masters of science
Who potter with cultures and germs
And seem to place so much reliance
On most unpronounceable terms,
Who chase to its lair the bacillus
And microbes with feelers and horns,
They won't touch the things that half kill us.
Why don't they do something for corns?

The germs that make the people hysteric,
The germs that cause rabies and gout,
The serums for symptoms diphtheric,
They are always fussing about.
But these in the flesh, to my notion,
Are merely occasional thorns,
If only they'd get up a lotion
Or virus to knock out our corns!

That corns are humanity's curse all
Who've given them thought must agree;
What's more, they are quite universal,
Great Scott! How they're bothering me!
They might neglect ptomaines and phthisis,
Whose research their science adorns,
But matters are reaching a crisis,
Why don't they do something for corns?

The Rev. Charles H. Marshall, rector of St. Barnabas's Church, a lifelong acquaintance of the late Edward O. Wolcott, is the only man in Denver today who was present when the Senator made his maiden speech to a jury.

Mr. Marshall and Senator Wolcott were boyhood friends in Georgetown, Col., where the latter first practiced law. Wolcott had his office in a wing of Mr. Marshall's father's house. In the rear of the office Wolcott had his sleeping apartments.

"It was back in 1874, I believe," said Mr. Marshall, "in the spring of the year, if I am not mistaken. 'Ed,' as we all called him, came to me one day and said, 'Charley, I am going to make my first address to a jury today. I want you to go with me.' Of course," continued Mr. Marshall. "I went.

"Ed's turn came at last. He got up, looked the jury over, uttered a few words, closing abruptly with the remark, 'Your Honor and gentlemen of the jury, my thoughts are too rapid for my tongue.' Trembling like a leaf, white to his very lips, Wolcott sat down.

"The Judge, I have forgotten his name, looked at Wolcott, a tender, fatherly expression on his face, and said, 'Young man, it's all right. Try again.'

"That evening, on the way home, Wolcott made but one remark, 'Charley, I failed today, but some day I'll show them I can speak.' From that day on Wolcott studied and practiced oratory."—[Denver News.

A Female Horse Buyer.

Among passengers who sailed for the north on the Alaska Steamship Company's Lynn Canal liner Dolphin yesterday morning was Mrs. J. A. Cleveland, who with her husband runs the opposition stage line from White Horse to Dawson. All during the winter Mrs. Cleveland has been making trips between the north and this city for the purpose of purchasing horses.

On nearly every one of the Lynn Canal liners which have sailed during the past few months has gone a consignment of the animals purchased by Mrs. Cleveland. During this time she has become well known by local horse traders who long ago gave up trying any of their wiles upon their fair customer, as they soon found out that her judgment, so far as horses was concerned, was as keen as their own.—[Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

SOU' BY SOU'WEST.

Compressing 300,000 newspapers by hydraulic machinery, an Austrian inventor has constructed a yacht of the material thus obtained, complete in every detail and no less than sixteen feet in length. Everything about the little vessel is of paper—not only the hull, but the masts and even the sails. The Paris Auto vouches for the fact that the yacht is not a mere toy, but a real vessel, capable of fulfilling all the requirements of any ship of similar size.—[Phoenix Gazette.

We have heard, in our simple rural way, of ships that reeled, vessels that lurched and boats that staggered, but we never expected to meet up with a craft that was 300,000 sheets in the wind. As in the case of the purple cow, we can only say that we'd "rather see than be one."

"Piece Gained by Yielding to God" is the bold-type heading given by the El Paso Herald to an item of sermonic news in a recent issue. Would the editor please be a little more definite. We might want some.

Phoenix, the amphitheatrical metropolis of rain-soaked Territory of Arizona, revels in the proud possession of a government wet-weather observer whose name is Jesunufsky. But even so, we're not going to "lay down" under any old invidious comparison that emanates from an appellation of hybridized nationality in official circles. We've got a 'Nufsky of our own, when it comes to thatsky.

"A well-read yellow newspaper printed in green should make a person feel blue," remarks the Douglas Dispatch, perhaps alluding to the St. Patrick's Day edition of a certain El Paso contemporary. Here in Los Angeles we have a yellow newspaper whose owner is blue because its editors are too green to turn out a sheet that is read. Ain't it h——ahem!

George Thompson, who was injured by having a piano fall from a wagon on to him, as was stated in these columns yesterday, is resting as easily as could be expected.—[Tombstone Prospector.

Isn't it about time that phrase gave way in the medicos' vocabulary to one less idiotic? A second-hand Arizona piano, probably acquired on the instalment plan gets tired of supporting deferred payments and falls "on to" a person. Three of his ribs are splintered, collarbone's dislocated, one arm fractured and another broken, four toes pinched off, knee-cap permanently disarranged, spinal column put out of business, nose smashed—and next day he's "resting as easily as could be expected." Chap falls off a nine-story building, or leans up against a buzz-saw that's hurrying, or makes the mistake of thinking he has some rights on the street because an automobile doesn't happen to be in sight, and the doctors tie him up in bandages to keep what's left of him from falling apart. Next day he's "resting as easily as could be expected." They haven't any right to slander a man that way behind his back when he's helpless.

The Mexican dollar continues its downward tendency, being absolutely without any demand.—[Mexican Herald, market report.

In the United States we don't have our dollars bandied about, "without price in London and held at 44⅜ in New York." Dollars are worth 100 cents in this country—thanks to a stable government and a people whose majority is sane.

"There is no bad soil; we have no useless American acres; we will make them all productive," says Secretary of Agriculture Wilson anent the great irrigation work undertaken by the government, to be supplemented in the Southwest by the introduction of drought-resisting plant life in arid reaches where water for irrigating cannot be obtained.

The department mentioned has agricultural explorers in many far corners of the world, and from them comes report that they are finding plants and grasses which have become so acclimatized to excessively dry conditions that they need only transplanting to become to us in the Southwest thriving and remunerative "desert crops." Says Secretary Wilson: "We shall cover our arid lands with plant life of various sorts which will yield hundreds of millions of tons of additional forage and grain for western flocks and herds. Our farmers will grow this on land now considered worthless." Glad tidings, these. Year by year the great Southwest is reaching wider its mighty arms to "gather the wanderers in."

DELIGHTS OF OUTDOOR LIFE.

THE APRIL MAGAZINES HAVE A SPRINGTIME FLAVOR.

Andrew Jackson as a Farmer. Butterfly Collecting—As to the Care of the Garden—Topics of the Time. The Remaking of Boston—Digging the Canal.

All the April magazines have more or less the flavor of the springtime. Country Life in America is devoted especially to outdoor matters, the Garden Magazine is a "planting" number, while The World's Work contains a comprehensive record of the stirring events of the day. Extracts from the publications named which follow will be found of interest:

COUNTRY LIFE IN AMERICA.

In an article on the training of a polo pony, Arthur H. Gleason says: "The method of schooling is this. Three raw but promising ponies are each held at the head by a groom—the wildest pony being the middle one. Then the end horse is walked in circles around the other two, and these in turn are handled in the same way. The total effect is that of making figure eights. Also, the ponies are led between closely planted stakes which they brush first on one side and then on the other. This schools them to the impact of body against body which is constant in the game, and which must be met unswervingly. Later, the rider on the horses's back begins to carry the polo stick, and makes slow, unnervous motions as if pushing the ball away from the horse. Then the speed of the stroke and the variety of the motions are increased till the result is polo itself. There is no royal road to learning the game of polo, but there is a plebeian way that leads straight to its secrets. Let the novice get on an old broken-down polo pony that knows the game all the way through from a lifetime of playing. Then the pony will play the game for him and will be his teacher. The learner will start in with a few strokes of his mallet till his seat and guidance are assured, later his aim and strength of stroke, and gradually he will work into regular play. Then like other faithful teachers, the wise old horse will be superseded, but his work will live."

FARMER IN THE WHITE HOUSE.

Writing of Andrew Jackson's home life, Oliver Bronson Capen says: "Mrs. Jackson died just before the general's first administration, and during the eight years that he was at the White House he practically managed the plantation himself from Washington. As a farmer Andrew Jackson was more successful than George Washington, and as a breeder of horses he was more successful than Henry Clay, and yet, so great were his achievements in pursuits as far removed from the pastoral as the poles, that popular tradition does not reckon with one of the most important sides of his character. Lawyer, politician, judge, statesman, soldier—closer to his heart than all of these were a country home and a farm. Jackson raced his horses, and writers of the period have said that the great stallion Truxton never lost a two-mile race while he was in his prime, and that he begot more than 400 colts that were alike victorious throughout the South. Jackson had a private race track about two miles west of the Hermitage, on the road to Nashville.

BUTTERFLY COLLECTING.

An excellent idea of the excitement of butterfly collecting can be learned from the article by Payne Mariyn. "The annals of collectors are silvertined with incidents beside which storming Troy was an innocuous proceeding," writes Mr. Mariyn. "One species flutters around where cannibals most do congregate. The verified history of trade shows that some species have been valued like rubies. For years the Drurya antimachus was the heart's desire of the butterfly world. The late Mr. Neumoegen, the New York banker, paid $670 for his first male specimen of this beautiful large red-winged butterfly, and $300 for his second specimen. Today the species can be had for $5 apisce, coming like the first finds, all the way from the interior of German Africa. That second specimen had a brief chronicle attached. The negro that fought his way inland and threw gauze over it had been told that $400 was the price on its head. In shipment the butterfly was damaged, $50 being imperfect, $100 was knocked off its value. Fifty dollars was the cost of a perfect specimen of Ornithoptera paradisea, out of New Guinea. But explorers have grown bold, and now we may plaque our walls for $10 a "fly," and for a Washington species of Sphinx (belonging to the moth tribe) Walter Rothschild paid $150."

TORTURING PIGEONS.

Instances are not lacking where pigeons, with all their lightning-change developments, have been found too slow for the purposes of the type desired, and the fancier has altered nature, says Alfred H. Goodwin. There have been occasions when the beak of the Almond Shortfaced Tumbler and the lower mandible of the Turbit were thumbed back and pulled down to give a diminished beak and the overhang of the brow. The bird is then voiceless, and cannot express pain. And Dragons, whose glory is the regular wattling of the beak and the round and even cere of the eye, are sometimes massaged, when the skin sprouts—the budding flesh being worked back into the smooth surface.

ANI-HAT PLUME CRUSADE.

Herbert K. Job, the famous nature photographer and writer, tells how he visited what is perhaps the last large remaining egret rookery in North America. It is from these birds that women's hat plumes are taken. Each year 200,000 of these white herons are shot down in the sacred name of millinery.

It should be understood at the outset that these plumes—which are variously called by milliners "aigrettes," "stubs" or "ospreys," and are dyed to whatever color is fashionable—are borne by herons, and that only during the nuptial season, and can be secured only by shooting the birds when they have assembled in colonies to breed, when their usual shynes has departed, owing to the strength of the parental instinct. Returning to their nests, they are shot down and their young are left to starve.

Let it be nailed as a trade lie that these plumes are secured in any other way. In all my explorations of these rookeries I have found but one solitary "aigrette" feather, badly worn at that. It is inconceivable, impossible that any one could find them in paying quantities, scattered about in these morasses and jungles. Neither are they manufactured. This lie has also been "nailed," as when recently a leading firm in England—for whom the claim has been made—although challenged to show one single manufactured plume, was unable to do so. Manufactured aigrettes and hens' teeth belong to the same class.

THE GARDEN MAGAZINE.

Run the rows the short way, for convenience in cultivation and because 100 feet of anything is enough.

Put the permanent vegetables (asparagus, rhubarb, sweet herbs) in a row at one side, so that the rest will be easy to plow.

Practice rotation. Do not put vines where they were last. Put corn in a different place. The other important groups are root crops (including potato and onion,) cabbage tribe; peas and beans; tomato, eggplant, and pepper; salad plants.

FRONT-YARD PLANTING.

The very commonest mistake is to fill one's front yard with all sorts of highly colored abnormal things—variegated elder, purple-leaved plum, weeping willow, double-flowered almonds, smoke tree, cut-leaved maple, red-flowered horse-chestnut and that piercingly magenta outrage on the opprobrious Anthony Waterer. Often you will see all these things in one small yard. It is just as bad to cover one's lawn with such things as to sprinkle fourteen kinds of spice all over one's food. Use native kinds chiefly, or species that fit into our landscape. The "horticultural forms" are only for accent. Don't scatter shrubs or plants of any kind over a lawn. Avoid isolated specimens. Group them. Shrubs are for the borders of a place. Don't plant one of each in a long row. You will get a much better effect by having a big solid mass of one or few things in the background, with whatever spice in front you think necessary. Don't plant shrubs in straight lines, because straight lines are not the rule of nature. If you hire a man to plant, and fail to watch him, he will surey set your plants in straight lines.

JAPANESE SNOWBALLS.

The good old-fashioned snowball that used to be in every yard is probably doomed. The aphides or plant lice cause the leave to curl so that they lose their beauty, and the flowers are not nearly as large as they should be. People could spray them, but they won't. Its place will be taken by the Japanese snowball, which has a smaller flower, but better foliage and habit. The common snowball does not make fruit, but the single form has scarlet fruits which are beautiful from August through the winter and are not eaten by birds. Those of the Japanese species begin to color by the end of July and are most attractive in their scarlet stage before they turn to bluish black. There are twenty-six other species of Viburnum worth cultivating, and most of them beautiful in flower, fruit, and autumn colors.

GROW YOUR OWN SPONGES.

The vegetable sponges that are commonly sold in drug stores and used in the bathroom are produced by a bine like a cucumber which anyone may grow in his garden. In tropical countries these vegetable sponges are often used for dishrags (being particularly useful for scouring pans and kettles,) and it has been suggested that house wives in the North should "grow their own dishrags," since a clean sponge could be used for each dishwashing performance and then thrown away, thus relegating to history the rubbing out of greasy cloth.

FLOWERS ON BUSHES.

We want shrubs on every home place in America because they furnish more flowers for less money and care and for a longer period of years than any other plants. True, some trees have big flowers and lots of them, but they are higher up in the air, while a bush is just where you can see it and smell it. Shrubs are more permanent than "perennials" and they are nothing like the bother annuals are. You plant trees for posterity but shrubs for yourself also. You get flowers the second year, if you pay a decent price, and if you go away for a summer, the place does not look like an abandoned home. The plain truth is that a home without shrubbery is all wrong. Shrubbery is just as necessary to a place as clothing to a man. Nine times out of ten the straight line where a building meets the ground should be hidden by shrubs.

JOY OF THE AMATEUR.

Small fruits are the joy for the amateur gardener. They are as easy to grow as vegetables, they take little space, and they give quick results. The man who has only a city or suburban lot can hardly afford to give any of his valuable space to the culture of tree fruits. Moreover, tree fruits do not come into bearing until three to ten years from planting. The home-maker can get results the second and third years with small fruits.

THE WORLD'S WORK.

The public has the notion, whether right or wrong, that in the making of loans and investments with insurance companies' money officers and directors get indirect, if not direct, profits. Even these great companies (not to speak of lesser ones) will never enjoy quite the degree of public confidence that they ought to have until it is made plain that they are managed and safeguarded as savings banks are. The public feels now that the great insurance companies are safe chiefly because of their colossal size; but it feels also that their management is too closely identified with great speculative enterprises and that the money of policy holders is used in financial games where incidental personal profits are got.

The main point is here. The distinguished and able members of the boards of all the large life-insurance companies directly represent railroads, trust companies, great industrial companies, and the like, which are at times large borrowers of money. And some of them invest these loans in speculative enterprises. The men who, as representatives of the insurance companies, vote some of these loans, profit by them as members of trust companies, and the like. In other words, the savings of the people (for insurance is only a form of saving) have thus become a large part of the capital that is used in the colossal games of Wall-street finance. A small group of men by this machinery control more than a thousand millions of dollars that go to make up the assets of only three of the largest life-insurance companies which have their headquarters in New York.

DEBRIS OF A WORLD'S FAIR.

On a bid of 450,000 a Chicago company has bought, and is removing, buildings, the material and construction of which cost $14,000,000. This includes all the physical property of the exposition company except the intramural cars and street-railway equipment, which were sold to the St. Louis Car Company for $150,000, the Palace of Liberal Arts, which is to be permanent, and a few minor structures.

Thus the company has come into possession of 100,000,000 square feet of good building lumber; 200,000 square feet of sash lumber; 10,000 doors; 1,200,000 square feet of glass skylights; 3,000,000 square feet of iron and felt roofing; 4,000,000 square feet of burlap for wall covering; 500,000 incandescent lights, and copper wire which cost $650,000. Among its assets are two hospitals complete in all modern equipments; three greenhouses ready for utilization anywhere, each 200 feet long, with many sorts of plants and flowers; a fire department big enough for a city of 50,000 inhabitants, comprising nine engines and 100,000 feet of rubber hose; thousands of chairs of all sorts; miles of iron picket and woven-wire fences; hundreds of desks; wagons, dump cars, and steam rollers enough to fit up a dozen good-roads societies, and many other sorts of paraphernal'a.

Out of the structures, equipments, and furnishings of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition a good-sized city could be built. The débris would construct half a dozen fairs like that of Buffalo in 1901, or that which is open in Portland, Or., in June, 1905.

RIVER DIVIDES A LIBRARY.

Mr. Carnegie believes in home rule in all matters pertaining to the location and conduct of buildings. But sometimes complications arise, as in the case of a city through which a river flows. Then there is a controversy as to which side shall have the library. This happened at Waterloo, Iowa. The city met the usual requirement for location, but a discussion arose between two factions representing the people on both sides of the river. Neither side would give in. Finally a compromise was effected, by which it was agreed to build the library in the middle of the river. When Mr. Carnegie heard of this, he good-naturedly decided to end the controversy by giving money for a library on each side of the river.

WOMEN'S CLUBS.

Reciprocity Day.

The first reciprocity day held in California, and possibly in the [illegible] was conducted yesterday, at the Los Angeles Congregational Church, by the Wednesday Morning Club.

It was an unqualified success. A rain only delayed matters a bit, and representatives from fifty out of fifty-four clubs of the Los Angeles district responded to the call to spend the whole day in the consideration of the subject of "Home."

The result included many and various opinions, from many and varied standpoints, and revealing the cheering fact, that the home is now, as it has ever been, the central fact, in a woman's life, in a club woman's life, and the clubs are valuable as a means to bring their broadening and uplifting influences into the home.

Mrs. W. D. Turner, president of the Pasadena Shakespeare Club, who read one of the fine papers of the day, on "Reflex Action Upon the Home of Woman, Altruistic Work," said, "The club has turned upon the home the light of science and investigation, and the fact stands that the homes of club women are the best kept of homes in the land, and their children are the most rationally trained."

"What woman" continued Mrs. [illegible] ser, "will continue to live in her [illegible] satisfactions, and her smaller [illegible] old worries when through the [illegible] of work of the club she has [illegible] upon the grist of the world? Will [illegible] regard the lack of a new bonnet [illegible] new gown as a vital thing when [illegible] soul has been illumined in helping [illegible] work out the life problems of the [illegible] and oppressed?"

Mrs. H. E. Gower, president of the Wednesday Morning Club who presided, said at the close of the day that the only grave mistake they had made was in not asking the men to come to this clearinghouse of opinions about the home.

Mrs. Gower gave a graceful and humorous welcome at the opening of the proceedings, the invocation being pronounced by Rev. Frank S. Porter. Mrs. Joslah Evans Cowles gave greetings from the State Federation in her usual happy vein, and this was followed by an address by Mrs. Flore[illegible] Collins Porter, upon "The Building of a Home."

Many prominent club women, presidents of each club represented, and the delegate sent, expressed an opinion in condensed form as to the essentials of a home.

Mrs. Griffith of the Federated W.C.T.U. of Los Angeles, thought the parents educated for their responsibilities are essential. Mrs. Richeson of Long Beach thought the first essential is common sense. "The keynote of every home should be the responsibility and cooperation of every member within it," said Mrs. Lou V. Chapin; "and it is the duty of every woman to be economical, for wastefulness causes as much misery as a nagging disposition."

Mrs. Sexton came all the way from Santa Barbara to attend the session, and her advice was "contentment." Mrs. Dickinson of the Ebell of Los Angeles, thought that "love" is the chief essential. The representative of the Tuesday Club of Ventura was of the opinion that "attractive surroundings and plenty of children" are necessary, and she quoted the opinion of one Jane, a serving maid of forty years' experience whose recipe was: "Never argue with a man in his home; let him talk all he pleases, and when he is done do as you please."

Another club thought that [illegible] might be a means of grace in the home. Mrs. Rice of the Shakespeare Club advised equality and courtesy. Mrs. Anna S. Averill had some good things to say, and Mrs. Kate Tupper Galpin said in her address that the true measure of a home is the manhood and womanhood growing up in it.

One of the fine things of the day was a paper by Mrs. J. O. Lowe on "The Influence of Music in the Home," and this was followed by the rendering of Mrs. Abbie Neff Jaeckel's "Cradle Song by Mrs. Godsmark, with accompaniment by Mrs. Jamison. Other music was rendered during the day, by the music section of the Wednesday Morning Club, by the Sunny Southland Trio, and by the Ariel Quartette. Mrs. Oliver C. Bryant, president of the Los Angeles district gave greetings in the afternoon, and the recently appointed district chairmen were invited to the platform.

Mrs. Owen McAleer was introduced to the visitors of the club as the power behind the throne from which so much is hoped for the betterment of Reciprocity Day.

The first reciprocity day held in California, and possibly in the West, was conducted yesterday, at the East Los Angeles Congregational Church, by the Wednesday Morning Club.

It was an unqualified success. The rain only delayed matters a bit, and representatives from fifty out of the fifty-four clubs of the Los Angeles district responded to the call to spend a whole day in the consideration of the subject of "Home."

The result included many and various opinions, from many and various standpoints, and revealing the cheering fact, that the home is now, as it has ever been, the central fact, in a woman's life, in a club woman's life, and the clubs are valuable as they bring their broadening and uplifting influences into the home.

Mrs. H. E. Gower, president of the Wednesday Morning Club who presided, said at the close of the day that its only grave mistake they had made was in not asking the men to come to its clearinghouse of opinions about the home.

Mrs. Gower gave a graceful and generous welcome at the opening of the proceedings, the invocation being pronounced by Rev. Frank S. Forbes, Mrs. Josiah Evans Cowles gave greetings from the State Federation in her usual happy vein, and this was followed by an address by Mrs. Florence Dolson Porter, upon "The Building of a Home."

Many prominent club women, the presidents of each club represented, or the delegate sent, expressed an opinion in condensed form as to the essentials of a home.

Mrs. Griffith of the Federated W.C.T.U. of Los Angeles, thought that parents educated for their responsibilities are essential. Mrs. Titchenor of Long Beach thought the first essential, is common sense. "The keynote of every home should be the responsibility and cooperation of every member within it," said Mrs. Lou V. Chapin, "and it is the duty of every woman to be economical, for wastefulness causes as much misery as a nagging disposition."

Mrs. Sexton came all the way from Santa Barbara to attend the sessions, and her advice was "contentment."

Mrs. Dickinson of the Ebell of Los Angeles, thought that "love" is the chief essential. The representative of the Tuesday Club of Ventura was of the opinion that "attractive surroundings and plenty of children" are necessary and she quoted the opinion of one, Jane, a serving maid of forty years experience whose motto was: "Never argue with a man in his home; let him talk all he pleases, and when he is gone do as you please."

Another club thought that soap might be a means of grace in the home. Mrs. Rice of the Shakespeare Club advised equality and courtesy. Mrs. Anna S. Averill had some good things to say, and Mrs. Kate Tupper Galpin said in her address that the true measure of a home is the manhood and womanhood growing up in it.

One of the fine things of the day was a paper by Mrs. J. O. Lowe on "The Influence of Music in the Home," and this was followed by the rendering of Mrs. Abbie Norton Jamison's Cradle Song by Mrs. Godsmark, with accompaniment by Mrs. Jamison. Other music was rendered during the day, by the music section of the Wednesday Morning Club, by the Sunny Southland trio, and by the Ariel Quartette. Mrs. Oliver C. Bryant, president of the Los Angeles district gave greetings in the afternoon, and the recently appointed district chairmen were invited to the platform.

Mrs. Owen McAleer was introduced to the visitors of the club as the power behind the throne from which so much is hoped for the betterment of the city, and as someone remarked, "Mrs. McAleer has the making of a politician" for she thanked them briefly and to the point for the message of commendation and approval which was despatched to the Mayor from the ladies of reciprocity day.

Not least among all the events was the elegant luncheon served by the Wednesday Morning Club to nearly 150 visitors and friends. The tables were exquisitely adorned with purple ribbons threading the centers and twined with plumy ferns, while upon the place cards were great purple pansies and all about the large room was the artistic adornment of flowers and the tracery of green and white upon violet backgrounds.

The toast mistress, Mrs. Henry E. Brett called forth much merry wit and wisdom to enliven the luncheon. The following toasts were given: "Our Acquaintances and Friends," Mrs. J. M. Armstrong; "For the Club Woman, Yesterday and the Day After Tomorrow," Mrs. J. E. Cowles; "Such Stuff as Dreams are Made Of," Mrs. Adelaide Tichenor; "The First Reciprocity Day," Mrs. H. E. Gower; "The Men of the Household, or the Club Brother-in-law," Mrs. Lou V. Chapin; and "The Mellowing of the Occasion," by Mrs. Averill. Others responding were Mrs. Emma J. Longley of South Pasadena, Mrs. Adam Fisher, Mrs. M. A. Kenny, Mrs. Gordon-Norman, Mrs. Oliver C. Bryant.

Mrs. Frank E. Prior was the chairman of the committee who arranged for the reciprocity day.

District Federation.

Mrs. Oliver C. Bryant, president of the Los Angeles District of Women's Clubs, has just appointed chairmen for the various departments of work undertaken by the district federation.

Mrs. Matthew Robertson has again been placed in charge of Club Extension, and Mrs. O. Shepherd Barnum of Household Economics. Mrs. Willoughby Rodman has been appointed to the Department of Civics; Mrs. Andrew Stuart Lobengier, to Education; and a recent acquisition to the Ebell, Mrs. W. A. Dickinson, to the department of Libraries and Portfolios.

Four departments are yet without leaders, as the club women to whom the positions have been offered, have not been heard from. These are the newly-created department of Art, History and Landmarks, Reciprocity and Forestry.

Victory for Kansas.

Kansas has already won a great victory over the Standard Oil Company. The trust has decided not to wait until it is driven out of the State, but to go of its own accord. It faced the alternative of quitting Kansas or doing business on a fair scale and thus giving the public an illustration of competitive business as compared with the monopolistic system. The Standard Company is not particularly desirous of having such a demonstration at this time.—Kansas City Times.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.)

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, March 29.—Letters received from the University of California intimate that the faculty of that institution will not permit the intercollegiate regatta to be held at Stockton or elsewhere at a distance from their campus. If the race cannot be held at Stockton it is probable that there will be no intercollegiate regatta this year, as there is now no time to investigate new courses. Last week the University of California proposed a three-cornered regatta between Stanford, Washington and herself, but Stanford has declined to enter such a contest, as the only available course for a three-crew race is on the Oakland estuary.

Assistant Prof. C. C. Rice of the department of Romanic languages has been obliged by ill health to give up his position and return to his home in Texas.

J. F. Newsom, associate professor of mining and metallurgy, has taken a leave of absence and has gone to Mexico to make investigations concerning different mining processes and to secure data on the geology of Mexico for use in connection with courses given in his department. Prof. Newsom will probably not return to the university until next fall.

The training table for the track team has recently been started at the University Inn. At present there are twenty-two men at the table, but these will probably be added to from time to time, as other men improve their records.

Expansion Sale

Underpriced Upholstery

In some instances the prices are cut to force an early clearance of short lots, in other cases the prices are made possible by our buyer's good fortune in picking up certain lots at half their real worth.

Drapery Stuffs

Imported Sultana cross-stripe silks for overdrapes; practical and artistic—they add beauty wherever they go; 30-inch width; regularly $2 a yard, now $1.50, and the $1.25 grade $1.00.

$5 and $6 Table Covers $3

Curtains Some at half

Fine mesh Nottingham woven curtains with plain centers and dainty borders—much prettier and more artistic than the old-fashioned Nottingham, 50-inch width. Both ecru and white. Sold regularly at $2.00 a pair; now $1.

Strong mesh lace curtains in both plain and dainty figured centers—latest designs in ecru and white; 50 inches wide; regularly $3.50 a pair; now $1.50.

Bed Spreads Reduced

"Great values" news from the Bedding Department: truly some of the prices below are about what the ordinary dealer pays as his cost price. But this department is not an ordinary one, and its success is due in no small measure to such splendid money-savings as we offer today:

A New Corset Cover

Light materials need more help toward shapeliness than heavy ones, so for use with summer shirt waists we've secured a new slip-over ruffled corset cover, made of cambric, with three hemstitched lawn ruffles; by all odds the best fitting and most approved style now on the market; fifty cents.

Eiderdown Robes $4

A beautiful line of $6 and $7 Eiderdown robes — practical garments for house wear which guard against chilly mornings and give grace and comfort to the wearer—must be sold at once to make room for spring stocks. Colors are red, gray or pink, and cord and satin trimmings add to their effectiveness. Marked at $4 for your choice.

Summery Goods at Summary Prices

Your summer comfort depends not a little upon fabrics that will go in the wash and come out fresh and crisp.. Those we speak of today are of that sort, and underpriced when most wanted.

Mercerized sateens, 32 inches wide, in a variety of designs—black or navy grounds, showing dots, figures and stripes of white—regularly 25c, but about 45 pieces may go at 17½c a yard.

Scotch madras and cheviots, Wm. Anderson's highest 50c and 75c qualities, bought so that we can sell them at 25c a yard. Many attractive patterns.

$2.25 Dress Goods $1

An opportune chance to secure fashionable materials much under price. Skirt and dress materials in every popular weave, in black, plain and fancy effects—and none that are not popular, because all are from this season's stocks. Light, medium and heavy fabrics for costumes or tailored suits, 42 to 56 inches wide, in pieces priced usually as high as $2.25, now a dollar a yard, during this sale.

Splendid Petticoats

The spring showing of silk petticoats is particularly attractive. Silk petticoats of Swiss taffeta, hemstitched pleated ruffle and extra dust ruffle of silk, cut amply full, in reseda, hunter green, brown, navy and black, extra value at $6. $7.50: heavy quality changeable taffeta petticoats, assorted shades, having corded double gathered ruffle.

RIVER DIVIDES A LIBRARY.

Mr. Carnegie believes in home rule in all matters pertaining to the location and conduct of buildings. But sometimes complications arise, as in the case of a city through which a river flows. Then there is a controversy as to which side shall have the library. This happened at Waterloo, Iowa. The city met the usual requirement for taxation, but a discussion arose between the two factions representing the people on both sides of the river. Neither side would give in. Finally a compromise was effected, by which it was agreed to build the library in the middle of the river. When Mr. Carnegie heard of this, he good-naturedly decided to end the controversy by giving money for a library on each side of the river.

THE REMARKING OF BOSTON.

Rollin Lynde Hartt writes on the remaking of Boston. The curious incident below is quoted fro mthe article: "Not what shall self-adornment profit a city unless that city meanwhile wage continuous warfare against ugliness? Boston is fighting for a law to banish advertisers' billboards from the parkways, and the existing laws against skyscraping are enforced, literally, with a vengeance. Witness the demolished Westminster Chambers. Building in Copley Square may rise to a legal height of ninety feet—this to preserve the harmony of the general effect—and the wayward Westminster Chambers indulged in an additional six feet. Boston rose in its wrath, to set esthetic considerations in a Gorgonian rim of "puritanitis," and forced the owners of the Westminster to lop off the offending top story, to the outrage of proportion, but to the vindication of the majesty of the law. Esther a single instance of disfigurement from the sacrifice of a principle making for beauty!

DIGGING THE CANAL.

Regarding progress on the Panama Canal, Linden Bates, Jr., says: "What remains, we now know just about what will be done. The bottom width of the cut will be 200 feet and the depth 45 feet. The Suez Canal, averages 196 feet wide at the bottom and permits a draft of only 27 feet 10 inches, to be proved too small. Several of the great new battleships of the British navy can now go through it only with hard, and none of the larger freighters fully loaded, such as have proved most economical for the trans-Atlantic trade, could go through. Even the huge German liners trading to the Orient lose their steerageway and rudder against the sides. The Panama Canal will be able to admit even larger vessels. There must be one lock—a single-chamber, near Miraflores, and possibly at Bobio, to reduce excavation."

CANNOT BLUFF MR. ECKSTROM.

The Merchant Stands Firm for His Rights.

Wallpaper Man Stays and Sullivan Pays.

Another Los Angeles merchant with enough sand to stand firmly for his right to run his business in his own way without deference to the insulting "demands" of a gang of labor-union grafters, agitators and deluders of honest men, came to light yesterday noon in the person of A. A. Eckstrom, wall-paper dealer of South Spring street.

Mr. Eckstrom is one of those men who thinks he knows more about the conduct of his affairs than any aggregation of jawsmiths who never did an honest day's work in their lives and could not keep a job except by virtue of holding a union club over the heads of the weak-kneed.

Recently Eckstrom undertook a contract to paper the American saloon on South Main street. Considerable work had been done when he was notified by the proprietor, a sort of human jellyfish named Sam Sullivan, that he must put union men on the job as the walking delegates had threatened to boycott this booze palace.

Eckstrom's blood went up to the boiling point in a minute, as he has hooked up with the labor-union grafters many times before and beaten them to a frazzle. So he sent a message that the contract was his; that he would employ no union men in his shop, would run his business himself and as he saw fit.

The jawsmiths got busy with their tongues again, and Sullivan began to crawl. He realizes probably that the labor agitator trade is perhaps more valuable in the booze business than in most other lines, and was willing to prostitute the name on his place—the "American Bar"—in order to keep on getting that coin. So he "took water;" notified Eckstrom that the non-union men would have to go, and yesterday the wall-paper dealer called, refusing to quit unless he was paid in full for the entire job, though it is not yet half done. Sullivan agreed to pay him, and Eckstrom withdrew his force, allowing the jellyfish to hire whatever gang of grafting paste-gobblers he might see fit.

A certain lawsmith named Cliff, who is some kind of a factotum in the local paper hangers' union, and is said to be interested in a coöperative paper business here, did most of the talking to Sullivan.

The wall paper dealers of this city are organized into a protective association, of which A. A. Eckstrom is the president. They employ no union men, though they pay better than the union scale of wages.

GLAD HAND TO THE SENATOR.

EAST SIDE PEOPLE WELCOME FLINT HOME.

Pretty School Girls, Waving Banners and a Procession Features of the Return to Los Angeles—Enthusiastic Exercises in Eastlake Park, and a Patriotic Greeting.

It was a cordial welcome home that Senator Frank P. Flint received yesterday from his friends and neighbors of the East Side. "Welcome to our Frank" was the slogan emblazoned on banners that flaunted their folds over the main thoroughfares, and on the badges which adorned the garb of men, women and children.

In honor of the returning Senator large flags floated all along the line of march from the beginning of Downey avenue to Eastlake avenue, and thence onward to Eastlake Park. At Eastlake, in the center of the beautiful greensward to the south of the conservatory, a pretty tribune had been erected, and this was draped with the American colors, and bordered with palm leaves and a great profusion of callas. At this place the formal welcome was given.

Early in the morning the East Side reception committee and a company of about fifty close personal friends of Senator Flint left Los Angeles on a special train and met the Senator at Ventura. A committee of Oxnard citizens joined the train at that point, and at Ventura there was an informal welcome and a drive about the city.

On the homeward journey stops were made at Oxnard, Burbank and Tropico, and there were delegations with greetings and school children who presented flowers and sang patriotic songs.

At Arcade station in Los Angeles the company was met with carriages and a procession was formed, headed by the Playa del Rey band. A tour of the main business streets was made and the procession then moved to the East Side, where it was greeted with hearty cheers all along Downey avenue and Eastlake avenue.

Despite the flurries of rain and an outlook for a downpour at any moment, several hundred persons gathered at the park tribune and greeted the coming of Senator Flint with cheers and the waving of flags.

A guard of honor was formed of sixty girl pupils from the East Los Angeles schools, dressed in red, white and blue and representing the States, Territories and island possessions. They preceded the guest of honor to the platform, and after he had taken his position they carried through a series of beautiful evolutions and drills under the direction of Mrs. E. B. Gregory of Chicago.

Joseph Mesmer was chairman and spoke of the love and admiration of the citizens of Los Angeles for their neighbor and friend, the recently-elected Senator. "He has been honored by the people in the past," said Mr. Mesmer, "and has faithfully fulfilled the trusts these honors imposed. Then came the call to step up higher, and it is a matter of rejoicing to his old friends and neighbors that the call has come to such a worthy recipient. We're all proud of 'Our Frank,' and we're proud of the whole Flint family, and rejoice that they are East Side residents. This is no perfunctory welcome, but one in which the East Side takes delight."

Assembly F. W. Houser delivered the address of welcome.

Senator Flint said among other things in his response: "I would indeed be cold did I not appreciate this cordial reception to my home from my old friends and neighbors of the past twenty years. If ever I receive applause I could ask nothing better than that it be from those who know me and have been my intimate associates in everyday life.

"If I can retain this confidence I do not fear to go forth into the national life to represent this great State of California. I feel that I have not the ability and broad knowledge of many men who have been selected for such positions as I have been honored by receiving, but if hard work, conscientious striving to do my whole duty and that which is for the interest of the whole people count—then I will make a good Senator.

"Today we have girls representing the States of this great nation with the Carolinas sitting side by side with Vermont and New Hampshire, and New York finding place beside Texas. So it is in the country at large; one great united nation. And coming back from the United States Senate, I say and I firmly believe that all the members of that body are working for the best interests of the whole people, with a President who has the entire confidence of the people of the North, South, East and West, regardless of party.

"As far as criticism of United States Senators is concerned, I want to say that I firmly believe that every man I met in that body means to do his duty faithfully and to do his best for his State and the nation. In my opinion those charges are false which state that members of the two houses of Congress are controlled by corporate interests and are not true to their trusts."

"I go to my home tonight a happy and grateful man for the kindness and loyalty of my friends and neighbors. I trust that at no time during the six years which I shall hold the office of Senator I shall merit your disapproval, and that you shall never see that I cast my vote from any other motive than for the best interests of the people."

EVENTS IN LOCAL SOCIETY.

DOUBTLESS there will be no daintier nor sweeter April bride than Miss Stella Bumilier, whose engagement to Paul Burks was recently announced, and who ever since has been so charmingly entertained. There are a number of functions planned for Miss Bumilier in the near future, and among others is the tea to be given by the Misses Pansy and Belle Whitaker of No. 815 West Eighteenth street, on Wednesday afternoon, April 12, from 3 until 5 o'clock.

Mrs. Joseph F. Bumilier, sister-in-law of Miss Bumilier, will be hostess at a luncheon on Friday afternoon, April 14, given at her home, No. 711 Rampart street. Other affairs will be announced later.

Talented Girl Returns.

Miss Helen Shields, daughter of Mrs. Jennie Shields of No. 953 Bonnie Brae street, who for the past three years has been cultivating her voice in Berlin, returned on Monday. Miss Shields is the possessor of a rich contralto voice, which won for her much praise while abroad, and her return will be welcomed in Los Angeles, as she has many friends who are interested in her future. She is a charming and unassuming girl, possessed of an abundance of good looks.

Pretty Girl Visits.

Miss Jessie Houston, daughter of Mrs. C. W. Houston of Vermont avenue, left recently accompanied by her sister, Mrs. John R. Atwell, who has been visiting her mother, for Carthage, Mo. Miss Houston will be the guest of her sister here at her home, and during the summer Mrs. Atwell and Miss Houston will be guests of Bishop Atwell on a trip about the Great Lakes. Mrs. Houston with her daughters, Misses Cheile and May Houston, are staying at Ocean Park for the winter.

King's Daughters Meet.

The King's Daughters held their monthly meeting recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stoddard of No. 921 West Fourth street. A surprise party had been planned for H. W. Jarvis, whose eighty-second birthday it was. Twenty-four were present, and Marshall Cooper of the Hotel Hinman presented Mr. Jarvis with a fine box of cigars in behalf of the King's Daughters. Light refreshments were served. The Daughters will meet at the Day Nursery on Friday evening, April 15, to celebrate the tenth anniversary of the founding of the nursery, with a shower to furnish a "Chamber of Peace" in the Nursery building.

Beautiful Nuptial Ceremony.

A wedding, beautiful in every detail, was solemnized last evening when Miss Bessie Bonsall, daughter of Maj. and Mrs. William H. Bonsall of No. 1215 West Adams street, became the bride of Ernest C. Hamilton, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Hamilton of New York City, with Rev. Charles Naumann of Christ Church officiating. Although the wedding was a quiet one, only the immediate family and relatives being present, none of the charming effects were missing. All details were exquisitely lovely. In the reception room where the pretty service took place, an impressive altar was reared of fragrant Easter lilies, which nodded for the nonce among a garden of sweet greenery. Soft tulle covered the lights, and tall vases of the Easter lilies were gracefully arranged about the room. In the hall great jardiniers filled with American Beauty roses were effectively placed.

The bride was more charming than ever in a beautiful white lace robe, with her sweet face showing mistily through the veil of softest tulle which fell to her feet. Fastening the veil in place were fragrant orange blossoms and at her throat was a handsome diamond harvest-moon the gift of the groom. In her arms she carried a great cluster of lilies of the valley. Leaning on the arm of her father she entered the drawing room as the strains of the "Lohengrin" Wedding March were played by Arend's orchestra. Acting as matrons of honor were the two sisters of the bride, Mrs. Thomas P. Newton and Mrs. Samuel Haskins. Mrs. Newton was set off by a becoming frock of pale blue silk. At the flower laden altar the groom awaited his bride, attended by his brother-in-law J. McCoy Williams of Oxnard. During the service "Call Me Thine Own" was rendered and at the close Mendelssohn's march was played.

After the ceremony the party adjourned to the dining-room where the glow of pink shaded lights cast a glamour over the scene. About the room pink carnations, ferns and potted palms were arranged and the bridal table was a beautiful sight. In the center, mirrored in a shining glass was a cut glass vase filled with pearly pink Maman Couchet roses, and silver candelabra shaded with rose-silk shades were attractive. From the chandelier to the table pink satin ribbons were gracefully looped, and places were marked with little hand painted rose pieces. Seated about the pretty round board beside the bridal party were Mrs. J. McCoy Williams, Thomas P. Newton, and Samuel Haskins. The other guests gathered at several smaller tables which were artistically decked in the same color scheme with the added attractiveness of pink shaded candelabras.

After a few months visit in New York City Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton will return to make their future home in Rocky Ford, Colorado, where the groom is superintendent of a large sugar factory.

Great interest was taken in the nuptials by a large number of friends owing to the prominence of the bride's family, and also to her own personal charm.

Church Wedding.

In the First Congregational Church last evening a pretty wedding was solemnized. Miss Mildred Allen Spencer, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Spencer of No. 936 South Burlington avenue, and Frank H. Harwood were married with Rev. William Horace Day officiating. The church was filled with a profusion of flowers and greenery, and the altar was banked with palms against which were massed quantities of white blossoms. The bride, who is a tall and pretty brunette, was attired in a gown of cream silk poplinette finished with yoke and cuffs of heavily embroidered bolting cloth. A Princesse Louise bertha of lace finished the yoke. The skirt was cut en traine and a girdle of soft panne velvet encircled the waist. She carried a shower bouquet of violets, and a veil of shimmering tulle fell over her face held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms. Her going away gown was of brown silk. The bride entered with little Miss Katherine Woodford, daughter of B. F. Woodford of Upland and a niece of the groom. The maid of honor was Miss Adele May Spencer, a sister of the bride, who wore a dainty frock of pink mousseline de soie and carried pink carnations.

Bridesmaids were: Misses Virginia Whitcomb of Glendora, Grace Adams McPherron, Grace Whitesell and Elizabeth Campbell. Just before the ceremony Miss Whitesell sang "When Song is Sweet" (Sans Souci.) The best man was A. H. Peck of the First National Bank of Covina, and ushers included: Rev. Josiah Sibley of Azusa, Dr. F. J. Cline of Covina, Mr. Roberts of San Dimas, and Dr. George Summer of Pomona College. William E. Strowbridge presided at the organ and as the party approached gave the "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin."

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the bride's home on Burlington avenue, and here pink sweet peas and ferns were attractively arranged.

After a short wedding tour the couple will make their home in San Dimas, where the groom has furnished a beautiful home for his bride. Mr. Harwood is a son of A. P. Harwood the millionaire orange grower of Upland, and attended Pomona College at the same time with Miss Spencer, and there it was that the romance culminated, both graduating in 1898. Later she went East and taught school, and was visited there by Mr. Harwood, who urged upon her a speedy marriage. Mr. Harwood, is the manager of the San Dimas Lemon Association, and has been for five years, and is popular there.

Weds Quietly.

Miss Felicitas Salaberri and Bruce Pitblado were quietly married at the home of Mrs. Walter Walker of No. 1451 Malvern avenue on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Only immediate relatives were present. The bride is a daughter of the late Don Salaberri of Capistrano, one of the Castilians well known among the older residents. Immediately after ceremony the couple departed for San Francisco and northern points. On their return they will be at home to their friends at No. 1346 Albany street.

Japanese Feast.

Mesdames F. W. Kellogg and Ogden Ellis, daughters of William Armiger Scripps of Altadena, will return to their eastern homes on Friday (31st) accompanied by their husbands, Mr. Ellis is a member of the Detroit lawpublishing firm that has established "The American Boy" monthly. Mr. Kellogg is president of the Clover Leaf League of evening newspapers that includes the chief cities of Kansas, Nebraska, Iowa and Minnesota.

The young people have toured this region by auto car, but their most novel experience has just been supplied by the household's Japanese employés, who are keenly appreciative of its pro-Japanese sentiment. A week ago the chef asked permission to provide a Japanese course-dinner entirely at his and the maids' expense, the menu to be kept secret. Mrs. Scripps acquiesced. But when the hour arrived she developed a surprise for the surprisers, appearing in a lavender silk kimona embroidered with chrysanthemums, long iris pins in her hair, and the separate-toed sock and sandal a la Nagasaki—souvenirs of "Jinrikisha days" with her husband. The other ladies also wore kimonas.

A "floral composition" of iris was the table's only ornament. There were olives and salted almonds but at no time butter, and the bread came with the fowl, which Mr. Scripps christened "Kouropatkin." The first course was an engaging cocktail. Oysters were served with quartered lemon and Tokie crackers. Then came caviare; creamed tomato soup; a sweet liquor; fish with potato balls; peeled cucumbers cut lengthwise; roast turkey with latticed potatoes, cranberries and bread; salad of alligator pear, cherries and bananas with rice cake encompassing mushrooms; sake; leaf-stemmed oranges opening box-fashion over a mold of amber jelly and cream; white cake iced with the crossed American and Japanese flags. And—tea should have followed, but the cry of "Banzai." "Banzai dai Nippon!" brought all to their feet with sake glasses. The chef was summoned. And—well the tea was forgotten with "Sayonara!" (goodby) from the young folks.

A BOON TO SICK WOMEN

No. 14 Main St., Pensacola, Fla., Nov. 20, 1903.

After four years of vain endeavor to regain my health I became acquainted with the merits of Wine of Cardui, through personal experience, and found it so excellent that I feel it due to you to acknowledge the fact. I had been suffering with irregular and most painful periods, and when they occurred I was unable to be up and had to stay in bed for a day or two. Nothing I took helped me until I used Wine of Cardui. It proved to be just what I needed. Within two months the serious pain had disappeared, my headaches were less frequent and not so severe. I felt very much encouraged, but had to use your medicine for four months before I was entirely well. I have enjoyed the finest health now for eighteen months. I am very well and have no more pains and eat and sleep as well as could be desired. I feel your medicine is a boon to sick women, and most heartily do I recommend it to those suffering as I did, feeling sure that they will be cured if they will let other medicines alone and take Wine of Cardui.

Beatrice Wood

WINE OF CARDUI

After four years of vain endeavor to regain her health by taking other medicines, Miss Beatrice Wood was made a perfectly well woman by taking Wine of Cardui, the most successful menstrual regulator and woman's tonic known to the science of medicine.

She took Wine of Cardui, and that is what we advise you to do.

Will you follow her example and be a well woman?

We could show you letters from 10,000 other women who praise Wine of Cardui as she praises it.

HEAD BEATING LIKELY FATAL.

SELF-INFLICTED INJURIES MAY CAUSE DEATH.

San Bernardino Building Contractors Refuse to Yield to the Union Bosses and Stay Totem Tyranny. Officers Find Strange State of Affairs When They Search House.

SAN BERNARDINO, March 29.—E. L. Flynn, the Santa Fé brakeman who ran amuck in a local chop house Monday night, was last night taken into custody at Redlands. He inflicted probably fatal injuries on himself by attempting to beat out his brains against his cell.

Yesterday morning Flynn was released by the police on giving bond for his appearance in the afternoon before the police judge to answer a charge of disturbing the peace, and failed to appear when his case was called. Owing to the physical wreck to which the police had reduced him, the judge did not declare his bond forfeited, fearing that he might be laid up somewhere, unable to appear.

It now develops that he wandered all day yesterday in the brush between here and Redlands, having torn off the bandages from his lacerated head and face and even from the broken finger. He wandered into Redlands about midnight, raised a rough house in a lodging place and was arrested.

He was brought to the County Hospital, where he soon lapsed into a state of unconsciousness, symptoms of brain concussion developing, and Medical Superintendent John Myer states that his condition is grave. An operation will be performed.

TOTEM TYRANNY STAYED.

The fight is on in earnest between the labor agitators and Stevenson brothers and H. A. Reed, contractors and builders, because they believe in conducting their business as suits themselves. Last night the Central Labor Council held a meeting for the purpose of hearing a grievance from the Carpenters' Union, and in acting upon this grievance decided to place the contracting firms named on the black list, in an effort to force them to dismiss all their non-union employés, and conduct a closed shop.

The contractors are not of the stamp of men who will allow themselves to be dictated to in this way, and announce that if the union agitators want to fight it will be a fight to the finish. That the contractors have the best end of the contest is known. They have applications for work from numerous skilled carpenters now at Los Angeles, and at three hours' notice can replace every union carpenter in this city. Several carpenters who are working for the contractors named, who are in the union, have refused to recognize the black list and declare they will leave the union if that organization seeks to force them into idleness.

SUSPICION ON COUPLE.

Justice of the Peace Gifford of Redlands was in town today in conference with the Sheriff regarding a young girl and a man claiming to be her uncle who have come under suspicion of the Redlands officers. They have lived for the last two months in a two-roomed house, the man having no visible means of support, though dressed at all times like a prosperous business man, and the girl has worked among the families of the wealthy residents. They missed articles from time to time one article being a costly lace collar and, suspecting the girl, discharged her.

A few days ago she was seen wearing the collar, and yesterday the officers secured a search warrant. On going through the house they found that one of the rooms is used for a kitchen and dining-room, and the other has two beds, one of which is used regularly, the other mattress being piled high with boxes containing articles of all description.

This peculiar manner for an uncle and niece to live together strengthens suspicion against the couple, and the justice of the peace was advised to have both arrested for petty larceny, under which charge they can be held until their record is thoroughly scrutinized by the Sheriff, who has an idea that they are professional crooks, and may be implicated in the recent Idyllwild hold-up, as well as in the murder of James W. Shumate at Colton.

ASKS DIVORCE.

Mrs. Lydia Wakefield has commenced action against W. H. Wakefield for divorce. The grounds are not made public. Wakefield is a Daggett saloonkeeper. He has retained an attorney to contest the suit.

COLTON.

SHUMATE HAT CLEW.

COLTON, March 29.—A circular relating the incidents of the tragic death of J. W. Shumate at Colton has been prepared by Sheriff John C. Ralphs and copies of it have been mailed to officers throughout the United States.

There is a detailed statement about the revolver discovered near the body and also the following about an old hat found in the place: "In the store, the burglars left a large black hat, very old; no brand on it, but has had a two-inch band at some time. The hat had been torn across the crown a distance of about seven inches, which has been sewed with coarse black thread. It has a three-inch brim, and has once had black binding around the brim; it is very slouchy. The hat was sold by S. Horowitz, Fresno, California."

To the $1100 reward which the people of Colton have offered, which is guaranteed by Mr. W. W. Wilcox of this city, the Sheriff has added an additional $100 for the arrest, detention and conviction or for information which will lead to the arrest and conviction of the party or parties who committed this murder.

The two men, a white man and Mexican, who were observed as suspicious characters at Ontario, the night after the murder, are being traced by detectives.

COLTON CROSSING JOLTS.

Elmer L. Benner died in San Bernardino last night. He had lived in Colton a number of years, and had charge of the city's pumping plant. Mr. Benner was a native of Pennsylvania and 39 years of age. He leaves a widow and relatives in San Bernardino.

REDLANDS.

PELICAN REFUGEE.

REDLANDS, March 29.—A refugee, whose like has never been seen before in Redlands, and that sought shelter here Sunday from the rain, was an immense pelican. The big bird was evidently too weary to fly, for two boys chased it, they claim, several miles, and finally borrowed a shotgun and killed it. They might have been in better business.

DOWN THE LINE.

J. E. Payton, M.P., C. E. Truesdell, A. J. Leonard and E. N. Sturtevant were elected delegates to the Grand Lodge, I.O.O.D. by the Redlands Lodge.

Mrs. S. W. Warren and her two children arrived last night from New Orleans and is the guest of her father, Capt. C. W. Clark.

Rain has been falling since early morning. Word of a heavy snowstorm in Bear Valley was received here this morning.

The case of the City of Redlands vs. C. D. Goff, proprietor of the Palm drug store, which was to have been tried Friday, has been continued until April 29.

HARPMAN GONE TO ENGLAND?

Riverside Hotel Man Caught by City Officials Dishing Out Beer Over a Bar and Arrested—April a Month of Many Conventions—Indian Girl Delegates.

RIVERSIDE, March 29.—Indirect word has come from Ed Harpman, who mysteriously disappeared a month ago, J. Vandegrift is in receipt of a letter from Harpman's sister in England, in which she states that her brother has deserted his family and will not return to them. She admits that Harpman's family was left in destitute circumstances, but attempts no justification of his act. She writes Vandegrift that if he can sell the home property there she will have her brother sign the deed if sent to her. Harpman conducted an automobile garage in this city, and when he left took all the money he had out of the bank. There are three children, the youngest born since he disappeared.

BEER MINUS MEALS.

J. E. Moseley, who conducts the St. George Hotel on Main street, was arrested this afternoon for illegal liquor selling. Yesterday afternoon Marshal Wilson and Deputy Carl, accompanied by City Trustees Lawler, Ward, Chase and Ford, unexpectedly dropped in on Moseley and found him dispensing beer over a bar. He was too scared to talk, but after regaining his breath promised that if the case was not prosecuted to send all his wet goods back to Los Angeles. Moseley was given until 3 o'clock p.m. tomorrow to plead. Roy M. Raymond, Moseley's partner, was also arrested and will have a hearing at the same time.

A CONVENTION MONTH.

Conventions religious, agricultural and medical, will occupy the attention of Riversiders during April. Friday and Saturday of next week the Farmers' Institute will hold sessions in the Y.M.C.A. hall. Delegates from all Southern California will be in attendance, and out-of-town speakers will include Prof. A. J. Cook of Claremont, C. C. Teague of San Dimas, Prof. Newton B. Pierce of Santa Ana, Prof. E. J. Wickson of Berkeley, G. Harold Powell of the United States Department of Agriculture; B. A. Woodford, president of Southern California Fruit Exchange; Herbert E. Garstin and E. M. Lyon of Redlands, Mrs. Minnie E. Sherman of Fresno and President Wheeler and Prof. Stubenrauch of the State University.

April 12 and 14 the annual meeting of the Southern Branch W.B.M.P., and Women's Home Missionary Union, the Congregational women's missionary organization of California, will take place in the Conogregational Church. Churches from San Luis Obispo south will be represented at this meeting.

On April 17, 18 and 19 the State Medical Society will meet at the Glenwood Hotel. In connection with this meeting there will be held on the 17th, in the Glenwood "adobe" a session of the California Public Health Association.

INDIAN GIRL DELEGATES.

Tomorrow night several Indian girls will start north to represent Sherman Institute at the seventh annual conference of the Y.W.C.A. at Capitola. The funds necessary to pay the expenses of one girl were provided in Los Angeles by Miss Theresa Wilbur, State secretary of the Young Women's Association, once a Riverside girl. Riverside friends have raised enough to send a second representative, and it is thought that by tomorrow night provision will be made for the expenses of a third. Miss Ada Westbrook, who has charge of the young women's work at the institute, will accompany the girls to Capitola. The delegates are Leona Masservey, president of the Institute Y.W.C.A., a Klamath (Or.) girl; Maud Tsapawd, a full-blooded Hoopa Indian, and Carlume Hesus, a full-blooded Papago Indian from Arizona.

LITERARY WOMEN.

Two well-known literary women are making leisurely visits in Riverside Clara Louise Burnham, author of "The Jewell" and other familiar works of fiction has been enjoying several weeks rest at the Anchorage, and Mrs. Lizzie York Case of Detroit has arrived at the Glenwood. Mrs. Case has for twenty-seven years been connected with the Detroit Free Press and is the author of the well-known poem "There is No Unbelief."

LESSER NOTES.

A special train will be run to Corona Friday night to accommodate members of the Riverside high school and their friends who are interested in the Swing cup contest. This is the third debate in the series for possession of the cup and thus far Riverside and Corona are the only schools of the eight contesting for the prize that have not been defeated. It is believed that the winner of this debate will be the winner of the series. Riverside is represented by Miss Gleason and Frank Elwell.

The body of Mrs. Buntain of Eureka, who died in this city a few days ago, was shipped to her home in the North.

At the annual meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society of the Congregational Church held last night in the church parlors John Lynn was chosen president; Nellie Downs, first vice-president; Miss Nicholson, second vice-president; Dexter Rau, secretary and treasurer; and Mildred Putnam, corresponding secretary.

Rain commenced falling at 11 a.m. today and continued up to 2:30. Prospects favor further rainfall tonight.

THE RECORD OF A DECADE

The following table shows the sworn average daily circulation of The Times each year for the past ten years:

1896	18,188 copies
1897	19,288 copies
1898	26,131 copies
1899	25,731 copies
1900	27,792 copies
1901	28,777 copies
1902	31,251 copies
1903	36,687 copies
1904	37,702 copies

INDIO.

LOCOMOTIVE IN CRASH.

INDIO, March 29.—Locomotive No. 2456 of the "hog" type, with a heavy freight train coupled to it, ran into a caboose here at 4:30 a.m. yesterday. The caboose is a total wreck and the locomotive is partly toppled over and buried to the steam chest. Conductor Lockwood, who was in the caboose, sustained some injury, but it is not considered serious. Engine No. 2656 came into the yard at an unusual rate of speed. It did not "head in" as is customary, and before the switch crew noticed this fact it was too late to avert an accident. There will have to be an official investigation before the person at fault can be named.

NOSE PAINT NIP IN SANTA ANA.

TWO ARRESTS FOR LIQUOR LAW VIOLATION.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SANTA ANA, March 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] On complaint of W. F. Crowley, the officers this evening arrested C. W. Raney, proprietor of the Saddle Rock Restaurant, and Herman Dasque, proprietor of the Santa Ana Restaurant, for violations of the prohibition ordinance.

Both restaurants are located on West Fourth street. In each case bonds of $300 were given for appearance for arraignment. Dasque will come up tomorrow morning. It is charged that the men have been selling liquor in open violation of the ordinance.

It is rumored that several other arrests are imminent on information now in the hands of the officers.

LIGHT PLANT BONDS SELL.

The $60,000 issue of electric light plant bonds, voted at a special municipal election in November, 1903, after a series of ineffectual attempts to dispose of them, has at last been sold. Although all the details of the deal were consummated at an informal meeting of the City Trustees on Saturday evening, neither the name of the purchasers nor the price paid will be announced before the regular meeting Monday evening.

The sale was made to a Pasadena firm acting as agents for eastern bond buyers. The issue runs for twenty years, and bears interest at 4½ per cent.

ELKS ELECT.

The annual election of the Elks last night resulted in the choice of Horace C. Head as Exalted Ruler; Bert Klunk, Esteemed Leading Knight; Clyde Horton, Esteemed Loyal Knight; Homer G. Ames, Lecturing Knight; T. A. Winbigler, Secretary; Fred Ross, Treasurer; Isaac Fields, Tyler; Parke S. Roper, W. G. Potter and Henry Rutherford, Trustees. The officers will be installed April 11. Charles Olney was named as delegate to the Grand Lodge, with W. L. Tubbs as alternate.

LOVERS TIED AT LAST.

A pretty romance lies behind the wedding in Los Angeles last Sunday of Thomas C. Richey of this city and Kate A. Dale of Chihuahua, Mex. Four years ago, when the young people first met, they were attending school at Southwestern College, Georgetown, Tex., and after an intimate friendship, became engaged. More than a year ago Miss Dale went to her home in Mexico, where her father is a banker, and Richey came to California. A desultory correspondence finally ceased altogether, and the young couple lost track of each other. This year Miss Dale came by chance on a visit to California, and, learning of the presence of Mrs. E. L. Du Bose, a former schoolmate, in Santa Ana, came here to visit with her. When she alighted from the train one of the first persons she saw was Richey. They renewed their relations, and in just a week were married. The bride only informed her parents of her marriage after it had taken place. Mr. and Mrs. Richey are domiciled here at No. 1110 Ross street.

"Union Signal" Day was observed by the W.C.T.U. at its monthly meeting yesterday at the home of Mrs. B. A. Bissell on Spurgeon street.

The Art Study Club met last night at the home of Mrs. George Smith in a consideration of American Art. Papers were presented by Misses Anderson, Chilton, Cubbison, Morrison and Merrill and by C. A. Gustlin.

On grounds of cruelty Mrs. Mabel Meacham of Anaheim was granted a divorce today from Perry O. Meacham of San Bernardino county.

Marriage licenses were issued today to A. Hopkins, aged 22, and Nina L. Locke, aged 22, both residents of Los Angeles; to William H. Shoemaker, aged 21, and Nettie Erickson, aged 18, both of Los Angeles; to Clinton Dimock, aged 24, and Stella Lewis, aged 20, both of Westminster.

ORANGE.

MUCH RURAL HELLOING.

ORANGE, March 29.—The recent reduction in rates of the Sunset Telephone Company, from $2.50 to $1.50 a month, resulted in much patronage in the rural districts, where the company's solicitor has been at work.

W. T. Edwards will commence building a brick block near the plaza within two weeks.

The S. J. Smith Machinery Company of Los Angeles is placing material on the ground at the water works for the foundation of the tower and pump, and expects to have the plant ready for operation within a month.

FULLERTON.

SCHOOL WITH NO PUPILS.

FULLERTON, March 29.—Two years ago fully twenty-five families resided at the Puente Oil Company's wells but as the company has transferred its development operations to the Olinda field only two or three families are left on the old lease. There are now only five pupils attending the school there and they are all of the family of James Pife. He is about to move away. That will leave the schoolhouse and teacher with no pupils.

DEATH OF PRIEST.

Rev. J. J. McQuaide of Lancaster a Victim of Pneumonia—Funeral Today.

Rev. J. J. McQuaide, a priest of the Roman Catholic Church, died early yesterday morning at Lancaster, after an illness of two weeks of acute pneumonia. During his last illness he was attended by Rev. A. Waldron of Banning and Rev. William Quinlan of St. Vibiana's Cathedral.

Father McQuaide had been a priest for fourteen years. He graduated from the American College in Rome and was ordained there in 1891. For twelve years he was in charge of a parish at Taunton, Mass. Failing health caused him to come to Southern California about a year and a half ago, and he engaged in mission work at several parishes. Finally he was stationed as rector of the Church of the Sacred Heart at Lancaster.

The funeral services will be held this morning at 10:30 o'clock at St. Vibiana's Cathedral. Bishop Conaty will celebrate a pontifical mass of requiem, assisted by Rt. Rev. Thomas McGinnes of Boston. Rev. William Quinlan will be deacon of honor and Rev. L. J. Foin, deacon of the mass, with Rev. Philip G. Scher as subdeacon.

Previous to the mass the solemn office of the dead will be chanted. Very Rev. P. Harnett, vicar general, presiding, and Revs. J. J. Clifford and Joseph Kaiser being the chanters.

The pall bearers will be Rev. P. F. Farrelly, of Pasadena; Rev. Joseph Barron of St. Mary's Church, Boyle Heights; Rev. Clement Molony of St. Agnes Church; Very Rev. J. S. Glass, C.M., D.D., of St. Vincent's College; Rev. Raphael Fuhr, O.F.M., of St. Joseph's Church; Rev. D. W. J. Murphy, of Hollywood; Rev. J. J. Sheehy of Pasadena and Rev. A. Waldron of Banning.

Father McQuaide, who was 38 years of age, had no relatives in this country. A brother resides in Minnesota and he has two sisters in Ireland. The body will be taken to Taunton, Mass., for burial, and will be accompanied East by Rev. George Donahoe, the bishop's secretary, who will leave on the Limited this evening.

I Will Remove the Cause of Your Trouble

There'll be no guessing, and you will note improvements from the first. My methods are not secret methods. I obtain prompt results by knowing what to treat and how to treat. The improper treatment of any disease brings on a chronic condition. When I treat a case it is with entire confidence that I will effect a complete cure.

VARICOCELE

I cure in 1 to 4 days. Many men have treated unsuccessfully for varicocele. My treatment is painless and the results are complete and forever.

STRICTURE

I cure the right way, once and for all. I remove all urethral obstruction, inflammation and soreness and restore the membrane to a healthy condition, usually in 10 to 15 days.

CONTRACTED DISEASES

Failure to quickly cure these conditions is due to harsh measures, which are the direct cause for chronic conditions. My treatment is the most cleanly and perfect known.

I cure Rectal, Kidney and Bladder Troubles, Piles, Fistula and Blood Diseases, Wasting, Nervous and Chronic Conditions, causing functional derangement, impairing strength and vitality.

MEN

Quickly Cured

MY PROMPT AND THOROUGH cures prove the correctness of my methods. They prove that my treatment is absolutely scientific. The fact that like results are obtained by no other physician establishes my claim to originality and distinctiveness. For seventeen years I have been earning my success and my reputation as a specialist in Men's Diseases.

MEN

We are Specialists for Varicocele, Hydrocele, Stricture, Piles, Fistula, Blood Diseases, Contracted Diseases, Private Diseases, Loss of Vital Power, Kidney and Bladder Troubles.

Varicocele

WE GUARANTEE AN ABSOLUTE AND PERMANENT CURE in every case we treat of varicocele. We will show to any man wishing to be cured a dozen leading business men of Los Angeles that we have cured. This fact, with our GUARANTEE of a cure, ought to convince men that they can be cured of varicocele.

Weakness

This trouble—the bane of men of all ages—we cure. Our treatment is direct, effective and the cure sure and lasting. We take pleasure in making clear to every man who calls for consultation the cause, the course and the outcome of his particular case. There is no charge for consultation.

Contracted Diseases and Blood Poison

These troubles are thoroughly understood by Dr. Harrison and his associates. For over 25 years they have successfully treated this class of troubles. Experience, founded on a thorough medical education, has brought to them perfected methods by which they can positively promise a cure.

Stricture

This trouble we treat successfully by our improved method, which never fails to bring quick and sure cure. Electricity or electric belts cannot do this trouble any good when you employ either you throw your money away. Call and let us explain the nature of the trouble and how you can be permanently cured.

Kidney and Bladder Trouble

Dr. Harrison & Co. are phenomenally successful in these troubles, every case that comes to them is carefully examined, and the true causes found for existing conditions. It is then easy for us to treat the case understandingly; not all cases are easily understood, not all men know how to treat them. Our experience for years has taught us just how to cure the very worst of these troubles. Our success in curing demonstrates the positive proof of our ability.

BIG LIST FOR HORSE SHOW.

EQUINE FUNCTION HAS RICH TREAT IN PROSPECT.

Pasadena Tournament of Roses Directors, Who are Managing the Show, Get Nearly Twice as Many Entries as They Had Expected. Hugus Ranch Sold for Subdivision.

PASADENA, Office of The Times, No. 24 South Raymond Avenue, March 29.—The Tournament of Roses directors, who are now managing the Pasadena Horse Show, are meeting with far more success than the most sanguine hoped. Last night the entries closed for the grand event, which is to take place on April 6, 7 and 8. There are upward of 120 entries in all classes, and this number will probably be swelled somewhat, as out-of-town entries which were mailed yesterday will be eligible. The committee declines to reveal the entry list until the day before the show. This stand is taken so that there will be no dropping out because a horse owner thinks his neighbor has him beaten.

"The entry list has agreeably surprised us," said Director E. D. Neff last night. "We hoped we might get an average of three entries in each class, which, as there are twenty-five classes, would have made a total of seventy-five, but now the total will run to almost double that number. Everything bids fair for a good show. The rain coming at this time would seem to favor fair weather for next week, and everything is in fine condition. Even if we should get a shower or two it would not necessarily involve a postponement. We have arranged to have the grand stand covered with canvas, and we have also engaged two large tents, each 70x120 feet, to be used as waiting and dressing rooms. On Friday evening of this week there will be an auction of box seats at Kuranaga's store which we expect will net the association several hundred additional dollars."

BIGGEST SALE YET.

Ernest H. Lockwood last night reported the biggest real estate deal of the year for this section. Perhaps if investigation were made the transaction might prove to be the biggest in the history of the town from the standpoint of the size of the bunch of earth that changed hands. The sale was that of the Hugus ranch, owned by the J. W. Hugus estate, and the purchasers are Gustavus H. Bauer and Victor March, two well-known local capitalists. The price paid was not given, but it is understood to be in the neighborhood of $75,000.

The property is in two tracts, and contains about 174 acres, situated some two miles northeast of the center of town on Hill avenue, Mountain street, Washington street, and several other small highways. In addition to this acreage there are improvements which alone cost more than the value of the land. These include a handsome three-story residence, a pumping plant, well, electric light system, barns, reservoirs, trees and vines, and 500 shares of mountain water.

The purchase is regarded by real estate men as a very much of a bargain. March and Bauer will cut the property up into lots, and expect to have a popular subdivision. Many old-time Pasadenans recall the Hugus ranch most pleasantly. J. W. Hugus, a wealthy Wyoming cattleman and banker, purchased the bare acreage a score of years ago and expended a great deal of money on improving it. For many years the palatial home was the scene of brilliant society functions. The owner died about three years ago, and left so large an estate that difficulty has been found in selling it, so that the heirs could get their proper shares.

GEORGE A. BREED'S DEATH.

George A. Breed died yesterday at his home on Palmetto Drive in the eighty-fourth year of his age. He was the last remaining child of the late Rev. Allan Breed of Manlius, N. Y. His early days were spent at Manlius and he married there Miss Anne Eliza Westover, whom he brought as a bride to Milwaukee in 1846. Mr. Breed became one of Milwaukee's founders and was identified with its growth from an Indian trading post to a large and beautiful city. His wife died about twelve years ago and he came to Pasadena, where he had since resided. His life of purity and usefulness to those in need endeared him to a large circle of friends.

President Gilbert W. Pratt of the Pasadena National Bank, who has been quite ill, is somewhat improved, and his friends are much more hopeful of his recovery.

Manuel Uribes was hustled before Justice Congdon yesterday on the charge of assaulting with a chair the woman who passes as his wife, Miss Felice Martinez. He got fifteen days.

OCEAN PARK.

NATIONAL BANK IN PROSPECT.

OCEAN PARK, March 29.—This beach is to have a new national bank as soon as it can be organized. E. J. Vawter today received a telegram from the Comptroller of the Currency at Washington, D. C., announcing that authorization had been granted him for the establishment of the First National Bank of Ocean Park. The capital stock is to be $25,000. Mr. Vawter will proceed without delay to put a new bank in operation. Associated with him will be a number of local capitalists.

LET SEWER CONTRACTS.

The City Trustees at their meeting last night let the contract for the construction of the north and south sewers to Arthur S. Bent of Los Angeles. The contract price is $11,849.20, and the work is to be commenced within five days and is to be completed within two months. The contract for the construction of the septic tank was let to the Olmsted-Paulson Company of Los Angeles, for $1196.40.

James H. Biagge having resigned as City Treasurer, Henry E. Lavayea has been elected by the City Trustees to fill the vacancy.

OCEAN SPARKLETS.

Since the high tide in washing away the wharf on Pier avenue carried away about eight hundred feet of the intake pipe that was being laid along the pier, the bath-house managers have abandoned that source of supply. They are digging a twelve-foot well to a depth of twenty feet in the sand and gravel at the foot of Marine street. From this water will be pumped.

The Masons already have $20,000 stock subscribed for the proposed temple. It will probably be built on Marine street.

LONG BEACH.

EARTH KILLS WORKMAN.

LONG BEACH, March 29.—Crushed beneath tons of earth, Hilario Gillarde met instant death this morning in a ditch on Temple street at the intersection of the Huntington Beach line.

The Long Beach Water Company is digging a trench for a big supply main, and at this point it is necessary to tunnel under the tracks. The ditch is ten feet deep. Gillarde and a companion were at work twenty feet north of the track, when without warning the entire side gave way and slid into the ditch.

The other man reached a point of safety, but Gillarde was caught and buried out of sight. Rescue work began at once and in ten minutes the victim was unearthed, but was dead from suffocation. The body was brought to this city, where Coroner Troutt will hold an inquest Thursday afternoon.

The dead man was 50 years of age, quiet and reserved and a good workman. He has a family in Mexico and a brother who is employed on the Baldwin ranch.

DEATH OF H. J. FOOTE.

H. J. Foote, an old-time resident of Long Beach, died suddenly yesterday evening at the home of his son, Floyd C. Foote, proprietor of the News. Mr. and Mrs. Foote came over from Garden Grove a week ago on a visit to their son. Yesterday evening he went out to feed his horse, and returning went in the bathroom, where he fell and was dead in ten minutes. Doctors pronounced it heart failure. Mr. Foote was 70 years of age. He came to Pomona in 1896, two years later removing to Long Beach. A widow, one son and two daughters survive. The funeral will be conducted Thursday morning by Rev. W. K. Beans. The burial will be at Signal Hill.

BAND SCHEME ABANDONED.

The scheme of the Pacific Electric to bring the Innes Band here for a week has been abandoned. The railroad company wanted the City Trustees, without any remuneration, to turn the entire pier over to them for a week, closing promenade and roadway and shutting out fishermen and pleasure-seekers. The company was told that the public could not be excluded from the pier.

POMONA.

NOT TO CHANGE "JUICE" RATES.

POMONA, March 29.—Against the protest of City Attorney Robert G. Loucks and City Trustee Miller the other members of the board took action last night looking to a continuation of the present rates for electric-lighting service. The first steps were taken on the passage of an ordinance making the base rate 15 cents per kilowatt.

The board adopted an ordinance fixing the maximum price for gas at $1.50 per 1000 feet.

The action on the electric and gas rates is under the decision of the State Supreme Court giving cities the power to fix rates. The gas company says that it cannot operate without financial loss unless the rate is at least $2 per 1000 feet. The company has done everything in its power to keep the rate up to that figure and is seeking to get the case before the United States Supreme Court.

AUTEN-JEFFERS.

Miss Jeffers of this city and Owen Auten of Los Angeles were married last night at the home of J. W. Auten on Fifth avenue. The couple will make their home in Los Angeles.

LA CANYADA.

INSTITUTE NEXT WEEK.

LA CANYADA, March 29.—The La Cañada Improvement Association has made arrangements with Prof. A. J. Cook of Claremont to hold a Farmers' Institute at the Congregational Church here next Monday and Tuesday, with afternoon and evening sessions. C. C. Teague will speak on "Citrus-fruit Culture;" Prof. G. W. Powell, on "Fruits and Their Decay;" Prof. A. J. Cook, "Insects and Their Extermination;" Mrs. Baseley of Santa Ana will talk on "Poultry."

John O. Knight and Fenton Knight, sons of Jesse Knight, have returned from Chicago, where they have been for the last three years. John Knight was formerly on The Times' reportorial staff. He was in the Philippines during the Spanish-American War. Later he was special war correspondent for the Record-Herald of Chicago, in the Transvaal, and after that war was engaged in newspaper work in South Africa.

Much complaint has resulted from an order from the Supervisors to Road Foreman J. J. Bell to the effect that no work should be done on the roads until the rains are over. When this will be possibly Hatfield can tell; but in the meantime the Verdugo Cañon road is in a deplorable condition, as it is practically impossible to haul loads over it.

RESCUED CREW SAFE IN PORT.

TAKEN FROM A WATERLOGGED VESSEL IN ROUGH SEA.

Schooner Polaris Brings Men of the Wrecked Schooner C. A. Klose to San Pedro—Forced to Take to Rigging of Doomed Craft—Messenger Boy Dies from Burns.

SAN PEDRO, March 29.—Capt. N. Wagner and seven other members of the crew of the abandoned schooner C. A. Klose are safe and sound. The schooner Polaris, Capt. Peterson, arrived here today from Astoria with the crew on board, having rescued them on the evening of the 19th inst. while off the Siuslaw River.

The C. A. Klose, lumber-laden, sailed from Vancouver on the morning of the 17th inst., bound for San Francisco. She and the Polaris were towed down the Columbia River together, but little did either master think that the voyage would be so closed-linked in what came so near proving another sad tragedy of the sea. Reaching the mouth of the Columbia River, the Klose put to sea a day ahead of the Polaris.

The morning of March 17 she struck a severe southeaster and sprung a serious leak. Water poured into the hold, sinking the schooner until her rails were under water and Capt. Wagner and his crew were compelled to take refuge in the rigging. The flag was placed upside down, at half-mast—the signal of distress—and in a tremendous sea, with the provisions under water in the cabin and in a terrific gale accompanied by rain and hail, bitter cold, the unfortunate men hoped against hope for the sight of a friendly sail.

Fortune favored them and on the afternoon of the next day they were sighted by the Polaris and several hours later were taken off by that vessel, with much difficulty. A sail was left standing so as to be readily seen by mariners and with her flag flying at half-mast the water-logged schooner was abandoned and left to her fate.

"We left Astoria on March 17," said Capt. Canby in relating his experiences. "On the 18th the Klose sprung a serious leak, and my men were ordered to the pumps. They worked incessantly the 18th and 19th until exhausted, but were unable to make any headway against the water. The schooner settled forward, and to add to our danger, a heavy gale arose, with a tremendous cross-sea. Finally the bulkheads gave way and the water poured into the after end of the ship, and she settled low into the water until her rails were under and everything in the cabin was afloat. No provisions could be had, and the seas were washing clear over the decks, carrying away everything movable. On March 19, matters became desperate and the crew and I took refuge in the rigging, not knowing what our fate would be, but hoping to sight a sail. About 1 o'clock on the afternoon of that day we sighted a vessel, which afterward proved to be the Polaris. The wind was equally with heavy rain, and for two hours the schooner disappeared. I concluded our signals of distress had not been seen, and waited for the schooner to go ashore, as I had headed her in the direction of land. I was afraid that if I put on much sail the Klose would turn turtle, so only one small sail was set. When we had about given up hope the Polaris again came into sight, headed straight for us. About 5 o'clock she drew close enough to hail us. We got a boat launched with much difficulty and tumbled in and rowed through a tremendous sea to the Polaris. It was indeed a fortunate thing we were taken off when we were, as that night and the next day the wind blew a hurricane, and with nothing to eat and exposed to these conditions we would surely have become exhausted and been blown into the sea and lost. We were treated royally by Capt. Peterson and the crew of the Polaris on our voyage with them to this port."

"On the afternoon of March 19," said he, "I went on deck about 1:30 o'clock and it was only through sheer good fortune I saved the crew of the Klose. I was talking to the mate about the advisability of changing our course, when suddenly the wind freshened and we decided to continue to stand in shore. A short time afterward we sighted the Klose, but could not make out whether she was a sealer or some vessel in distress. Her actions, however, were peculiar. She was to the windward of the Polaris and I determined to find out who and what she was. The wind was blowing a gale and there was a tremendous sea running. I stood off for a time, but finally tacked back and came in a short distance of her. I had remarked to Capt. Wagner, while going down the Columbia River, knowing that he would sail first: 'I'll see you again in a few days,' referring to what I consider the better sailing qualities of the Polaris. However, I did not expect my prediction would be verified in the startling manner it was. After some difficulty the crew of the Klose launched a boat and came aboard the Polaris. I wish to say," said Capt. Peterson, "that I never saw a better crew than that on the Klose. They worked along with my men, and we had much work to do in reefing sails, etc. and they were always quick, prompt and efficient. I made a good trip down in spite of my experiences and adverse winds, coming down from Astoria in eleven days."

Besides Capt. Wagner, the following persons composing the crew of the C. A. Klose were rescued by the Polaris: L. Lazzarvitch, mate; Ernest Gruff, second mate; W. G. Anderson, cook; Harry Smith, A. Holderland, W. Heintz and J. Johnson. A. W. Beadle of San Francisco was the managing owner of the Klose.

BOY DIES FROM BURNS.

Freddie Hansen, aged 15, a messenger boy, was so badly burned in a fire at the corner of Fifth and Beacon streets at an early hour this morning that death mercifully put an end to his horrible sufferings a few hours later. Joaquin Constantine, his companion, aged 17, was seriously burned about the face and hands, but will recover.

The fire started in the cigar store of Allen & Baly. John Baly of the firm is chief of the local fire department. A messenger service was operated by the firm, and it was the custom of the two messenger boys to sleep in the store on a cot only a few feet from the front of the store. It is thought that the boys had been smoking cigarettes during the night and set fire to their bedding. Capt. J. Emerson, the night watchman, was making his rounds shortly after 1 o'clock this morning when he discovered the blaze. He tried to kick open the door, loudly calling for help. Special Officer John Franks and a young man named Leo McDonald responded, forced the door open, and rushing into the burning building, found the unconscious forms of the two boys and dragged them outside.

Young Hansen was a mass of flames and there was scarcely a place on his body uninjured. The cuticle from his hands came off, bringing the nails, so severe were his injuries. Everything possible was done to save him, but he was beyond help. McDonald, who assisted Officer Franks in the heroic work of rescue, was badly burned about the hands and arms.

The parents of the dead boy reside here. Chris Hansen, the father, is a well-known ship carpenter, employed by the Wilmington Transportation Company.

Before the fire was under control the block at the northwest corner of Beacon and Fifth streets was destroyed. The buildings were owned by George H. Peck and were covered by insurance. The following business houses were destroyed: Allen & Baly, cigars and tobacco, loss $600, insurance $400; Joe Barca, groceries, loss $1500, insurance $800; W. Hunter & Co., dry goods, loss $2300, insurance $1000; R. X. McArthur & Co., real estate, loss $500, insured.

SANTA MONICA.

WOULD HAVE STEEL BRIDGE.

SANTA MONICA, March 29.—In a report to the City Trustees City Engineer James recommends the construction of a concrete-steel bridge on Ocean avenue near Front street to replace the old wooden bridge. The cost of other betterments in the form of bulkheads for the protection of the sewers and ocean front sidewalks from storm waters and high tides will call for a total expenditure of $25,000.

A bowling tournament is to open on the North Beach alleys on Friday night. It will be participated in by teams from Los Angeles, Long Beach and Santa Monica. There will be trios and double and single events.

Arrangements are all completed for a double basketball contest at Oxnard Saturday between boys' and girls' teams from this city, with like teams of Oxnard.

C. C. Lewis, Los Angeles; Miss Stella Lucas, Menomonee, Wis.; Mrs. W. A. Severson, Los Angeles, and R. G. Miller, Denver, are at the Arcadia.

As the basketball league officials failed to appear, the championship game between the Santa Monica Reliance and Breaker teams was not played last night.

SAN DIMAS.

HOT AFTER A BARBER.

SAN DIMAS, March 29.—Since Victor C. Condron took his hasty departure from the gambling arena of this community, being speedily followed by his father, certain financial transactions of the barber have placed his predecessor in the business in a very compromising position. Steinen & Kirchner of Los Angeles say that they leased to Claud Willitts, a barber chair which was to remain their property till fully paid for, that he sold the chair to Victor Condron who sold it to R. M. Sipple of Azusa who has also sold it to another man. In the meantime Steinen & Kirchner have not been paid. A member of the firm says he has given Willitts till next Wednesday to pay up or take the consequences.

This same man Willitts also leased a buggy from R. M. Sipple of Azusa which he sold to Condron without going through the formality of paying Sipple, who seized the buggy from Condron. Claud Willitts recently transferred the block known as Willitts Hall to his brother-in-law, J. W. Crane.

GEMS STOLEN BEYOND PRICE.

DIAMOND HEIRLOOMS TAKEN BY PORCH-CLIMBER.

Clever Robber Enters Thresher Residence on Westlake Avenue by the Only Unlocked Window While Family is Dining and Steals Thousands of Dollars Worth.

Thousands of dollars worth of diamonds were stolen from the handsome residence of George P. Thresher, No. 1013 Westlake avenue, Tuesday evening, while the family was at supper.

The successful haul was undoubtedly made by someone familiar with the house and its occupants, as the thief entered by the only window in the house that was unlocked, and chose an hour when the family was gathered in the large dining-room and the upper rooms of the house were unoccupied.

Sometime between 6:30 and 8 o'clock the porch climber entered a window on the rear piazza. With a perfect knowledge of his surroundings the housebreaker went directly to Mrs. Thresher's room, opened a bureau drawer and secured the valuable gems. Not content with this rich find, he searched other receptacles, throwing their contents on the floor. He even entered an adjoining room, but his search was for diamonds, and nothing else was taken.

As he had entered, so he departed with his booty, through the one unlocked window and down over the porch, where vines and trellis-work made this easy.

That he is a clever rascal is shown from the fact that he took nothing of value outside of the gems, some of which were almost priceless to their possessors. Many are of in rich settings of gold, and some are heirlooms, prized for their associations.

Mrs. Thresher is at a loss to account for the robbery. Yesterday afternoon, when asked the value of the diamonds taken, she could not set a figure, as she declared the gems to be priceless. She thought the robbery had been well planned and was certain the thief could not have gained entrance to the house had he not known the location of the small unlocked window on the rear piazza.

"If it will help anyone to be on their guard against this porch climber, I am willing to tell what I know," said Mrs. Thresher, "but I hardly think it will help matters to enter into details at this time. We have given the case into the hands of the local detectives, and the police are doing all they can to aid us. There is very little to work on, however, as we have positively no clew to the person who has taken the jewels."

The loss of the beautiful gems is keenly felt by Mrs. Thresher, and tears filled her eyes as she told of the valuable articles taken, and of the little likelihood there is of their ever being recovered.

Mr. Thresher is a wealthy real estate man and he is determined to do all possible to recover the stolen jewels.

The difficulty attending the bold robbery is the absence of all clews, as the thief left nothing by which he could be identified, and apparently took nothing by which he can be traced.

THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL

Few People Know How Useful it is In Preserving Health and Beauty.

Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the same cleansing purpose.

Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system.

Charcoal sweetens the breath after smoking, drinking or after eating onions and other odorous vegetables.

It absorbs the injurious gases which collect in the stomach and bowels; it disinfects the mouth and throat from the poison of catarrh.

All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best charcoal and the most for the money is in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges; they are composed of the finest powdered Willow charcoal, and other harmless antiseptics in tablet form, or rather in the form of large, pleasant tasting lozenges, the charcoal being mixed with honey.

The daily use of these lozenges will soon tell in a much-improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath and purer blood, and the beauty of it is, that no possible harm can result from their continued use, but on the contrary, great benefit.

A Buffalo physician in speaking of the benefits of charcoal says: "I advise Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in stomach and bowels, and to clear the complexion and purify the breath, mouth and throat; I also believe the liver is greatly benefited by the daily use of them; they cost but twenty-five cents a box at drug stores, and although in some sense a patent preparation, yet I believe I get more and better charcoal in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges than in any of the ordinary charcoal tablets."

The transactions on the Stock Exchange yesterday were over 130,000, probably the heaviest day in the history of the exchange. Large numbers of brokers attended the session and each one seemed charged with a large batch of orders. Bidding was keen, beginning with the opening, and toward the close the brokers became excited, owing to a storm which forced prices up and resulted in the last sales for the day.

Associated Oils, among the most active of the securities, were again in much request, 90,000 shares being sold at the opening of 9¾, closing at 9¾@9¾. These stocks will undoubtedly go higher in the near future, the predictions being from 40 to 50. Continental practically maintained its top position of the day before; Fullerton declined ¼ point, the shares being sold, however, at 37½, the figure of the previous day. Globe gained ¼ in the buyer's terms, while Union declined 1 point.

Central Bank gained 10 points, closing at 100 without offerings; but nearly all the other bank securities are in the same case, they simply can't be had.

In the bond market, Associated Oils and Home Telephone focused the major part of the interest, 20 of the former changing hands at prices from 90¼ to 90¾, and 10 of the latter at 50 to 50½.

JAPANESE WAR BONDS POPULAR. Japanese 4½-per-cent. war bonds, third issue, are proving much more popular in Los Angeles than either of the two preceding issues. The subscription list was opened at 10 o'clock yesterday morning at the Farmers' and Merchants' National Bank, and by 2 o'clock $175,000 (nominally $275,000) had been taken up by residents of this city and surrounding places. These bonds are placed at 97½ with accrued interest, and run until 1925, but are payable any time after 1910 upon giving six months' notice.

CROPS IN FINE CONDITION. R. J. Waters of the Citizens' National Bank has returned from a trip in the San Jacinto Valley and reports it has been favored with unusually heavy rains. There are twenty feet of snow on the mountains which will supply the valley with abundant moisture for some time to come. The crops, he says, are in excellent condition, the wheat being from a foot to 18 inches in height and the barley from 9 to 10 inches.

BIG LIMA CROP. Oxnard advices indicate that the acreage in lima beans this year will be much in excess of that planted in previous seasons. In many places where only Washingtons and blackeyes have heretofore been given the preference, very little but limas will be planted this year. With a favorable year from now on the crop, it is said, will be something enormous. But the price has not been affected so far. The Oxnard Courier says:

Three cents is a good price for the grower in a good year, as he has no storage or interest charges to pay and can get his money the day the beans are delivered to the warehouse. There are a good many sacks of limas of the old crop on hand yet, but they are mostly in the hands of the buyers and speculators, and the price on them is certainly quite high. About twelve thousand sacks still remain in the hands of the growers, or farmers, and they are being offered anywhere from four and one-half to five cents per pound for them, although perhaps the latter figure has not been reached in many cases."

PACK OF CANNED FRUITS. A statement of the pack of canned fruits in California, which is prepared from packers' returns received confidentially by the "California Fruit Grower," shows that the output was in excess of that for 1903. A considerable falling off is noticeable in the pack of 2½-lb. pie fruits, 1904 showing but 2,752 cases, against 49,585 cases for the preceding year. The noticeable variations in the general list of fruits are an increase over the large 1903 pack of apricots, 1904 showing 677,127 cases, and cherries show a considerable reduction in 1904 from 1903. Pears indicate a steady increase in the size of the pack, 1904 being 2,262,962 cases, while cling peaches give just under review being steady, 1904 showing 527,622 cases. Other variations over the preceding year are of lesser importance. In the matter of beans and miscellaneous vegetables, the pack of 1904 was a large one, being 9,500,000 sacks, and 29,730 cases in 1902. The table giving these figures in detail follows:

OUT OF DANGER. The San Francisco Weather Bureau reports that apricots, almonds and peaches in the Sacramento Valley have advanced sufficiently to be comparatively free from danger. All deciduous fruits are in splendid condition.

	Water.	Rail.

OUR FRUITS IN LONDON. London mail advices give comparative stocks of California fruits in that market on March 1 as follows:

Prunes, boxes	19,000	1,000
Apricots, boxes	1,000	1,000
Pears, boxes	2,814	102,821
Peaches, boxes	1,815	4,623
	523	523
	1,614	1,614

Prices are on a low level, but no further decline is looked for as the stocks are small. Canned fruits were reported to be very quiet on the English market. Receipts to March 10 were 230,000 cases, out of total shipments from California of 630,000 cases.

Local Citrus Movement.

The shipments of citrus fruits Tuesday were 122 carloads, of oranges and 1 carloads of lemons; grand total of shipments 13,367, of which 1222 were lemons.

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKETS.

The produce market was fairly active yesterday, though the bulk of the trading was in the early hours. Stocks were in little better supply and prices left maintained.

EGGS—Official selling price continues 2c under stocks sufficient to meet the demand.

BANANAS—Ample stocks in the market, tending to weakness, jobbing at 2½ to 4 cents, or 4.25.

POTATOES—Early White Rose easier, jobbing at 4.50 to 6 cents; market firm in fancy grades with some indifference in the common lines.

STRAWBERRIES—Weak and irregular, ranging from 6 to 10 cents in the jobbing trade.

PEAS—Weak, jobbing at 4 to 6 cents.

BEANS—Fairly firm at 2c to 2½ cents.

TOMATOES—Mexicans in fair supply, jobbing at 2.50 to 2.75, with the result that the locals were weak with the regular in price, moving at inside prices.

CABBAGE—Fairly brisk; jobbing at 40 to 50 cents.

CHILES—In better supply, fairly firm at 12 to 13 cents.

CELERY—Steady at 40 to 60.

LETTUCE—Weak and irregular at 20 to 30 cents, but the rain may stiffen prices today.

ASPARAGUS—Hardening, jobbing at 10 to 12 cents.

ORANGES—Fancy grades reported to be going East, resulting in a medium-grade market, prices moving fairly well at unchanged prices.

The Produce Exchange reported receipts for March 28 as follows: Eggs, local, 972 cases; butter, 36,300 pounds; cheese, 12,320 pounds; Irish potatoes, 2000 sacks; sweet potatoes, none; onions, none; beans, 455 sacks.

NOTE—The lobster season closes tomorrow, which is the last day of March, and will remain closed until September 15, and will remain closed until September 15, as heretofore.

onds of navels were offered, and while bidding was not spirited, good prices were paid for fancy lots. From 10 to 20 cent. off standard stock offered was for decayed condition. Prices follow: Fancy, $1.50@1.60; choice, $1.40@1.50; standard, 90@1.00. Seedling oranges are in very light supply, and were quoted firm in price. Other citrus fruits were in quiet demand. Some eighteen crates of Lodi strawberries arrived, and being of fine quality, dragged slowly at from 75@80c per crate. Potatoes met with better demand, and the general market developed a firmer tone; prices prevailed for prime offerings of stock. New potatoes were in free supply and steady at unaltered rates. There was no improvement in the onion market; prices for fancy stock shot sharply upward. It now develops that two large buyers have secured control of the situation, and have practically cornered the local supplies available for this market. Limited consignments arrive from other counties, and higher prices will result. There was a fair volume of business in miscellaneous vegetables, and prices were well maintained. Asparagus continued in keen request, and offerings were well absorbed at maintained prices between the requirements of growing wants and canning. Rhubarb is now a feature, San Jose stock being in evidence at established rates. Peas in moderate supply, and were wanted at previous prices. Green beans and egg plant were in good request. Summer squash was scarce, and wanted; high prices. As did fine green corn and Mexican tomatoes.

This assortment of Two Hundred and Fifty suits were offered our New York Buying Organization at a generous price concession to close out the entire surplus stock of one of the largest New York manufacturers. They are not in all sizes of a kind, but all sizes in the lot. The selling price is unusual for such high-grade textiles, as a little reasoning as to modern merchandise methods will demonstrate clearly why a manufacturer must never have on hand surplus stocks after his season ends. He makes suits by the thousands, dealers buy them by the hundreds, and it is most always the case that a few suits of different lines will be left over. It was a fortunate purchase for us, for it makes a great trade winner to offer our public. These suits are all pure wool cheviots, tweeds, cassimeres and velours, medium weights and colorings, suitable for Southern California the year round. The styles are conservative single sack cut; coats have interlining of linen canvas; front stiffening of hair cloth, and hand worked buttonholes. Sizes range 34 to 44 for regulars only. They are such a great bargain they should not last for more than two days' selling, so are priced for
